National Income

How well a man lives is a matter that depends largely upon his in-come and how he divides it. If he earns $40 a week ($2,000 a year) and spends every bit of it on himself, he live about as well as anybody ne unforeseen calamity hits a. If he has a wife and child and an aged parent to support, each individual must subsist on about $10 a week.

How well the people of any nation live is a similar matter. It depends upon the national income and how it is divided. Just like family in-come, national income changes from year to year and it is not always divided the same way. National in-come is the grand total of what everybody in the nation earns. It inall wages, salaries, farm yields, interest, rents, profits and the income of all Americans totaled 160.8 billion dollars in 1944 and that workers got 72% of it, or 116 billion dollars. By "workers," I mean peo-ple who draw wages and small clerical salaries. Corporation prof-its that year ran just under ten bil-

he fruits of their ton. Not amy ago comebody repeated a 40-year-old piece of political propaganda to me, believing it every word. He said, "Here in America 2% of the people have 90% of the wealth." There is not much to say about this state-ment: It is not true. It has never but they vary less than you might think.

Then, workers got 68% was divided, but less than half as much actual money for everybody.

Ancient History

Back in 1929, the year Hoover suc-lars; bigger then, than in 1939. Corcorporations generally earned 9% less than nothing, wages climbed to come figures over a period of years leads to this observation: workers, laborers and clerical people, get more money with the slightly small-er percentage of a big national income than with the bigger per-centage of a small national income. The moral is perfectly clear. We for a big national income than by g about who gets most of it, and then having a small one.

DOGS PLAY PART IN RECONDITIONING OF DISABLED GI'S

Also Proving Useful in Helping Wounded Regain Health, Place in Civilian Life

America's dogs are not only doing a great job on the battlefields of the present war, but are also proving extraordinarily useful in helping wounded and disabled soldiers to regain their health and place in civilian life, reports the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

Communiques drifting in from farfung battlefronts speak of the varied activities of the tens of thousands of the K-9 Corps in "cramping the style" of the enemy wherever he is being encountered.

Newest use of the dogs in war are as sled teams for evacuating wounded personnel from the field of battle. The use of dog teams through heavy snow and in wooded country on the western front has enabled 12 men to be moved out where only one could be handled by stretcher bearers. On the home front "Seeing Eye" dogs in increasing numbers are being trained as companions to blinded veterans. Dogs as "living hobbies" are also proving of positive thera-peutic value in speeding the recovery and reconditioning of wounded and physically or mentally disabled men sent back from oversees. At the Pawphysically or mentally disabled mensent back from overseas. At the Pawling, N. Y., Convalescent Center they are being used as a definite part of the services' recreational activities, success is being experienced with a their home ties, most of them the better in manners, training and obedience for going into service.

Sentiment is growing in many places for some sort of a memorial to mark the contribution of America's dogs on the war front and the home front. Already the Gaines Dog Research Center has announced an award of $500.00 to the person submitting the most acceptable design idea or sketch for a proposed memorial to be raised in honor of the dogs that will have fought and died in World War II. It has been suggested that the most appropriate place for raising such a K-9 memorial would be in front of the Pentagon Building, home of the War Department in the nation's capital.

Tommy and Sis. They Can't Miss

Through his prefits as a junior street salesman of a Kansas newspaper, nine-year-old Tommy Jovalis is the preed possessor of a $100 and a $50 War Bond. But he doesn't own them alone. He asked the man at the post office to make them out in his name with his two-year-old gister. Frances, as converse. He need r, Frances, as co-owner. He pre-mied them to her on their joint ribday last mouth.

Tommy has been "in business" since last July. Every afternoon after school, he plies his wares—up and down Kannas Avenue in Topeka. and down Kannas Avenue in Tupeka.

"It was his own idea to nave his money," according to his father.
"As soon as he started, he began bringing his money home to his mother, and asked her to save it for him. He wanted to put it into War Bomis. He wanted to do something for his America."

Asked what he injended to use the bomis for, Tummy replied, "Some day I want to go to college, and I want Frances to go, too."

RENT CONTROL

All persons renting, or offering for rent, any living quarters whatsoever must register each dwelling unit with rent control office in their rent area. Persons who feel that they are being over-charged for rents may sub-mit complaints to OPA. Complaint forms are available at the local War Price and Rationing Board if your area does not have a rent control office.

Rationing rules now require that each car owner write his license number and State on each coupon in his possession as soon as it is issued to him by his local rationing board.
