In a simple but impressive ceremony at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 12, Miss Betty Boswell became the bride of Rooney Parker Martin, Jr., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Boswell on Washington street.

The bridal party formed before an improvised altar of pink and white peonies and greenery in the living room. Rev. Bernard V. Munger pastor of both bride and groom, heard the vows. Maid of honor was Miss Virginia Boswell, sister of the bride and her only attendant. William Dodson was best man for his brother-in-law.

Mrs. Martin is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boswell. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Martin, recently received his discharge from the navy, and is now employed at Sidney Knitting Mills. The couple are at home with the groom's parents at 700 Washington street.

Baked Potatoes

Potatoes fresh from the oven contain a full quota of vitamin C which is important to the health of teeth and gums. Recently research workers found that baked potatoes lose one-third of their vitamin C content if allowed to stand a half hour, and one-half of their vitamin C content if allowed to stand an hour.

Vat Dyes

Vat dyes are among the oldest known textile colors. A garment dyed with natural indigo, a vat color, has been found in a tomb in Thebes, where it had lain since about 3,000 B. C.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Dr. Edward Norris Caldwell

Whereas our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, working in a wonderful and mysterious way His purposes to fulfill, has called Dr. Edward Norris Caldwell from a life of fruitful service in His kingdom here on earth to his glorious home eternal in the heavens, and

Whereas, the officers and members of the Graham Presbyterian church are sorely grieved at the untimely death of a beloved and consecrated pastor whose spiritual leadership was so suddenly brought to an end on March 12, 1946, after a brief illness during which his triumphant Christian faith sustained and strengthened him in spite of intense bodily pain and discomfort, and

Whereas, the officers and members of this church extol his faithful stewardship of the manifold mysteries of God as he preached the glorious gospels of Christ, and exemplified that gospel in his daily life,

Now therefore, be it resolved by the officers and congregation of the Graham Presbyterian church:

1. That this congregation is profoundly grateful to Almighty God for the faithful and fruitful ministry of a consecrated pastor and beloved friend, whose ennobling spirituality will continue to influence life in the congregation through the years to come.

2. That the congregation express its sincere sorrow and heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family for the loss of a devoted Christian son, husband, and father, but, at the same time it express the conviction that the infinite wisdom of God is calling him to his eternal home in Heaven will one day become clearly evident, although the many earnest prayers to Almighty God that He restore his faithful servant to health that he be spared to continue his service in the cause of Christ seemed to be unanswered, and

3. That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the sessional and congregational records of the church, and that copies be sent to members of his family, to local newspaper, and to official church papers.

Done by order of the session and congregation of the Graham Presbyterian church this the nineteenth day of May, 1946.

H. W. SCOTT W. C. WRIKE, M. E. YOUNT, Committee.
