Freedom

Individual liberty is one of the teachings of Jesus. It goes hand-in-hand with personal responsibility. How can a man be held responsible for his acts unless he is free to determine how he shall act? The understanding that certain rights are everybody's rights, and that no man can rightly deprive another man of them, is an idea for which the world is indebted to Christianity.

Compulsion in religion is older than history. Every nation's lore is colored with tales of forced worship. In fact, the history of Christianity is marred with a shameful record of coercion. Just the same, obedience to Christ is voluntary or it is not obedience at all, and (being an every-day thing) Christianity lives and grows best in surroundings of personal liberty.

A Moral Duty

Opposing dictatorship, resisting infringement by a few upon the liberties of many, is a reverent act of fidelity to the source of all freedom. No government is perfect; no economic system is perfect. For that matter, no church is perfect. All are subject, more or less, to leadership by imperfect people. Nevertheless some principles are right and worthy of vigorous defense.

Harry Emerson Fosdick said, "One of the great hours in history struck when mankind ran into the idea that all the people should unite in making laws, which then all the people should obey. Behind our pitifully fallible experiments with representative government stands the ideal, worth everything our fathers gave for it and all that we can give—the democratic state."

Godless Laws

One-man governments traditionally become jealous of their subjects' loyalty to God; covetous too, perhaps, of their free-will offerings, large or small. Rarely do totalitarian states begin at the church when they start cutting off people's liberties. They get around to it in the long-run, however. There are about enough exceptions on record to prove the rule.

Dictators usually start their trespasses on freedom by presuming to say who shall engage in trade. It is the natural way to commence. Never do they find a large class in commercial pursuits, so they can begin grabbing power without antagonizing a majority. The next big strategy is to dominate the news. By this method a dictator can make his people think what he pleases.

Step at a Time

With buying and selling pinched under government's heel, one emergency follows another, accidentally or by design; either way serves the purpose. Consumers, the class most hurt by government in business, never learn the truth if press and radio are under control. Selfish rulers snatch away comforts and dole out confusion and suspicion, the chains of serfdom.

Traditionally tyrants work this way; it has happened all along through history. After business is confiscated and the news agencies seized, the people are poisoned with malice, and malice destroys living souls. Americans who value their religious liberty have no choice but to defend representative government, free enterprise, free speech and free press. They can fight on the front line and win, or wait to fight in the last trench and lose.

Spills Fat

Too much heat will spill fat and food cooked in it. When fat reaches the smoking point it begins to break down chemically and gives off fumes with a sharp odor that irritate your nose and throat. Food fried in smoking fat may have an unhappy effect on the digestive tract. Fats that have reached the smoking point also will get rancid more quickly if you save them to use again. Be extra careful when frying with fats that have a low smoking point. Among the fats that smoke quickly are butter, oleomargarine, drippings, and olive oil.

Rationing News

The new sugar stamp valid September 1 will maintain the current rationing—five pounds for four months.

OPA, it was learned Wednesday, plans to announce this shortly.

The household ration has to stay tight because sugar supplies are so short. The total is about 25 per cent less than was available before the war.

And the supply is not expected to increase until some time next year, when imports climb.

The new stamp probably will be no. 38 in ration book four. OPA plans to skip over No. 37 because many housewives used it by mistake in applying for home-canning rations last year.

MEATS & FATS

Red Stamps: V2, W2, X2, Y2, Z2, expire September 30.
A1, B1, C1, D1, E1 expire October 31.
F1, G1, H1, J1, K1 Expire November 30.
L1, M1, N1, P1, Q1 Expire December 31.

SUGAR

Sugar Stamp No. 38 is now valid for five pounds, expires December 31.

SHOES

Airplane Stamps Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4, now good.

Make ration applications by mail—save time and effort.

RENT CONTROL

All persons renting, or offering for rent, any living quarters whatsoever must register each dwelling unit with rent control office in their rent area. Persons who feel that they are being over-charged for rents may submit complaints to OPA. Complaint forms are available at the local War Price and Rationing Board if your area does not have a rent control office.

BUILDERS

Good work, son! Today you're building a make-believe railroad with a toy train and wooden blocks.

Tomorrow you'll help build a new business, a great manufacturing plant, a modern farm... a more prosperous Southland... and a greater America!

That's the kind of future your dad is working for... your dad and all the other 50,000 men and women of the Southern Railway System.

That's why they're working harder than ever before... making every serviceable piece of equipment do more... finding new and better ways to railroad... speeding the movement of fighting men and supplies... helping so hasten the day of final homecoming.

And tomorrow when you put away your playthings, the Southern will be ready to "serve the South" with even greater efficiency and dependability... because of the experience and know-how that come from handling a record wartime transportation load.

Yes, already these "builders" of the Southland, young and old, are hard at work preparing for the days of peace and plenty that lie ahead.

And that's another reason why we are constantly saying, "Look Ahead—Look South!"
