Mr. and Mrs. William Ernest Thompson announce the engagement of their only daughter, Sarah Bell, and Dorus Clifton Williams, Jr., of Leaksville, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dorus Clifton Williams of Lincolnton. The wedding is planned for November 2.

Miss Thompson is a graduate of Greensboro College. For two years she was the director of the Lutheran Kindergarten in Burlington and the past eighteen months has been field director of the Alamance county Girl Scouts.

Mr. Williams is a graduate of Oak Ridge military academy and attended State college. At the time of his discharge he was a captain in the army. He now holds a position with Marshall Fields in Leaksville.

Regular Army Oddities

The Regular Army Oddities have just been released by Cpl. Robert J. Purcott of Burlington.

The distinction of being the youngest family man in the new Regular Army goes to Pvt. Kenneth D. Beckstead, who is only seventeen and had to obtain the consent of his parents to join up, is the father of twin girls.

Sgt. M. F. Bair didn't let the housing shortage bother him. When he arrived in Fremont, Ohio, the other day to start recruiting there, he was unable to find a room. He talked with a local young man, enlisted him in the army and then moved into the room vacated by the enlistee.

Jimmy Fiddler reports that the army is even attracting young men away from Hollywood. He reports that Jeffrey Lynn has recently re-enlisted with the regular army.

Civilian jobs vs the new Regular Army. T-4 Norman Morgan of Harrington, Del., was recently discharged. He was offered a $100 a month job but refused it and re-enlisted because his army pay would be more than twice what he would receive as a civilian. With his wife and six children he will draw approximate $282 in base pay and family allowances.

The tuberculosis death rate among unskilled workers is seven times as great as that among professional men. An educational campaign on the control of tuberculosis is supported by your local Tuberculosis Association.

Graham Friends' Revival Begins

Special evangelistic services with preaching by Rev. Charles G. Johnson are to begin with Graham Friends on Sunday, September 29th, running through Second Sunday, October 13th.

Rev. Johnson has about forty-five years of experience behind him as a Quaker preacher and evangelist. For a number of years he conducted the "Quaker Hour" weekly over Radio Station WBIG in Greensboro, assisted by his wife, Cora Lee Norman Johnson, who is also a recorded Quaker preacher. The Quaker Hour has just recently been discontinued. At present, assisted by his wife, he is pastoring the Friends meetings at Holly Springs, Randleman, Plainfield and South Plainfield. These meetings are in Western and Southern quarterly meetings of North Carolina Yearly Meeting of Friends.

The music end of the services is to be handled by Walter Thomas of the Snow Camp and Cane Creek Quaker communities. Mr. Thomas is choir director of the Cane Creek Friends' Meeting, having been for some time past, and is very efficient at the job.

A cordial invitation is extended to all the community to join with Graham Friends in this time of spiritual refreshing. Robert O. Crow is at present Pastor of this meeting, which was pastored for so long by Rev. John M. Permar.

Services each evening at 7:15 and at 11:00 on Sunday mornings.

Rotary Club Meeting

Mrs. Charles C. Hopkins, May Memorial librarian, was guest speaker of the Graham Rotary club which met last Thursday night at Green Gables Inn.

Mrs. Hopkins spoke on the services of the public library supported by city, county and private donations. An example of the services rendered to the public is the bookmobile, which at present has 25,000 volumes and stops at different stations over the county, Mrs. Hopkins reported.

Rotarian Tarvia Jones presented to the president and past president of the club pins for their services.

Evidence of tuberculosis of the bone has been found on the mummified bodies of early Egyptians.

Uncle Sam Says

All of us are familiar with quizzes about this and that. Let's take this question: What is the strongest, economic family asset in America? Millions of you could win the jackpot prize for the correct answer. U. S. Savings Bonds, of course. Ownership of U. S. Savings Bonds is now part and parcel of our American way of life because Americans know that Savings Bonds help to build a better, firmer future. Americans know that they yield a good profit at no risk at all to the principals.

STORIES OF HOW NAMES HELPED MAKE AMERICA GREAT

HERE'S WHY EVERYONE IN THE U.S. CAN BUY RUGS—ONCE A LUXURY ONLY FOR THE RICH.

IN EARLY COLONIAL TIMES CARPETS WERE A LUXURY. IN THE FINEST HOMES, FLOORS WERE POLISHED OR COVERED WITH FINE SAND.

LATER FAMILIES MADE WHAT CARPETS THEY COULD AT HOME. GEORGE WASHINGTON'S ACCOUNT BOOK TELLS OF 37½ YARDS FOR MT. VERNON.

THE MASTER LIKES IT BRUSHED IN CIRCLES. YES, MADAM.

I DO HOPE THE SERVANTS TO NEW CARPET WILL BE READY, GEORGE.

WHILE UP IN NEW ENGLAND WOMEN HOOKED OR BRAICED RUGS OUT OF ANY SCRAPS THEY COULD FIND.

A RUG KEEPS THE FLOOR WARM. AND LOOKS SO PRETTY.

AFTER THE REVOLUTION THE FIRST FACTORY WAS STARTED IN PHILADELPHIA WITH THE COAT OF ARMS OF THE REPUBLIC A FAVORITE DESIGN.

SOON FACTORIES WERE STARTED IN OTHER PARTS OF THE COUNTRY AND MANY HOMES BOASTED AT LEAST ONE CARPETED ROOM.

WE'RE MAKING HUNDREDS OF YARDS. WHERE WILL YOU FIND BUYERS ENOUGH?

SEE—THERE'S A CARPET ON THE FLOOR. DO YOU REALLY WALK ON IT?

BUT SELECTION WAS DIFFICULT, THE ONLY IDENTIFICATION BEING THE REGION OR CITY FROM WHICH THE CARPET CAME.

THIS IS FINE CONNECTICUT CARPETING. BUT HOW CAN I TELL IF IT WILL WEAR?

INVENTION OF THE POWER-LOOM IN 1849 INCREASED PRODUCTION AND IMPROVED QUALITY. MANUFACTURERS PROUD OF THEIR CARPETS BEGAN LABELING THEM WITH NAMES OR SYMBOLS.

SUCH A BEAUTIFUL CARPET, MARY! IT'S A GOOD ONE TOO...SEE THE NAME ON THE BACK.

AS SALES OF TRADE-MARKED CARPETS MOUNTED PRICES FELL. TODAY EVEN SMALL HOMES ARE COZY WITH CARPETS AND RUGS IN EVERY ROOM.
