

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., DEC. 27, 1934.

Local News.

After the holiday season is over most of us will get back to earth again.

There have been numerous joyful family parties and reunions during the holiday season.

A Christmas tree and enjoyable program was given at the M. E. church last Friday night.

The dozen or more Graham girls and boys, who have been off at school, are at home for the holidays.

The Corsair Club will give their Christmas dance in the dance hall of the Paris building Friday night.

Dr. W. C. Wicker will hold his regular 5th Sunday service at Graham Christian church next Sunday morning.

It's no easy task to get out a newspaper when most people are holidaying around you. If you have doubts, try it.

The Scott-Baker Knitting Co. gave a Christmas tree last Saturday afternoon. It was loaded with gifts for their employees.

A wedding-day anniversary dinner, the 37th anniversary, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Hal Farrell for the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Farrell, last Sunday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Devey Farrell of Greensboro and Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Farrell of Graham.
