

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., SEPT. 6, 1945

Local News

—Football will soon be all-the-go.

—Monday was Labor Day—who did?

—School opened today with a rain.

—V-J Day still leaves us short of fats and oils.

—Household fat salvage is still a number one patriotic duty.

—It's time to be thinking of mailing Christmas packages overseas.

—The schools of Alamance county opened this morning for the fall term.

—The Happy Hours Kindergarten under the direction of Mrs. R. N. Cook, started the fall term Monday morning.

—We still need every drop and ounce of kitchen grease. Butchers will still continue to pay cash and ration points for it.

—The Carolina Airways, of Burlington, was listed among firms whose certificates of incorporation were filed Tuesday with the secretary of state.

—The August quota of ten negro men from the draft board here, left Tuesday for Fort Bragg to take their pre-induction examinations. The board also reports 17 white and 5 negro registrations during August in the 18-year-old group.

—The first week of Alamance County Superior Court for civil action, scheduled to open this past Monday was suspended because of lack of work. However, the second week of this court will open as scheduled originally on next Monday.

Births

Dr. Troxler's Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Perry, of Elon, route 2, a daughter, Connie Marie, August 30.

Mr. and Mrs. George I. Mears of Burlington, a son, George Douglas, September 1.

At Simmons-Lupton Hospital

Seaman First Class and Mrs. M. W. Ursey of Savanahaw, a daughter, Fay, August 22.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wagoner of Burlington, route 5, a daughter, August 28

Mr. and Mrs. George Kandaunas of Burlington, a daughter, August 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Higgs of Burlington, a daughter, Linda Fay, August 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Hruslinski, of Grabur Heights, a daughter, Myra, August 29.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Zeb Ingie of Burlington, a son James Adrian, August 28.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Woody of Snow Camp, route 1, a son, George Harold, August 29.

Pfc. and Mrs. Robert W. Barnwell, Jr., of Burlington, a daughter, August 31.

At Dr. McDade's Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Craven of Burlington, a son, Jack Glosson, August 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minor of Burlington, a daughter, Glendy Mae, August 29.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Boone, of Burlington, route 6, a son, August 31.

Mrs. Wm. deR. Scott Entertains

Mrs. Wm. deR. Scott entertained at bridge last Thursday afternoon at her home on East Harden street, honoring Mrs. Don E. Scott, Jr., bride of July. Three tables were placed for bridge in the living room and reception hall, where late summer flowers were used in attractive arrangements.

The hostess presented her honor guest with initialed linen towels, and also remembered Miss Mary Elizabeth Love of Burlington, bride-elect, with dainty guest towels. High score prize went to Miss Marjorie Bason and Miss Marea Yount received consolation prize.

Following the game a delicious salad plate with brownies and iced tea were served.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE GLEANER

PERSONAL

Jack Stratford and Bill Scott returned Sunday from a weeks stay at Myrtle Beach.

Mrs. A. A. Riddle of Raleigh spent last Thursday here with her brother, Dolph Long.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Browning left Tuesday for Elon College to enroll for the fall term.

Guy Avonn Cain left Monday for Mars Hill, near Asheville, where he will be a student this year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Williams spent the week-end in High Point with their daughter, Mrs. Broadus Cullers.

Mrs. Betty Scott McKenzie of Wilmington spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scott.

Mrs. Roy Wilkins and small son, Kent, are spending a month with Mrs. Wilkins' parents in Philadelphia.

Warrant Officer James A. Drummond has returned from spending the past week with relatives in South Carolina.

Mrs. Lloyd Flint left Tuesday for Sedgefield, where she will be a member of the school faculty during the coming year.

Miss Betsy Thompson returned last Thursday evening from Cheraw, S. C., where she had been the guest of Miss Edith Justice.

Mrs. Frank Hartsfield and small daughter, Sherry, from Tallahassee, Fla., are visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Caldwell.

Lovick H. Kernodle, Jr., of Danville, Va., accompanied by Miss Marie Richardson of Reidsville, visited relatives here Sunday afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Pomeroy returned last Thursday from Nantucket, Mass., where she has been the guest of Mrs. Walter Brooks for the past six weeks.

Miss Marjorie Bason returned Wednesday of last week from Pelham, New Hampshire, where she has spent the summer as a counselor at Camp Runels.

Pfc. and Mrs. Elliott White of Winston-Salem and Bowman Gray Medical College spent Tuesday of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Owens.

Mrs. Robert E. Stratford of Haw River, left last Thursday for Atlanta, Ga., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Walter O. Fonville, Lt. Fonville, and her grandson, Walter Oliver, Jr.

Mrs. Curtis Wrike and children, Jane and Mary Curtis, returned Sunday afternoon from Winstboro, S. C. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Wrike's mother, Mrs. E. J. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bowman had as their guest during the week-end Mrs. W. D. Hannon and son, Bill, of Washington, D. C. and their nieces, Betsy Jean and Nancy Bobbit, from Aberdeen.

Mrs. Mary Owens Drummond and granddaughter, Miss Mary Ann Nelson have returned to their home in Fountain Inn, S. C., after visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Drummond on N. Marshall street.

Mrs. Frank Ross, Jr., and small son, Joseph, left last Thursday for their home at Riverside on the Hudson, New York City, after several months visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Nicholson.

Miss Julia Bowman visited friends in Salisbury on last Friday and Saturday and left Sunday night for Washington, D. C., where she began her duties with the civil service of the Army Air force the first of the week.

Mrs. Harper Barnes returned Sunday from Richmond, Va., where she has spent the past three months. While there Mrs. Barnes was doing special fashion copy writing with the advertising department of Thalhimers.

Mrs. R. Stokes Adderton and little daughter, Sarah Proctor, of Lexington, arrived yesterday to visit their aunt and uncle, Major and Mrs. J. J. Henderson and their cousin, Mrs. Harper Barnes. Mr. Adderton joined them today.

Mrs. Robert Nicholson and children, Larry and Phillip, left last Thursday for their home in Jacksonville, Fla., after an extended visit with her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Nicholson, here, and with her mother, Mrs. Robert Hutchinson in the El Whitney community.

Graham Schools Opened Today

The public schools opened this morning for fall work. Mr. Needham Bryan, formerly connected with the school system of Mecklenburg county, is serving as principle for the first time.

The faculty for 1945-46 is as follows:

Elementary grades: Miss Edith Reece, Miss Lala Browning, Mrs. Bessie Wilson, Mrs. Alan Tate, Mrs. Marea Yount, Miss Mildred Brodie, Miss Dorothy Foust, Miss Emma Cox, Miss Narva O'Daniel, Miss Rosa Jane Knott, Mrs. Mary T. Beck, Mrs. Mark McAdams, Mrs. Mary Lena Bacon, Miss Margaret Harden, Miss Berta Fugua, Mrs. Nellie Stockard, Mrs. Donna Johnston, Mrs. Jack Long, Miss Peggy Beale, Mrs. James C. Shaw and Mrs. Clara Hughes Jones.

High school: Miss Rachel Coble, Miss Gena Church, Miss Elizabeth Hanner, Miss Elizabeth Pomeroy, Miss Meledith Frazier, Miss Louise Thompson, and Mr. Needham Bryan.

Miss Geraldine Wall will be in charge of public school music, with Miss Virginia Caruthers handling piano and the Girl Club. Miss Ollie McBane will manage the cafeteria, and Morris Burke was elected president of the parent-teachers' association.

George Wightman, a local man and former athlete at the University of South Carolina, will coach the football team this year, marking the first appearance of that sport in the school in ten years.

Henderson-Johnson Marriage

A ceremony marked by simplicity and reverence united in marriage Miss Vernell Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Henderson of Pittsboro, route 2, and Van Buren Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Johnson, route 2, on August 25th at the home of the bride's parents at 8 o'clock. Rev. K. E. Bryant, pastor of Mt. Olive Baptist church, officiated using the double ring ceremony.

Rotary Meeting

A comprehensive picture of the world of aviation of today and of the future was given to the Rotary club last Thursday night by Morton L. Funkhouser, district manager of Eastern Air Lines in Charlotte. He was guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the club at its supper in the hotel.

"We stand on a new threshold of travel by air, with the future calling for many civilians to travel by air, and all practical shipping to be freighted by plane," said Mr. Funkhouser. "The skyways of today will become the highways of tomorrow."

The Eastern Air Lines manager told of the work done in this war by aviation to bring the worldwide conflict to an end, citing several problems that arose during the ferrying of supplies overseas by air.

In The Armed Forces

First Lieutenant Charles R. Harden, who was commissioned from the Aviation Cadet corps, at Freeman, Field, Seymour, Ind., was recently promoted to his present rank at the U. S. Army Air Field. The newly promoted officer formerly attended Elon College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Harden of here.

Mrs. Sidney Holt and small son, Michael, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Gault, at Waccamaw, returned home Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Holt's mother and sister, Miss Mary Gault of Washington, D. C., who were her guests for several days.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Brittain, Miss Sarah Bell Thompson and Mrs. Hal Johnston of Charlotte, guest of her mother, Mrs. Johnnie Wicker, and Mrs. C. Moyer Mendenhall and Miss Betty Ward of Lexington, returned Tuesday of last week from a weeks stay at the Chesterfield Inn, Myrtle Beach.

Ensign R. P. Ellington, Jr., and family left for Spartanburg, S. C., Sunday, after spending a week with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. P. Ellington, Route 2. Ensign Ellington received his commission on August 27, in the Merchant Marine Corps, after graduating from Officers Candidate school at Fort Turnbull, New London, Conn. He will report to San Francisco for ship assignment on September 17.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE GLEANER

175th Anniversary of Orange Presbytery Held At Hawfields

On Wednesday, September 5th, Orange Presbytery held its annual meeting, an all-day session, at Hawfields church. This was the 175th anniversary of the Presbytery and the 175th anniversary of the founding of the original Hawfields church, to the day.

At this meeting the present pastor of Hawfields church, Rev. N. N. Fleming, was elected Moderator, and delivered the sermon, at the invitation of the retiring Moderator, Rev. Holland McSwain.

Plans had been laid for a picnic dinner on the grounds, but due to the weather the assembly motored to Alexander Wilson school where dinner was spread in the gymnasium.

The gathering was welcomed by Hon. W. Kerr Scott, who is an elder in the church.

A history of the church from its organization to the present time was given by Mrs. W. Kerr Scott, historian.

4-H Club Dress Review Contest

Ora Lee Scott of Pleasant Grove won first prize in the senior division of the Alamance county 4-H club dress review contest held last Friday in the Agriculture building; and Betty Lou Fincher of the Sunshine club won first place in the junior division. In the biscuit-making contest Delilah Johnson of the Sunshine club won first prize.

Runner-ups were Nannie Gibson of Alexander Wilson, in the senior and Faye Welch in the junior contest.

Ora Lee Scott will represent Alamance county in the annual district contest to select a girl to compete in the state championships, the state winner receiving a trip to represent North Carolina in the National 4-H club dress review contest to be held in Chicago. The district event will be held in Winston-Salem on October 8.

Mrs. Mary Lee James has returned from San Diego, Calif., where she spent the summer with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Hillier Ellington, and is now with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. P. Ellington, on Route 2. Mrs. James will return to Wake Forest College on September 11th, where she will enroll in the senior class.

DEATHS

Mrs. Fannie Lillian Coble, 57, wife of the late K. L. Coble, died Saturday morning after a week's critical illness at Piedmont Memorial hospital in Greensboro. She had been ill for the past three years.

Surviving are five daughters and three sons.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Coble Lutheran church. Rev. Q. O. Lyster officiated, assisted by Rev. Rollin Gibbs.

Jo Ann Barkley, one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Barkley of Burlington, died in Sternberger hospital, last Friday morning after an illness of three weeks. Funeral services were held in Cavalry Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

Surviving besides her parents are two grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nowell of Pittsboro.

Mrs. H. Frank Mitchell, Sr., prominent in the church and community life of Burlington for many years, died early Tuesday morning at Watts hospital in Durham. She had been ill for almost a year, and critically ill for several weeks.

Surviving are her husband, H. Frank Mitchell, Sr., a son, H. Frank Mitchell, Jr., and a granddaughter.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Macedonia Lutheran church, of which she was an active member, this afternoon by Rev. L. Boyd Hamm, and Rev. Lewis E. Schenck, pastor of the of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Comforter. Interment will be in Pine Hill cemetery.

Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Terrell of Elon College, Route 1, were held at the Williams church cemetery yesterday afternoon. The infant died at a Reidsville hospital Monday morning.

Surviving besides the parents, are four grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Terrell of Elon College, Route 1, and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ward, Reidsville, Route 1.

ALMANAC

"Delays have dangerous ends" —Shakespeare

SEPTEMBER

- 10—Commodore Peary is victorious at Lake Erie, 1813.
- 11—Alexander Hamilton appointed first Secretary of the Treasury, 1789.
- 12—National Prohibition Party organized at Chicago, 1889.
- 13—Francis Scott Key writes words of "Star Spangled Banner," 1814.
- 14—Gregorian Calendar adopted by American Colonies, 1752.
- 15—First political party national nominating convention opens, 1812.
- 16—President Roosevelt signs Selective Service Act, 1940.

WFO Service

HADLEY'S

"The Jewelers"

Graham, North Carolina

Bonds

Over America

GOVERNOR'S MANSION

South Carolina's governor's mansion at Columbia is clothed in history and romance that links the old and the new Souths. Built in 1855, it was originally the officers' barracks of the Arsenal Academy. It escaped the fire that swept part of the city that year and came through the War Between the States unscathed. Simple in construction, it is cooled by dense foliage of the beautiful trees surrounding close. War Bonds have maintained a defense against injury to this historic gem and will guard it safely to peace.

U. S. Treasury Department

OPENING FRUIT

JARS EASY WHEN

YOU KNOW HOW

So you can't get 'em open? Well maybe you thought that circular with the jars was advertising matter and threw it away without reading. Don't worry, we will tell you about opening jars and sealing them too, because chances are that part of the trouble with opening is due to failure to follow instructions for sealing. Surely you know about sterilizing everything, leaving plenty of head space, and having the rubbers wet. So we will skip that part.

There are two types of home canning jars, and all have a trade name lettered in the side. The ones with screw-thread necks are Masons. Those with glass lids held in place with wire bands are lightning type or Ideals.

Mason jars are used with one-piece zinc caps and rubber rings, or with two-piece metal vacuum seals, or with glass top seal caps. The glass top seal is sometimes called a three-piece cap because it is made up of glass lid, rubber ring and metal band.

When sealing a Mason jar with zinc cap, place a rubber flat on the sealing surface (you may call it shoulder or ledge), screw the zinc cap down tight, then turn it back about half an inch. This is done to prevent steam forcing the rubber out of place or causing the cap to bulge. The cap is screwed tight as soon as the jar is taken out of the canner.

Use Pliers to Open Jar

The easiest way to get the jar open is to use pliers to pull the rubber out. Small dime store pliers are best for this because friend husband won't be tempted to borrow them when he has to fix the fence. If you have no pliers, the next best way is to run the sharp point of a knife under (not over) the rubber, wiggle the knife sideways (not up and down), then unscrew the cap. If you can't manage this, turn the jar upside down in hot water for five minutes before unscrewing.

When can't get jar open with

DOG OWNERSHIP VARIES WITH SIZE OF COMMUNITY

Farm families having dogs-79%

Families in smaller communities having dogs-49%

Families in large cities having dogs-29%

Families in this group having more than one dog-24%

Families in this group having more than one dog-13%

Families in this group having more than one dog-11%

GAINES DOG RESEARCH CENTER

DOG AN OMNIVORE OR A CARNIVORE?

Meat as Part of Well-Balanced Diet Found More Beneficial Than Meat Alone

Science is revising its ideas on the nature of the dog and his nutritional requirements, says the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

Most people, even dog experts, have thought of the dog as a carnivorous animal. Actually, the dog's digestive tract is definitely that of an omnivore—the same order of life to which man belongs. That the dog's metabolic processes are much like those of man has been pointed out by such eminent researchers in the field of nutrition as Prof. C. A. Elvehjem of the University of Wisconsin and Prof. Clive M. McCay of Cornell University.

In support of the new view these facts have been cited:

1. There are in the United States great numbers of dogs that have passed through their whole lives in good health without tasting fresh meat or raw bones.

2. At the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, good growth in dogs has been obtained on a diet which contained no meat at all.

3. In various other experiments it has been found that straight red muscle meat fed under our civilized conditions, is far from being a complete food—in fact, it is far less satisfactory than meat fed as part of a well-balanced diet.

In his authoritative work, "Nutrition of the Dog," Prof. McCay states that a dog kept on a modern dry food receives the identical good nourishment as a dog in the wild state who subsists on, let us say, rabbits—head, fur and all. The bone-meat in the dog food provides the required calcium and phosphorus. The meat scraps, milk products or soybeans in the dog food furnish the protein otherwise provided by the muscles of the rabbit. The corn or wheat products provide the carbohydrates which the wild animal would have to get from the plant products in the stomach of the rabbit. And the cod-liver oil or concentrates mixed in with the good dry food provide the vitamins which the dog in the wild state obtains from the rabbit's liver. The condition of America's dogs after three years of war amply substantiates Prof. McCay's thesis, according to the Center. When the manufacture of canned dog foods was discontinued in 1942, many dog owners approached the task of changing their pets' diet with trepidation and fear. But they could have saved themselves needless worry, as their experience proved. The dogs not only took readily to the dry foods but proceeded to thrive on them. Because of their success with dry dog foods, there is now a big question whether canned dog foods will ever again regain the leadership they held before the war, it is stated.

Glass Top Seal Caps, put the rubber flat around the rim on the under side (top side has the name on it) of the lid, then place the lid so the rubber lies flat between the top of the jar and the lid. Screw the metal band tight and then loosen by turning it back one-fourth turn. This band must be loose while the jars are in the canner. (Failure to keep this in mind has caused a lot of painful burns.) They are tightened after processing. The metal bands should be taken off the jars the next day after the canning is done. Yes, if the manufacturer's instructions are followed, the jars will stay sealed without the bands. When ready to open, run the sharp point of a knife between the top of the jar and the rubber. Move knife sideways as moving it up and down is likely to damage both jar and lid.

Opening Vacuum Seals

When using Mason jars with vacuum seals, place the lid white side down so that the sealing compound rests on top of the jar. Screw the metal band tight as it will go with ordinary hand pressure and leave it that way until the next day. Then take it off and leave it off. No, you don't tighten the band again after processing. Metal lids, especially those which are slightly rounded or domed, are flexible. The compound is softer than a jar rubber. The flexible lid and soft compound permit steam and air to seep out during processing. That's why the bands are tightened before processing and need not be tightened again.

When ready to open the jar, flip the lid off with a bottle opener, or punch a hole in it and pry it off. The hole is all right because vacuum seal lids should never be used a second time.

When using a lightning type or Ideal jar, put the rubber flat on the sealing surface. Keep the lip out of the way of the wires. Place the lid so that it rests on the rubber. Then pull or push the long wire up until it fits in the groove on top of the lid. Leave the short wire up while the jar is in the canner. Push it down against the side of the jar just as soon as you take the jar out of the canner.

When ready to open, push the lower ball up and the upper ball down, then pull the rubber out with pliers or rub the sharp point of a knife under the rubber, but remember moving the knife up and down may chip the jar or lid.

A Good Place To Meet

A Better Place To Eat

NICK'S CAFE

GRAHAM, N. C.

ALUMINUM AMMUNITION BOXES

Suitable for

MAIL BOXES

$1.00 each

Will Last A Lifetime

LEVIN BROTHERS

417 Worth St. BURLINGTON

For A Midnight Snack!

Nothing ever seem to taste as good as that midnight snack just before retiring—but oh those night-mares after—For a satisfying snack and one that will not disturb your sleep, drink a glass of our delicious tasting, nutritious milk. Keep a quart in your refrigerator at all times. Arrange today for our regular delivery service.

Melville Dairy

PHONE 1600 BURLINGTON, N. C.