Radio Signals Now Used to Guide Ships to Port

U. S. Lighthouse Service Is Highly Efficient.

New Haven, Conn.—The United States lighthouse service has constituted an important factor in the economical operation of highly mechanized shipping whose objective has been the saving of time, according to R. R. Tinkham, chief engineer of the service.

of modern aids to navigation has constituted an important factor in this transition. Valuable aids to the mariner devised since the advent of the mariner's compass are the radio beacon and its complement, the radio direction finder aboard ship, Tinkham explained.

PEACE AMONG MEN

By LEONARD A. BARRETT Twenty years ago we went to war to make the world safe for democracy. It was the most disastrous international cataclysm in history.

years ago. Since that time serious social and economic changes have come. These changes have challenged us to inquire: "What benefit did we gain from the World War? What did we accomplish? To what extent have we succeeded in making the world safe for democracy?"

Household Hints

By BETTY WELLS NEAL likes to take long Sunday morning hikes, and he always wants Nira to come along tramping through the woods with him.

Men never realize how much exercise a woman gets just in the course of an average day. Or maybe they do, because they are responsible for most of the step-saver appliances. We've just been seeing a lot of those metal cupboard and cabinets that fit together in units and make the most convenient places to work with wide counter tops and fine vermin proof storage cabinets, plate warmer cabinets and towel drier compartments.

More Lady-Like Fashions. We're back at our swishing and rustling, even in home decorations—fashions this spring are much more lady-like and prettier than they've been—not so athletic looking. This mood is translated into contemporary settings in a revived interest in French and Victorian styles in furniture.

We're Back at Our Swishing and Rustling Again, in Both Fashions and Home Decorations.

HE'S SOME GOLFER

Byron Nelson, lanky ex-railroad clerk from Texas, won the national golf championship in the tournament at Atlanta, Ga.

HEADS GRAND JURY

Mrs. J. Isabel of Newark, N. J., was appointed foreman of the federal grand jury by Judge William Clark. She is credited with being the first woman to head a grand jury in a United States court.

My Neighbor Says:

To give lemon gelatin a deep red color, add cranberry juice to the liquid mixture. If stung by a wasp or bee the pain will be quickly removed if a piece of raw onion is rubbed over the affected part.

WEDDING OUTFIT

Little cut-out flowers flutter over the black net yoke and sleeves of this summer garden printed frock, worn by a lovely model. The dress may be used for informal summer weddings, since nothing is more charming, this season, than a cool gay printed frock, to give the impression of freshly cut flowers.

The conditions in Europe today suggest that our ideal was only an empty dream. We see the human action in military maneuver that causes us to think anew of the prophetic warning: "They that take the sword shall perish by the sword."

Help for British Motorists

Officials of the Royal Automobile club's highway department loading a wagon with signs to aid motorists during the coronation ceremonies in London. The signs instruct auto drivers how to get to advantageous positions or how to avoid congested areas.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, Dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

Lesson for May 23 THE WEAKNESS OF ESAU

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 25:27-34; 27:41-45. GOLDEN TEXT—And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. 1 Corinthians 9:25.

One of the difficult and at the same time challenging things about teaching the Word of God is that its divine precepts are diametrically opposed to the current philosophy of men. In our lesson of last week we saw that meekness and forbearance are strong and commendable qualities in a world which magnifies brute force.

Professors in many colleges are openly advocating the free exercise of every fleshly appetite as a normal expression of life. Morality is cast off; the flesh rules. Many of the nations of the earth look upon boys and girls as merely so many physical units useful in a future war.

Is it true that man is but a beast? Is there no spirit in man capable of fellowship with God? Has the moral law of God been abrogated? The story of Esau and Jacob is most pointed and instructive in its answer to such questions.

I. "The Flesh Lusteth Against the Spirit" (Gen. 25:27-34). Esau is a type of the man of the flesh. He was "a cunning hunter, a man of the field."

One is reminded of a clergyman who attended the Keswick Conference in England. He sent a request for prayer to the platform and asked this question: "I have a habit which is dishonoring to Christ. If I give it up I will die. What shall I do?"

Jacob and his mother found that one lie called for another, and ultimately their deceit led (as deceit always does) to the place of reckoning. The law of sowing and reaping is inexorable. Jacob fled from his angry brother. Rebekah thought it would be for "a few days" (v. 44), but it proved to be twenty years, and she never saw her favorite son again.

The Season of Hope Youth is the season of hope, enterprise, and energy, to a nation as well as an individual.—W. R. Williams.

Part of His Plan I find most help in trying to look on all interruptions and hindrances to work that one has planned out for one's self as discipline, trials, sent by God to help one against getting selfish over one's work.—Annie Keary.

Bountiful Blessings Forever from the hand that takes one blessing from us, others fall; and soon or late, our Father makes his perfect recompense to all.—Whittier.

string and they'll measure 10 inches; in cotton, they are 6 1/2 inches. Join together, for tea or dinner cloth, spread or scarf. Pattern 1410 contains directions and charts for making the squares shown; illustrations of them and of all stitches used; material requirements.

Never a Full House The House of Representatives of the United States has never had an opening session in any of the 74 congresses with every member present. The closest approach to a 100 per cent attendance was at the opening of the Seventy-second congress on December 7, 1931, when 433 of its 435 members answered the roll call.—Collier's Weekly.
