Blueprint for Labor-Management Love and Kisses

This is the Elmer Twitchell plan for Better Understandings Between Labor and Management:

- 1—Fundamentally all the trouble is due to the fact neither side completely understands the other. There can be no peace until some system is adopted, so that each side can experience all the headaches of the other.
- 2—Workers do not get enough golf. Employers do not get enough life without golf. Let the working-man have the golf clubs six months a year and provide him with a set of clubs. After a few weeks of worrying over backswings, the right grip, etc., all other problems will seem relatively unimportant. And the boss, six months away from golf and not giving a darn about the pivot or knee action would find himself a different person. Positively.
- 3—Let the workers split with the bosses the routine of going through the mail, answering the unnecessary letters, correcting Miss Abernathy's spelling, trying to find the memoranda which was put where it couldn't be mislaid, wading through those long lunches at the Business Men's club, taking all those indigestion tablets from 2:30 to 4:30 and then getting home to find the wife's bridge party is still on. (And make the employers eat some of those sandwiches put into a worker's lunch box.)
- 4—Alternate months let the workers prepare banquet speeches, sit through dull operas, get into stiff shirts and tuxedos for dinner, use three types of fork and worry about stomach ulcers. And make the boss go to those smokers, stop for a beer at Hennessy's, listen to the soap operas, have a quickie of corned beef and cabbage and endure all those double features.
- 5—For part of every month make the workers serve on new relief campaigns, worry over dinner speeches, explain to stockholders, wade through the questionnaires, fill out the required federal forms and always keep their pants pressed; while the bosses shake their own drinks, help mind the baby, listen to the radio in their stocking feet and tend the furnace.
- 6—Let the workingman have three homes, two cars, an outdoor swimming pool, a yacht and those week-end house parties. That should help make him realize what the boss has to stand up under. And make the employer live in the little bungalow, raise tropical fish, get along with the undersized medicine cabinet, use the family tub, fix his own plumbing, eat in his shirt sleeves and help eight kids with the homework. Brother, there will be closer understandings after that.

(Copies of the above plan may be had by sending in a barrel of potatoes, a priority on a new Ford and eight lumps of sugar.)

Sportlight
By GRANTLAND RICE

THE Pacific coast baseball league was recently turned down in a major league bid. It is quite possible that the West coast stretch isn't entirely major territory as far as all its cities or teams are concerned. This also applies to both the American and National league, which in many places carry a strong minor league touch, as everyone connected with baseball knows.

But the main point is that in a general sporting way the Pacific coast in many spots has more of a big league touch than the East, Midwest or the South. And the argument isn't even close. The only way to prove this point is through facts and figures, not by words that are always unimportant.

Grantland Rice For a few examples — after a bad football year where both Southern California and UCLA were beaten two or three times, they outdrew Army and Navy. The western record count was 103,000 and this isn't the first time 100,000 has been beaten on the West coast. Under the same conditions Southern California and UCLA in the East, Midwest or South would have drawn from 30,000 to 40,000 at the limit.

Now we come to racing, which interests more millions than most people know—more than almost any other sport or business or whatever you care to call it.

GRANDMA SPEAKIN'...

Good many people spend too much time teachin' children how to behave toward their parents. Seems to me lots of parents ought to be taught how to behave toward their children.

Bless my soul, there ain't nuthin' easier than makin' sure y're gittin' a top-quality margarine. Just look for the words "Table-Grade," Nu-Maid Margarine's Table-Grade. Sez so just as plain as the nose on yer face right on the package.

When you see somebody let success go to their heads, you kin be mighty sure there was a vacuum there to start with.

When I want my cakes or pies to be extra-special, I alius use a Table-Grade Margarine... that's got a nice mild, sweet flavor. Nu-Maid Margarine's Table-Grade.

Thoughts on a Housing Crisis
The Indian was not so dumb— He didn't toil or fiddle; He never had to hunt a home Or solve a housing riddle.

The Red Man is my envy now— He lived in tents galore, sir, And they were as he left them when The guy came home from war, sir!

Elmer Twitchell is pretty angry at the wife. When he refused her an extra two dollars the other day, saying he couldn't afford it, she threatened to name a fact-finding board.

Fiorello LaGuardia is going to the Brazilian inauguration of a new President as an official ambassador from America. Up to now the new head of Brazil has never had anybody read the American funnies to him.

Joe E. Brown is credited with killing two Japs in a Luzon combat. It was no feat of marksmanship. The Japs had approached to within 10 yards of Brown's mouth thinking they were entering an unprotected ravine.

We can't figure out why, in looking for a place to name as the permanent seat of UNO the town of Amityville, N. Y., was overlooked. And Peace Dale, R. I.

And, since the peaceful influence is a main consideration in UNO how about Pigeon Cove, Mass.?

CAN YOU REMEMBER:
Acoy back when the attitude "The public be damned" was expressed within limitations.

The southland is having a tough winter. Which reminds us of the winter down in Florida when a Miami paper carried the headline, after a bad storm, "Yankee Blizzard Hits South."

And, thinking back on our Miami Beach winters, we wonder if that sign is still there: "Casa Shapiro."

Richest Purses in West

Those who follow racing know the purses offered in New York, Chicago, Maryland, Florida, New Orleans and Kentucky, all among the leading racing states, rarely top $50,000.

Here are some of the purses to be offered at Santa Anita, Calif.:

- One hundred thousand dollar Santa Anita handicap—March 9. Richest all-age race.
- One hundred thousand dollar Santa Anita Derby—February 23. Tops for the three-year-olds.
- Fifty thousand dollars for the Santa Catalina, San Pasqual, Santa Margarita, San Antonio and San Juan Capistrano. Five in all eight $25,000 stakes.
- A stake total of $650,000 for the all-time average of $43,333 per stake.
- No purse is under $3,000. Can the East, South or Midwest approach these figures? You know what the answer is.

New Baseball Territory

All this is further proof that the two lopsided big leagues, which need unlimited night baseball for many teams to keep going, can no longer overlook a new country in the way of population and general sporting interest. Los Angeles and San Francisco are far ahead of most of the big league cities in the matter of population and enthusiasm for sports.

It is generally realized by those who know their sport that St. Louis, Boston and Philadelphia are one major league club towns. Cincinnati, Washington and a few others don't belong in the same class with Los Angeles and San Francisco on the sporting side. The fact is that California and Florida are our two best climate states, unless you happen to like colder weather.

It is all a question of facts, figures and fair play. California merely happens to be the best football state, the best racing state, the best track-and-field state in the country. Neither New York nor Chicago could even approach the Olympic games of 1932 which Los Angeles held. Both cities know this.

One trouble is that too many people shy away from facts and truth. Especially those interested only on the side of the dollar.

For one example, New York has neither the football nor racing facilities to be ranked in the same class with Los Angeles, unless you enjoy looking at football games back of a thick pillar or being trampled underfoot at a race track. In the course of too many years, your correspondent has worked in the border states, the deep South, the East, the Midwest, the Far West and the Southwest. Pride of section is a good thing, but the United States is much more important.

There was a time when the Atlantic and Pacific coasts were many days apart. Now they are only a few hours apart. This also goes for the South and the North. The Gulf and the Great Lakes are now only a hop, step and jump away.

But up to date the Far West has taken all the worst of it from big league baseball and big league pro football. The South's major problem has been spectator capacity where only the New Orleans stadium can handle 70,000 people. And no Southern city has a population around the million mark. This, in time, will be taken care of. Certainly the South's contribution to every form of sport has been enormous, whether this be baseball, football, golf or other sports. The South, plus California, has the jump in those games, with practically 12 months of play.
