Hurrah for the Moon

Sambo had joined a debating society, and the day after his first meeting he was being questioned by friends.

"What was de subject of de debate, Sambo?"

"De subject were, 'What is de Most Benefit to Mankin', de Sun or de Moon?'" replied Sambo.

"And which side did you take?"

"De moon's," said Sambo. "I argued dat de sun shines by day when we doan' need de light, but de moon shines by night, when dat light mos' certainly am needed. An' dey couldn't answer dat, suh!"—Tit-Bits Magazine.

Angus was out for the evening and when he returned he found his father waiting up for him. "How much did the evening cost ye, lad?" he asked at once.

"Half a dollar."

"That's not so bad," he said, visibly relieved.

"It was all she had," the boy explained.

WHENEVER a crowd of actors, producers, directors, and writers get together in Hollywood, the most exciting arguments take place over questions that can never really be settled. Just the other night in the Brown Derby restaurant a group got to discussing who is the most talked-of man in pictures just now and the arguments grew so vehement, an innocent bystander might suspect that a riot was being planned. Instead, it was just a general tossing of verbal bouquets.

Several people think Robert Montgomery is the man of the hour. He recently pepped up his somewhat-waiting career by jumping from roles of society playboys to that of the maniac killer in "Night Must Fall." Other nominations for the man of the hour were David Selznick, because he produced "A Star Is Born," and Darryl Zanuck because he has made his pictures stand for a guarantee of hilarious entertainment.

Not since the days of the Talmadge sisters long ago, have film fans had the fun of watching sisters climb to fame as screen rivals. Now everyone is arguing about the respective talents of Olivia de Haviland and Joan Fontaine. They are sisters, you know. And although Olivia had a big start, appearing in four Warner Brothers pictures before Joan went to work at RKO, there are many who think that by this time next year, Joan will be well in the lead.

Mary Livingstone, who has played such a big part in the success of the Jack Benny radio programs, is thinking very seriously of taking part in a Paramount picture starring Buddy Rogers and Shirley Ross. It is a serious decision, because it entails having an operation on her nose and Mary does not like hospitals or other or knives or inactivity or even breathing through her mouth.

Innumerable fans have asked me if the impressive mansion and estate which Fredric March presents to Janet Gaynor in the course of the plot of "A Star Is Born" was especially built for the picture. Others think they recognize it as the house once occupied by Barbara Stanwyck, when she was married to Frank Fay. Neither theory is correct. The house belongs to a Los Angeles real estate dealer and was merely rented by the Selznick-International company for two days.

The enterprising young Grand National company certainly stole a march on the rest of the studios when they signed Stu Erwin to a starring contract. Since that time "Dance, Charlie, Dance" which he made for Warner Brothers has been previewed and Stu has landed right up in the thin ranks of top-notch comedians. He has finished his first picture for Grand National. It is called "Small Town Boy" and everyone says it is a knockout.

Ever since Myrna Loy finished "Parnell," she has been enjoying a lazy vacation at Ensenada, Mexico, where a gleaming, luxurious hotel shares scenic honors with the harbor which is said to be the most beautiful in the world—even more beautiful than the far-famed Bay of Naples. Her husband, Arthur Hornblow, got away from his duties at Paramount long enough to spend a week with her and was seized with the inspiration to write a picture set in the locale of Ensenada. Myrna hopes that she can stay on there while it is filmed but M-G-M have a crowded program ahead for her.

ODDS AND ENDS—A little boy working on the set of "Varsity Show" at Warner Brothers came down with measles, and the whole troupe headed by Dick Powell had to knock off work and watch for symptoms for two or three days. . . Errol Flynn brought two lion hounds back to Hollywood with him, the only ones of their breed in America, and now everyone is wondering what these sporting dogs will do for amusement, hunt at the Universal zoo? . . . Jean Arthur just cannot fix her own hair, so when the studio hairdressers went out on strike, her director, Mitchell Leisen, arranged her locks for her, and very well too. . . Clark Gable and Carole Lombard went as cowboy and cowgirl to a recent masquerade birthday party and took the honored sixth & Sheffield pony as gift. © Western Newspaper Union.

Early Sheffield Plate

Early Sheffield is most valuable for reasons other than its age. The silver coating is much thicker and its style simpler, though occasionally a little clumsy. So lavish were the smiths with their silver in the early period that, more than a century and a half later, hardly any copper can be seen at all in the old pieces, while in those made later it sometimes is more evident than the remaining silver.
