

Local News

Next Wednesday is Christmas day.

To all to whom these presents shall come, our greetings: A happy and joyous Christmas.

Trade has been at the peak this week. The merchants here appear to have had a good trade.

Sunday will be the shortest day of the year—9 hours and 47 minutes, after which the days begin to lengthen.

Graham's street lighting is very attractive. It could scarcely be improved upon—worth a drive at night to see it.

This afternoon at 4:15 Mrs. Don S. Holt is entertaining her music pupils at a tea at the M. P. Club. There will be a recital.

Sheriff Stockard attended court in three counties, all in one day, one day last week, Orange, Guilford and Alamance. He was kept moving.

Finest Fruit Display—Traveling men passing this way yesterday and seeing Freeman's Grocery fruit display, said it was the most attractive between Durham and Greensboro. Hats off to Freeman's Grocery.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper L. Jones announce the birth of a daughter at Rainey hospital Monday morning. Their home is in Roxboro. Mrs. Jones, before her marriage, was Miss Clara Hughes, daughter of the late Heenan Hughes.

Two cash prizes—In connection with the Nitrates of Soda Crop Contest, the award of prizes by the judges released on 18th inst., two Alamance farmers, H. A. Scott of Haw River and Woodrow Faucette of Burlington, received prizes. The contest was open to eight Southeastern States.

The Graham News is the name of a new paper, the first issue of which appeared last Friday. It is published in Durham by the State Progress of which W. W. Weaver is editor and publisher, and in which an announcement was made of the forth-coming of the new paper.

Old soldier robbed—James A. Apple, "Uncle Jimmie", 92-year-old Confederate veteran of Gibsonville, and well known in Alamance, was robbed of $182.50 in Greensboro Monday after he had his pension check cashed. It appears that the young man who did the job posed as assisting Mr. Apple to the bus station.

Checks for the semi-annual payment of Confederate pensions were received Monday by Clerk of Court E. H. Murray. There are only four living veterans in Alamance, John H. Euliss, Jos. S. Gibson, Alfred L. Newlin and Robert J. Thompson, each receiving $182.50. Eight class A widows receive $100; forty-one class B widows, $50; two negro body servants, $100.

A generous response from the public—Dr. P. H. Fleming, Superintendent of Public Welfare, published a list of about 100 needy families and persons who had no prospect for Christmas cheer, except through the kindness of neighbors and friends, hoping a generous public would respond. He has not been disappointed. Individuals, firms, church and Sunday school groups, lodges and civic organizations have responded nobly and generously, to the extent that not a family or individual is left uncared for. A number in addition to the original list have also been provided for, so that none, so far as known, will go unremembered. "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Christmas Service at Court House, Tuesday, Dec. 24.

Dr. P. H. Fleming, Superintendent of Public Welfare, has arranged for a service for the aged, infirm, blind and dependent children on the Public Welfare list, to be held at the Court House at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The program is as follows: Hymn, Graham Music Club; Scripture lesson and prayer; Hymn, Graham Junior Music Club; Song, "Christmas in My Heart", Elizabeth Easley, accompanied by her father, Henry Easley; Santa Clause loaned by Eldred's Department Store, Burlington; Distribution of Good Cheer Christmas Baskets donated by friends; Hymn, Graham Music Club; Benediction; Ushers: Boy Scouts from Graham Troop; Christmas tree donated by J. W.

Graham Home Building Co. to Pay Out $66,800

26th Series Matured---33rd Series Opens 2nd Saturday of March.

With the December payment the 26th series of shares in Graham Home Building Company matured, which makes 81 payments for maturing the series.

Secretary - Treasurer Phil S. Dixon informs us that the payments on each share have netted a profit of $18.00, and that the company has not lost a penny in the 32 years of its operation.

The company earns a fraction over six percent on the monthly payments, besides paying the taxes for which it is liable on its assets and otherwise.

The fortunate ones owning shares in the 26th series, matured with the December payment, will receive $100 per share in cash or the equivalent in the cancellation of mortgages where loans have been made.

The next series of stock, the 33rd, will open on the second Saturday of March, next, when the first payment is due to be made.

Year after year we have urged the people of this community to take one or more shares in the company, not only as a means of saving something each month—no better savings account, but that through the accumulation of the monthly payments, the company may loan to those who want to build new homes or make improvements.

There are hundreds of homes in this community which have been built or improved through loans made by the company, which, perhaps, would not have been but for the easy, long-term payments provided through this company.

Again, we urge those who have never taken a share to do so in the next series. Those who have taken shares from year to year and reaped the advantages, will do so again.

ABSORBING SHORT STORY

"Very Private Secretary" is the title of an engrossing tale concerning a quadrangle to be found in the December 24 issue of the American Weekly, the big magazine which comes regularly with the BALTIMORE SUNDAY AMERICAN. Your newsdealer or newsboy has your copy.

Mrs. Mary Holt Williamson Passes at Martinsville, Va., this morning—Funeral Here at Eleven Tomorrow.

Mrs. Mary Holt Williamson, widow of the late Capt. Jas. N. Williamson, died at an early hour this morning in a hospital in Martinsville, Va., where she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Spencer, for several years. If Mrs. Williamson had lived till Christmas she would have been 91 years of age. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Spencer, and one son, Jas. N. Williamson, Jr., of Asheville and Florida. Her older son and older daughter died a number of years ago. There are several grandchildren.

Mrs. Williamson was a daughter of Edwin M. Holt, pioneer cotton manufacturer of Alamance County, who died over fifty years ago. She was a sister of Gov. Thomas M. Holt and the late L. Banks Holt and five other brothers, only one living, Lawrence S. Holt of Washington and Asheville. She had two sisters, Mrs. Fanny Holt Williamson and Mrs. Emma V. White, both of whom died here. She was of a large and influential family. Her ancestors settled in this section prior to the Revolution, and are a part of the history of the State.

The Green & McClure funeral service was called to Martinsville early this morning to take charge of the obsequies. The funeral service will be held at the Graham Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m. Friday, followed by interment in Linwood cemetery.

Jurors Drawn for Criminal Court Convening Dec. 30th.

At the recent term of Alamance Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases, after a week's work the jail was not cleared. Before the jail cases a number of other cases were left undisposed of. Hence it was deemed advisable to ask for a special term. Gov. Ehringhaus was petitioned and a special term was granted and set for Dec. 30th with Judge Henry A. Grady to preside.

Besides the about 40 cases now on the docket, others will be added by the time the court convenes.

The following have been drawn to serve as jurors:

Boon Station tp.: J. Lester Loy, Fayette tp.: J. H. Wilkins, Graham tp.: A. E. Braxton, George W. Loy, Newlin tp.: Charlie Pickard, Carl R. Stafford.

Thompson tp.: Julius P. Thompson, J. Murphy Coble, A. H. Nicks, Burlington tp.: George H. Fowler, C. P. Paul, J. P. Scott, W. A. Johnson, G. R. Way, A. D. Williams, J. H. McIntyre, J. C. Harris, C. V. Long.
