

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., MAY 9, 1935

Local News

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Saunders have under construction a bungalow on No. 62, a short distance beyond the end of W. Harden street.

—The flower show Friday afternoon was a fine affair. In our next we will tell more about it—lack of space this week prevents the notice of merits.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Harden are building a new home, now nearing completion, out on the South side, near the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Jas. P. Harden.

—Mother's Day is the second Sunday in May. That's next Sunday. We blundered last week and said it was May 5th, hence this correction. The third Sunday in June is Father's Day.

—A beauty contest was held at Graham Theatre last Friday night to select "Miss Graham" to represent Graham at the State beauty show in Charlotte. The honor went to Mrs. Durwood Farrell.

—Sale of land for taxes on first Monday in June, the earliest date sale can be made by law, has been postponed. County Manager Huffman and the Commissioners appear to think the better plan is to wait till Fall.

—Next Saturday is the regular payday for holders of shares in Graham Home Building Company. It's not too late to take stock in the series which opened on the second Saturday in March. No better way to start systematic saving.

—An egg with a dial face on it is a queer freak that Dr. Will S. Long gathered in his poultry yard. It had the raised places for the numerals and Dr. Long completed the job by marking it to XII on it. Ripley could fit this in his "Believe it or not" exhibit.

—Assistant Clerk of the Superior Court, Mrs. Izora McClure, has tendered her resignation, effective June 1st. She has held the office for four years and made an efficient official. People having business with the office will miss her, and the office will seem odd without her.

—Graham Chapter U. D. C. will observe Confederate Memorial Day tomorrow and, as has been the Chapter's custom for many years, will give the veterans (only five now living in the county) a dinner. Mrs. John H. Vernon will be the speaker. The services will be held in Green & McClure's funeral parlor.

—It's the cool spell in May. Rains have been plentiful to the extent of hindering the progress of farm operations for half a month or more. A farmer was speaking to us about it to us a day or two ago. But there has been little delay in the growth of such things that make the job of clean cultivation more difficult and irksome.

—Mrs. Geo. H. Ross, the wife of Dr. Ross of Durham and mother of Mr. Clarence Ross, attorney, of Graham, died at an early hour last Thursday morning. She is survived by her husband, four sons and one daughter. Funeral services were held at Durham on Friday afternoon. Mr. Ross' friends here deeply sympathize with him in his bereavement.

—Yesterday afternoon at N. Main and Harden street crossing Mrs. W. V. Boyd bumped into a big passenger bus that had just come to a stop. She was thrown on the steering wheel. She suffered body bruises and a stroke on the head. The lights were broken and radiator, bumpers and fenders damaged. The impact somewhat damaged the rear of the bus.

County Commissioners Oppose Increasing Salary of Clerk Superior Court—Other Business.

The Board of Commissioners met Monday. The monthly report of Dr. Fleming, Welfare officer, was accepted; one was placed on out-side poor list; jury for May Court, two weeks term, was drawn; three beer licenses granted; payment for cow, hens, turkeys and sheep killed by dogs, approved; barbers' price code, shave 20c, haircut 35c, adopted. The Board unanimously passed a resolution requesting the representative of the county to have the bill, increasing the salary of the Clerk of the Superior Court from $2500 to $3000, repealed. Parties having family plots in this cemetery are requested to give their plots such care as is needed, otherwise the Memorial Association will give these family plots the same general care now being given other parts of this cemetery.
