aged 59 years, wife of William J. Nicks, Graham's oldest merchant, died during the early part of luesday night in Greensboro at a hospital where she had undergone an operation some hours before. During last year she had had an ald contained the statement that operation from which she had practically recovered. Mrs. Nicks was a daughter of John G. Fowler, long-time and well known resident of this county. After her marriage, about 43 years ago, she came to Gr tham to make her home and had resided here since that time.

Mrs. Nicks was highly esteemed by all who knew her. She was always bright and cheerful and scattered sunshine along the pathway of life. It would be a difficult task to sum up the many deeds of kindness which she performed quietly and unobtrusively, and she will be greatly missed. Mrs. Nicks was a Presbyterian and always active in church and Sunday school work. Besides her husband, Mrs. Nicks is survived by one daughter, Miss Enita; one sister, Mrs. Clarence Teague of Durham; three half sisters, Mesdames Lou Haucock of Grabam, D. T. Cook of Burlington and Ernest James of Fayetteville; one brother, J. M. Fowler of Burlingtou; three half brothers, Walter of Keutucky, Will of Danville, and Lee of Burlington. The funeral service is being held at the Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock this afternoon with Rev. W. E. Harrop in charge. Iuterment will be in Linwood cemetery.

John R. Jones, Life-long Resident of Graham, Died Friday.

About noon last Friday John R. lones died here. He was a painter by trade and was doing some inside work in a bath room at Mrs. W. C. Moore's. Som . one went to speak to him and found him ying on the floor and life extinct. Upon investigation a gas jet was round open and it is thought that he was asphyxiated. It was an easy matter to turn the gas cock pen in moving a step-ladder and other things around and not observe it. Which Town of Graham Originally Mr. Jones, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Freshwater Jones, among the first and earliest resi
