Waiting?

A farmer friend of mine, accompanied by small son, took his well-used truck and drove over the river to the county seat on a recent wet Saturday. He did the week's shopping, treated the boy to a "western" and started home; but no! The road was under rising water on both sides of the bridge. Returning to town he engaged a night's lodging and tried to telephone home.

Service on his party line had grown steadily worse since Pearl Harbor, especially on rainy days. Now the instrument at his ear crackled like cold breakfast food and the ringing signal suggested Central America. He feared the worst. Strangers menaced him, wanting something—the telephone maybe. At last the operator cut in with her impersonal "Waiting?"—and the farmer exploded.

Congressmen Likewise
Most people have had such experiences. They seem to overtake us easily when we're waiting for advice from home. Congressmen in Washington know the feeling well. I am told. They, most of all public servants, want to hear from home. They don't consider themselves rulers, merely units out of far-away communities, hand-picked to represent their neighbors who elected them.

Most of our legislators are competent and eloquent; handle their work well, but they want to be faithful representatives. Not pretending to know all the answers, they try earnestly to get word from the electorate. Pressure groups menace them, wanting something—their votes maybe. Their deliberations are belittled by frantic executives saying "Waiting? What's the delay?"

What's Your Pleasure?
What do you think about paying $25 a week for 26 weeks to Tom, Dick and Harry? Do you favor America's helping the Russians build bigger and better atomic bombs? How do you feel on the subject of compulsory military training? Do you believe Congress should guarantee government jobs for all unemployed? Your representative would really like to know your wishes in these matters.

Hon. Carter Manasco and a score more congressmen recently listened to testimony for more than 30 days on the question of guaranteed jobs. They invited every citizen with an idea on the subject to come and testify and especially urged many to appear. They were most liberal with time for preparation and time to testify. The House Committee on Executive Expenditures deserved much credit and took plenty of panning for that cautious job.

Genuine Cooperation
It was just a year ago now that sixty citizens of Batesville, Ark., met voluntarily to study a piece of proposed legislation about to be considered by the House committee of which their Washington representative was a member. They deliberated thoughtfully, reached a conclusion and mailed Hon. Wilbur D. Mills a brief statement of their wishes and a list of their names.

I wish the back-home friends of every congressman in Washington would hold such a meeting soon on one or more vital national issues. It would twist the lever from the hand of pressure groups. It would clear the atmosphere along the Potomac. It would strengthen the morale of Congress, which is the individual citizen's only citadel from oppression.

ORIGIN OF CANINE TERMS EXPLAINED

Dog Authority, on Radio, Tells Meaning of Popular Expressions

Some unusually interesting facts about the origin and meaning of dog words and dog expressions were related by Harry Miller, executive secretary of the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City, while a guest on the "What's the Good Word?" program over the Mutual network recently.

Originally he said, the word "dog"—from the old English "dogge," the French "dogue" and the Latin "dogo"—was used to designate a certain type of fighting or hunting dog, but later came into general usage for all types of dogs. The word "dog" is believed to be a corruption of the sound "daw, daw, daw," which is the sound of the bark of a dog when heard in the distance. The expression "dog days" comes to us from ancient times and has its origin in the fact that the sun is nearer Sirius, commonly called the Dog Star, during the hottest part of the summer. Today "dog days" are considered to continue for 40 days—20 days before and 20 days after Sirius appears; or from July 3 to August 11.

According to Mr. Miller, "mongrel" came from the word "mingre"—descriptive of a mixed or unknown pedigree; "Fido" is Latin for faithful—certainly a term well deserved by the dog, the most faithful of man's companions through the ages; and "Terrier" derives from the Latin word "terra" and the French word "terre," both meaning earth. Terriers were dogs originally employed for digging after game in the earth, as in hunting foxes and badgers.

Mr. Miller also gave quick explanations on how certain breeds of dogs got their names:

"Schnauzer is derived from the German term for whiskers, for which this breed is famous.

"Chow Chow. Chow in Chinese means something that is edible, and in China the Chow Chow is favored as an all-around dog, including its use for food in an emergency.

"Whippet. The Whippet was always a running dog. It was noted that this dog had the habit of snapping at the heels of other dogs when running after game, and that the noise made by this snapping resembled the crack of a whip."
