

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., SEPT. 9, 1937

Local News

Mebane Six - Counties Fair opens Monday and runs through the entire week—six days.
Haw River string band will furnish music for the week-end dances at VFW Lake, Friday and Saturday nights.
Miss Josephine Baker has just opened her Dancing School next door to Stansell's Beauty Parlor, W. Harden street.
Graham Bowling Parlor is installing an up-to-date lunch room. The sign over the door reads: "Puritan Quick Lunch."
Graham School is opening today. Principal W. A. Young is looking for a materially increased enrollment over last year.
Work has commenced on putting down the concrete sidewalk on the Maple street side of the postoffice for which bids were advertised several weeks ago.
The Brannocks and Fancettes will have a family reunion at Shiloh church, north-west Alamance, Sunday. Judge E. S. W. Dameron is speaker for the occasion.
Maple Service Station at west end of West Harden street, handling Sinclair products, is now operated by A. M. McCauley, "Mack," who will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally.
It's cooler since the thunder storm Sunday afternoon and night. There will, perhaps, be a hot day or two during the early fall, but before the May days come again there'll be many a wish for the "good old summer time."
Superior Court, Judge Clawson L. Williams presiding, opened this morning for the trial of civil actions, and will continue through next Thursday. It was to have convened Tuesday, but two days were clipped from the calendar.
Representatives of the Young Democratic club of Alamance county are leaving for Winston-Salem tomorrow morning to attend the State Convention, which will be in session two days—Friday and Saturday.
The Wednesday Study Club met with Mrs. John B. Stratford yesterday afternoon. Mrs. M. E. Yount presented the program, which centered around the poet Edgar Guest. The officers of the club are Mrs. Stratford, President; Mrs. Allen B. Thompson, Secretary, and Mrs. Yount, Treasurer.

Among The Sick.
Woodson L. Andrews is quite sick at his home, N. Maple street.
Joseph S. Holt is home from Alamance General Hospital and is improving, his friends will be glad to learn.
Mr. J. D. Lee suffered a heart attack the latter part of last week and has been quite ill since.
Moser Reunion Sunday, Sept. 12th.
The Moser family will hold a reunion on Sunday, 12th inst., at Melancthon Lutheran church, four miles west of Liberty, beginning at 11 a. m. and closing at 2 p. m.
Those connected by blood or marriage and friends are expected to attend, and carry the well-filled basket. D. C. Holt is president of the organization.
Fogleman - Shoffner Family Reunion.
Next Saturday the Fogleman and Shoffner families will hold a reunion at Low's Lutheran church, just over the Alamance County line, in Greene township, Guilford County.
A program for the morning and afternoon entertainment has been prepared - 10:30 a. m., and 1:30 p. m.
There will be band and vocal music, and some special numbers by special groups.
The exercises will be opened with prayer by Rev. D. I. Offman. The morning speaker will be Judge E. J. Davis of Washington, D. C., and in the afternoon Mr. W. L. Shoffner, attorney of Burlington will speak.
The Foglemans and Shoffners are numerous in Greene township, Guilford County, and over in Coble and Patterson townships, Alamance County. If all the kith and kin attend, it will come near taking in a majority of the residents of that section.

More Than 200 Nicholson Kith and Kin Gather for Reunion.

The aged and tender babe and the betweens of the Nicholson lineage gathered in a reunion occasion Sunday, September 5th, at the home of Joe A. Nicholson, down in the Saxapahaw community.
More than 200 of this pioneer family composed the assemblage. It had grown and spread till many of them were strangers to one another—did not know they were akin until they began to trace the lines. Lots of other families do not know who are of the same blood lines. In a majority of families the family record has been poorly kept. Full family records are sometimes quite useful, always very interesting. There is a hope that these numerous latter day reunions will inspire the keeping of fuller and complete records.
The entertainment, other than gathering around the festive board, consisted of quartette singing and other vocal numbers.
By chance W. Kerr Scott, Commissioner of Agriculture, was at home for the week-end and attended the gathering. He was called upon and made a short talk. J. Sam White of Mebane was there also and responded to a call for a speech.
The invocation before the dinner was made by Rev. D. I. Garner of Mebane. It was a bountiful, splendidly prepared and satisfying dinner that the numerous families joined in serving.
The patriarch of the assembly was Green A. Nicholson of Bellemont, unusually active for his years, who will round out his four-score on September 14th, next. The youngest was an infant, but a few weeks, the daughter of Bartemous Nicholson. Representatives of the family were present from Waynesboro, Va., Bennettsville, S. C., Greensboro, Durham, Raleigh, Troy, Guilford College, Burlington, Graham, Mebane and various parts of Alamance county. The organization is headed with J. W. Nicholson, president, and Mrs. Izora Nicholson McClure of Raleigh as secretary.
The Gleaner hopes that all who attended this reunion will be privileged to attend many more.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis and family went on a vacation trip the latter part of last week and the first of this to White Lake and Bladenboro and visited his mother. Mr. Davis is a clerk in Graham postoffice.
Mrs. Izora McClure, with the N. C. Industrial Commission, Raleigh, spent the week-end with relatives and attended the Nicholson family reunion at the home of Joe Nicholson, near Saxapahaw. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Nicholson and lived in Graham a number of years.

Putman and Hyser.
Reported for The Gleaner.
A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Reverend and Mrs. G. H. Huff, Graham, North Carolina, Saturday evening, September 4, when their nephew, Thurston Elroy Putman, and Grace Virginia Hyser, both of Taneystown, Maryland, were united in marriage. The couple arrived at the home of the officiating clergyman early Saturday morning, having motored from Maryland.

The attractive bride is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hyser and the groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy V. Putman of Taneystown. The bride and groom are very popular in their community.
A simple ring ceremony was used. Clifton W. Enfield, senior at State College, cousin of the groom, served as groomsman, while Ruth V. Smith, of Graham, acted as bridesmaid. Vaughn Boone, of Bethel, was second attendant and Margaret Smith, a sister of the bridesmaid, was second attendant to the bride.
The house was tastefully decorated with cut flowers, and arranged by Mrs. Enfield.
The bride was attired in dark navy blue, and carried a spray of white china asters, a gift from the groom. The groom wore the conventional black.
On Monday morning the newly wedded left on a honeymoon trip through the Shenandoah Valley.
Others present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. Luther Holt of Saxapahaw, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Boone and T. C. Boone, Jr., of Bethel.

Man Killed on 62, Car Fails To Make Sharp Curve.

Sunday evening a car from Michigan left a sharp curve on 62, highway from Graham by Yanceyville to Danville, turned over and rolled into Hogan's creek. LeRoy P. Stephenson of Detroit was fatally injured and Thomas Cornell of Trenton, Mich. was seriously injured.
The road crosses Hogan's, Moon's and Country Line Creeks in Caswell county. At the approaches to two of them the highway is a succession of sharp curves and the wonder is there have not been more accidents.
The engineers did a fine job of negotiating the grades, but they made a road with many sharp curves that makes driving hazardous.
This paper suggested, when Mr. Sam Bason of Yanceyville was named on the Highway Commission, that he could perform a worthwhile service at his very door by relocating portions of 62 and eliminating some of the dangerous curves. To do so would doubtless save other lives and forestall numerous accidents.

Not Tons, but Carloads of Salt.

Tuesday morning Chas. F. Cates and one of the three sons, Howard, of Mebane and Faison, were in Graham. The father, years ago, before the boys were old enough to assume business responsibilities, began putting up pickles on a small scale. The product met with favor and the business grew. The boys grew, too, and became partners in the firm of Chas. F. Cates & Sons.
"The Swathmoor Farms" is the name adopted for the industry, Chas. F. Cates & Sons, proprietors.
In a short talk, not an interview, with Mr. Cates, cucumber growing was mentioned, then salt.
Some of you will remember that your grandmothers saved their cucumbers in a brine. Picklers use the same method yet—using not a few pounds, but large quantities. The cucumbers for the brine process are placed not in 5 or ten gallon jars but in tanks holding several hundred gallons. Swathmoor employs a score or two of these big tanks—and it takes salt, not tons, but carloads. Mr. Cates mentioned that during this season they had used more than 40 car loads. Some faint idea of the extent of business can be imagined when the big tanks and the carloads of salt are mentioned. Literally Swathmoor makes pickles for millions of consumers.

Graham Drug Store Offers FREE Sample of New High Blood Pressure Treatment

Every High Blood Pressure Sufferer in Graham is urged to go to the Graham Drug Co., and receive a free sample of ALLMIN Essence of Garlic Parsley Tablets for High Blood Pressure as well as a book of valuable information. These tablets are made by a prominent Chicago concern and according to reports from doctors they are most effective in reducing High Blood Pressure, relieving headaches and dizziness. A special new process by which ALLMIN Tablets are produced makes them both tasteless and odorless. A two weeks' treatment costs only 50c.
Notice has hereby given that J. F. Rogers has applied to the County Commissioners for license to operate a pool parlor in W. H. Williamson building opposite Z. T. Walker's store on the Glencoe road. Unless objection in person or by mail is filed with said Commissioners on or before the first Monday in October, license will be issued.
This August 26, 1937.
