W. W. Lasley Passes

W. Winslow Lasley, one of Burlington's pioneer citizens, died this morning at his home. He would have reached his 92nd birthday in another month. Mr. Lasley had been in declining health for several years, and critically ill for six weeks.

Mr. Lasley was unusually active in civic life before his retirement. He served as president of the First National Bank of Burlington, and as vice-president of the E. M. Holt Plaid Mill. He was a deacon in the First Presbyterian church for 35 years, and was an elder for the past 17 years.

Mr. Lasley came to Burlington from Orange county in 1879. Associated at first with his brother in a mercantile business, he took an active part in the development of Burlington. He was the first street commissioner and was a member of the Board of Aldermen when the first street lights, oil lamps, were installed.

Among the survivors are three sons, Edwin W., Ralph K., and J. E., all of Burlington; four grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home tomorrow afternoon by Rev. Chester Alexander, assisted by Rev. L. C. Larkin. Interment will be in Pine Hill cemetery.

BARLEY AND BUTTER
Minnesota leads the country in the production of barley and butter. It is second for oats and rye. It harvests 150 million bushels of corn and 18-619,000 bushels of wheat each fall. For a long while it was known as the "bread basket" of the Nation. All that means constant additions to the Nation's resources guaranteeing your Bonds. U. S. Treasury Department

MILES OF COAL
Nearly 55 million tons of coal lie under Oklahoma, the workable area governing 10,000 square miles. Mining began in 1872 and reached its peak of 4,948,288 tons in 1920. Long after the oil supply may dwindle, coal will still be a major asset in the state. Our National assets are the assets behind Victory Bonds. U. S. Treasury Department

CALIFORNIA PROSPERITY
The 49's stirred up prosperity in California but they would be amazed to read the figures on industrial and agricultural gains of recent years. Between 1940 and 1944, total civilian employment gained 37 percent; income and savings shot up 138 percent; farm crops, 175 percent; mining and oil, 37 percent and manufacturing 157 percent. The increased earnings of men and firms build the Nation's resources to guarantee your War Bonds. U. S. Treasury Department
