Among the German businesses taken over were makers of tires and rubber, medical and electrical equipment, electrical appliances, radio sets and telephones, and light bulbs. Krupp's extensive licensing of patents and processes at a 3 per cent royalty also were subject to Allied administration.

FARM EXPERIMENT: Dropped by Ford

In line with its announced policy of abandoning activities not directly connected with the manufacture of automobiles, the Ford Motor com-pany will dispose of 10,000 acres of farmland in Michigan originally ac-quired for experimenting in the adaptation of agricultural products to industrial use.

The company also decided to give up the model school project organ-ized for the communities surround-ing the huge land holdings. One-room schools were remodeled, kin-dergartens opened for three- and four-year-olds, and studies shaped to permit practical application of text. permit practical application of textbook teachings.

Under the new policy pushed by Henry Ford II, the company will not resume manufacture of some of its own tires and a tugboat used for Ford piers on the Detroit river has been sold. Operated by a founda-tion separate from the company, the Ford museum and Greenfield vil-lage will not be affected.

as the district of Illinois. The name "Illinois" was derived from Illini, a confederation of Indian tribes. In 1720, Fort Chartres and three new villages were established by the French, and the entire district was put under a military commandant. By the treaty of Paris in 1763, Illinois was ceded to the English, but they couldn't take possession until they made a treaty with Chief Ponthey made a treaty with Chies the time two years later. Joseph Smith, the founder of the Mormon church, was killed at Nauvoo in 1844. The Illinois and Michigan canal was built in 1848, and the Illinois Central railroad was constructed from 1850 to 1856. In 1848, the state barred slavery, and there followed the historic debates of Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas. Illinois sent 214,133 sol-diers into the field during the Civil war. In 1871 occurred the great Chicago fire, and the railroad and Hay-market riots took place soon after. Chicago was host to the World's Columbian exposition in 1893, and to the Century of Progress exposi-tion in 1933-34. And there was, of course, the gang warfare of prohibition days!
