

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., MAY 10, 1946.

Local News

Mrs. R. W. Loy, clerk with selective service board No. 2, is on leave to undergo an appendectomy at Alamance General hospital. Mrs. Loy is expected to be out for several weeks.

Over 300 citizens of Graham attended the community sing held at the Graham Methodist church Sunday afternoon. The program was the first in a similar series of musical programs to be held during the summer months.

William P. "Bill" Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Smith, Abright avenue, ministerial student and a member of the junior class at Wake Forest college, has been elected president of the Eurlian Literary society for the summer and fall sessions.

Plans for the Graham community house are going forward, while the planning committee is making further study and investigation of similar projects in other places.

Now it is expected that another public meeting of all Graham citizens will be called within the next two or three weeks.

The final Parent Teacher meeting for the year will be held this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the school auditorium. Installation of officers for the coming year will be held. The program for the evening will be in charge of Miss Margaret Harden and Mrs. W. A. Young, with the pupils of their fifth grades taking part.

V-E Day was celebrated here on Monday by closing places of business and raising the flags to full mast for the first time since the death of President Roosevelt. Churches opened their doors for special services of thanksgiving and prayer. Any hilarity was dimmed by the realization that so many had given their lives to bring about this Victory; and that the other half of the war is yet to be won; and many more of our boys must die before we can celebrate a real Victory Day.

Among The Sick

Lon Turner underwent a major operation at Alamance General hospital Tuesday morning.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Fannie Jones Loy left Friday for Springfield, Ill., to spend sometime with her husband, Pfc. James C. Loy, who is stationed there.

W. Ernest Thompson, secretary of the North Carolina funeral directors and burial association, attended the district meeting in Reidsville on Monday.

Mrs. Frank Stockard and children, Miss Annie Frank Stockard and John Hardy Stockard, spent Sunday at Carolina Beach with Mr. Stockard, who is there for his health.

Mrs. Charles L. King of Houston, Tex., spent Tuesday with her cousin, Mrs. Roger W. Moore, Chapel Hill road. Mrs. King is the wife of Dr. King, moderator of the Presbyterian churches in the United States.

Mrs. Donald F. Noyes returned to her home in Charlotte on Monday after spending about ten days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles A. Thompson. Mrs. Noyes was joined for the weekend by her husband, whom she accompanied home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Wells, route 2, received a telegram on Monday from their son, S 1-C George William Wells, who had returned to the states. Seaman Wells, who is in the Navy, has been in the Pacific war area for 18 months and is on his way home.

May Day Program Well Attended

Nearly 1,500 persons attended the annual May Day program at the school Tuesday afternoon. Miss Geraldine Wall, head of the school music department, was in charge and directed the program. Miss Betty Horner, high school senior, was crowned as "Queen of the Maye".

In a very colorful pageant, the program was unfolded with appropriate music and dances from the grand procession through a May pole dance and the recessional march. Members of each of the high school grades served as attendants to the queen, and children from the different grades in school took part in dances and folk singing.

The program was given on the front lawn of the school where the queen's throne had been constructed in front of the May pole.

U. D. C. Meeting

The home of Mrs. Seymour S. Holt was the place of meeting for the Graham Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy for the May meeting on last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. G. L. Larsen was assisting hostess. The chapter president, Miss Mamie Parker, presided. After various reports were given Mrs. Holt who was delegate to the District meeting held in Chapel Hill gave an interesting account of the meeting.

The program on "Robert Mercer Taliaferro Hunter, U. S. Senator and Confederate secretary of state", was given by Mrs. J. J. Henderson, who gave an interesting review of Henry H. Sivms' "Life of Robert M. T. Hunter."

Following Mrs. Henderson's review, Miss Parker read a brief but informative sketch on Memorial Day.

Concluding the meeting, Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Larsen served tea and wafers.

Birthday Parties

Three members of the Happy Hours kindergarten have recently celebrated their birthdays with parties at the kindergarten, of which Mrs. R. N. Cook is director.

John Blaine Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Andrews, celebrated his sixth birthday with members of the kindergarten as his guests, and his mother assisted Mrs. Cook.

Guerard Scott, son of Mrs. Wm. deR. Scott, celebrated his sixth birthday on last Thursday morning. The young host's mother and Mrs. H. W. Scott were present.

Barbara Ann Deese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Deese, celebrated her sixth birthday Monday morning.

At each party there was a beautifully decorated birthday cake, which was cut and served with ice cream. Games were played and party favors were given to the guests.

Elects A Split Ticket

C. Hallie Moore, running on the Republican ticket, won the election as mayor by a majority of only 16 votes on Tuesday, defeating Major Floyd L. Phillips, the Democratic choice. One Republican commissioner, Al Wilkinson, and four incumbent Democratic commissioners won the positions on the board.

The returns from the two voting precincts on the recount came close to a tie, which recalls another even closer election; the year that R. B. (Bob) Holmes won the election from Heenan Hughes, Republican, by a decision of one vote.

Commissioners re-elected were W. Ernest Thompson, Allen Tate, Fletcher V. Steele, Hal McAdams, with Harold Cox losing.

Total votes cast for each candidate include Moore over Phillips, 832-817; Thompson, 849; Wilkinson, 825; Tate, 848; Steele, 828; McAdams, 825; Foster Hughes, 820; Harold Cox, 813; Charlie Owen, 807; Clarence Kimrey, 808; and Kuhl Holt, 782.

Tuesday's election gives the Democrats four votes and the Republicans one on the board of commissioners, with the new mayor to be in charge of the municipal court. The new officers and the incumbents will be sworn into office at 7:45 tomorrow night when a meeting has been called for at the town hall.

Killed In Action

Pfc. John Hardin Byrd, 23, of Mebane, was killed in action in Germany on April 14, according to word received by his wife recently. He was a member of the 83rd division of the Ninth Army, and had received the infantryman's combat badge for "displaying exemplary conduct in action against the enemy," and expert rifle medal.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest N. Byrd of Burlington, Route 3, Pfc. Byrd entered service in August, 1944, and was sent overseas in January of this year. Others surviving are his wife, the former Geraldine Christopher, one daughter, three years old.

Pfc. James H. Crawford, husband of Mrs. Agnes Sykes Crawford of Burlington, was killed in action in Germany March 24 according to recent notification from the war department.

Serving with the Third Armored division of the First Army, Pfc. Crawford had been overseas since May 1944. He was inducted into the Army in September, 1943.

Surviving in addition to his wife are his mother, Mrs. Addie Crawford, one sister, and two brothers.

Pfc. Thomas B. Terrell, 19, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ben B. Terrell of Burlington, lost his life in action as a tank gunner in Germany on March 24, according to a message received by his aunt, Miss Lowney Durham of Burlington.

He had been overseas since April, 1944. He is a graduate of Burlington high school and a member of the First Congregational Christian church of Burlington where he was active in young people's work.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. G. F. Herring, Jr., or Mount Olive, and Miss Jean Terrell of the home.

Wounded In Action

Pvt. John J. Riggins, Jr., 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Riggins of Haw River, was wounded somewhere in France March 11. He was inducted into service in May, 1944. His wife, Mrs. Margie Riggins and three children are making their home with Private Riggins' parents in Haw River.

Missing In Action

Word was received by Mrs. Flora Lunsford of Burlington, that her son, Sgt. Arthur Lunsford, is missing in action while on a bombing mission over Germany. Sergeant Lunsford, radio operator on a B-26 bomber had completed from 20 to 25 missions in his two years of service.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Baldwin have received word that their son, Jim Richard Lee, seaman second class, is missing in action since April 6, in the Pacific area of operations.

Seaman Baldwin entered the Navy in April 1944, and has been serving on a ship in the Pacific.

John Frank Warren Passes

John Frank Warren, 49, state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and an active social and business man, died suddenly following a heart attack at his home on West Elm street, about 10:30 Monday night.

He was a native of Caswell county and received his education at the University of North Carolina. For many years he served as a buyer for the Imperial Tobacco company of Durham. For the past 15 years, he has operated the Super Service Filling Station.

Mr. Warren served overseas in the first World war with the army and has been state commander of the VFW for several years. He has travelled and was widely known in veterans and business affairs throughout this state and the South. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church and a member of the Kiwanis club.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Annie Moore Warren; one son, Frank Warren, Jr., his father, J. N. Warren of Burlington; two sister, Mrs. Roger A. Jennings of Greensboro, and Miss Clara Mae Warren of Burlington; and one brother, Willard Ralph Warren of Kansas City, Mo.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church. Dr. E. N. Caldwell officiated. Burial was in the Linwood cemetery, where military and V. F. W. memorial services were held.

Lewis Earl Kirkman Passes

Lewis Earl Kirkman, 63, secretary and treasurer of the Kirkman Plumbing and Heating company of Burlington, died Tuesday evening at 6:20 in a local hospital following a sudden heart attack at a baseball game. He was taken to the hospital in an ambulance, but died in a few minutes.

Mr. Kirkman was the husband of Mrs. Kitty Harris Kirkman, and was a native of Guilford county, but had made Burlington his home for many years.

Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Front Street Methodist church of which he was a member, by Rev. L. C. Larkin, pastor. Burial will be in Pine Hill cemetery.

Surviving in addition to his wife are three daughters, Mrs. Worth Thompson of here; Mrs. Robert F. Thompson of Greenville, and Miss Dorothy Kirkman of the home; four brothers, Van, Lacy, Kirby, all of Greensboro; and Norman of Holly Ridge, and four grandchildren.

Negro Citizen Passes

Rev. John E. Simpson, a well known citizen of Alamance County for more than sixty years, died Saturday in the Alamance General hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at Green Level church Tuesday afternoon.

Surviving are his wife, 6 daughters, a foster son, 20 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

Rev. Simpson, better known as "Uncle John" was loved and respected by all who knew him both white and colored.

Buy, Buy a Bond, They'll Bye-bye Junior for Mom

WASHINGTON, D. C.—"Buy, buy a War Bond and we'll bye-bye baby" is the slogan of two sisters here, who are also sisters in Mu Chapter, THELMA GILDA Psi Lambda Tau sorority at Central High School.

The Misses Gilda and Thelma Klevit announced that parents who'd like a night out, but are held home-bound by baby's needs, now may break their shackles in the easiest possible fashion—by purchasing a War Bond from one of a group of 20 sorority girls.

Graduated now, the Sisters Klevit have kept up their contact with their friends, and when not tending baby are Federal workers. They'll take care of baby if pop and mom will buy a War Bond.

The sisters said that during previous loans other sororities and some fraternities shoveled ashes, cleaned cellars and did other household chores in return for War Bond purchases and they suggest their plan be carried out nationally.
