A hen laying 200 eggs puts about 14 times as much calcium into the eggs as is contained in her body. Sound shells call for plenty of calcium, especially near the end of the laying season.

Art of Leading

In any form of shooting at moving targets, "lead" is all-important. Lead them and you will get them. No man can figure out, experts say, by mathematical calculation, just how far to lead a flying target, whether it be game birds or thrown targets. Each presents an individual problem.

Captain R. G. Foster Passes

Ralph Gray Foster, 97, passed this morning at 3:20, at the home of Mrs. Heenan Hughes on Sideview street.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home Friday afternoon at 3:30. Burial will be in Pine Hill cemetery.

Captain Foster was born in Virginia, but came here from Ohio in December 1897, making this his home since that time.

He has been with the Gleaner, at different times, for the past 48 years, retiring from his work on the 25th of January, this year.

The Captain was a member of the Brotherhood class of the Presbyterian church and Graham's oldest citizen.

Music Club Meets

Mrs. E. N. Caldwell and daughter, Mrs. Frank Hartsfield, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Long and Miss Geraldine Wall, were hostesses to the Music Lovers club Tuesday of last week at the former's home.

The program, arranged by Mrs. Leo Grutsch and Miss Sarah Bell Thompson, was given preceding the business session of the club. The program was made up of vocal solos by Miss Elaine Diab and Miss Hilda Somers; and piano numbers by Miss Nancy Robertson, accompanied by Mrs. Kathleen Merrill all of Burlington.

During the business session, presided over by the club president, Miss Dorothy Foust, the club voted to send money to Mrs. Wharton in Greensboro to help buy musical instruments for an Army or Navy hospital.

The meeting closed with a delightful social hour, when the hostesses served tea, sandwiches and cookies.

Kiwanis Club Meets

Lexie Ray, official of the N. C. Dairy Products Association, discussed dairy development in Alamance county which brought a revenue of nearly a million dollars from over three thousand cows in 1943, before the Graham Kiwanis club weekly gathering on Monday night.

The speaker was introduced by Ralph H. Scott, manager of Melville Dairy. Guests of the meeting included D. R. Fonville of the Burlington club interrelations committee, and others who brought greeting from their organization. Howard Cleaves, noted wildlife photographer, who presented the program at the high school on Monday night, was also a guest.

President Jarosz presided and the invocation was given by Envoy Robert Tritton. Attendance was very high.

D. A. R. Meeting

The Alamance chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. Ernest Thompson. Mrs. Herbert Long was associate hostess.

Mrs. Herbert W. Coble had charge of a musical program. She presented Mrs. Francis Martin who sang three solos.

During the social hour the hostesses served strawberry shortcake, coffee and toasted nuts. They were assisted by Misses Sarah Bell Thompson and Margaret Long.

Art of Leading

In any form of shooting at moving targets, "lead" is all-important. Lead them and you will get them. No man can figure out, experts say, by mathematical calculation, just how far to lead a flying target, whether it be game birds or thrown targets. Each presents an individual problem.

In game bird shooting, a high-flying duck, a zooming grouse, an erratic timber-doodle, a cackling pheasant, the booming burst of Mr. Bob White Quail, and all the rest of them, present each individual with the problem of leading.

The art of leading comes only through experience in shooting. No "shot" is over the same. A puff of wind, a twig in the way, a slip of the foot, a faulty swing, and many other factors play important parts in shooting that brings "home the bacon."
