Miss Moore and Mr. Dillehay are Wed in Presbyterian Church.

On Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock Graham Presbyterian church was well filled with interested friends to witness the marriage of Miss Margaret Moore of Graham and Mr. J. T. Dillehay of Shelby.

Rev. W. E. Harrop, pastor of the bride spoke the words that made the twain husband and wife. The ring ceremony was used and it was brief, simple and impressive.

With trailing smilax over a background of white and the mellow glow of numerous lighted candles made a scene meet for this union of happy hearts.

Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. Catherine Watson gave a program of appropriate music and Mrs. Wm. I. Ward sang "At Dawning" and "Entreat me not to leave thee." The notes of the Wedding March from Lohengrin proclaimed the entry of the bridal party.

The ushers, Curtis Wrike, Roy King and Mrs. W. C. Goley and H. B. Moore took their places on either side of the officiating minister. Following these were Mrs. B. J. Jeszak, dame of honor, and Miss Lousie Moore, maid of honor, sisters of the bride. Next the bridegroom came with his best man and brother, Harold Dillehay. The bride entered with her brotreen-in-law, B. J. Jeszak, who gave her in marriage. During the ceremony the organ softly sounded the notes of "To a Wild Rose", then followed the recessional.

The bride wore a soft worsted, new-tile colored dress, with brown accessories.

From the church the bride and groom left on a bridal trip south. Upon their return they will be at home in Shelby where the groom is with the Suttle Drug Co.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. W. C. Moore, a graduate from the commercial department of N. C. W., and for several years has been secretary to the Scott Mebane Mfg. Co. Since the announcement of her betrothal on February 17th, she has been honored at many delightful parties given by her numerous friends in and out of Graham, attesting the high esteem in which she is held. The good wishes of all will follow her to her new home.
