Kiwanis Meeting

The local Kiwanis club, at their regular meeting Monday night in the Scout hut, heard Dr. Charles R. McClure, professor of English, Elon College, speak on "Hamlet's Prayer". He spoke briefly on the Shaksperian work defining Hamlet's motives in revenging the death of his father, the King of Denmark, in the three-act historical drama, "Hamlet."

C. D. Brittain, who presided over the meeting in the absence of President Talton M. Johnson, told the members of the club of a request from M. C. Ivey, chairman of the Alamance County Food Relief Committee, asking that the local club appoint a chairman to work with the county committee in conserving food to increase shipment to foreign countries. Action on the appointment of a committee chairman was deferred until the next meeting.
