This Home-Mixed Cough Relief

No Cooking. So Easy. Saves Dollars.

To get the most surprising relief from coughs due to coids, you can easily prepare a medicine, right in your own kitchen. It's very easy—a child could do it—needs no cooking. and tastes so good that children take it willingly. But you'll say it's hard to beat for quick results.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any drugrist, and pour it into a pint bottle. Fill up with your syrup. This gives you a full plut of really splendid cough syrup—about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and lasts a long time.

And it gives quick relief. It acts in three ways—loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and beins clear the air passages.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for quick action in coughs and bronchial irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

A STRIKING picture came along a few weeks ago. This was a picture of Alonzo Stagg returning to the Midway and Stagg field at the U. of Chicago for a look around, before the Northwestern game. The amazing part of this snap-shot of Lonnie with the snow-white hair was the fact that he first came to Chi-cago as a coach just 56 years ago, back in 1890. At the age of 84, at hand.

Pop Warner

This picture of Stagg back home again reminded us of great coaches of the past, Pop Warner and Hurry-up Yost, long before the days of Knute Bockne and Percy Haughton.

In talking over old times with a veteran group of football mandarine, it was generally agreed that rins, it was generally agreed that Pop Warner, now forgotten, was the master of them all.

Pop is now walking with a cane and a crippled knee around his gar-den at Palo Alto, Calif. Pop isn't far from 80. But more than 40 years ago, when the game was young and there were no precedents to work with, it was Pop who brought in the single and the double wing and other innovations that still remain today. It was Pop who discovered Jim Thorpe at Carlisle, when Jim was a stender young Indian of some 16 years, weighing around 150

It was Pop who built the Carlisle Indians into a drawing card that today would rank above even Army and Notre Dame on a general aver-

Thorpe, Guyon, Calac, Metoxen Hauser, Bemus Pierce, Little Wolf and Little Bear, Mt. Pleasant, Hudson — remember any of these, old-timers? They were among football's greats.

Greatest in Football

"Pop Warner should be the greatest name in football," a veteran coach said. "Yes, Rockne was great. Knute had the most amazing personality football has ever known. Knute was the most popular coach of all time. And a great one. But Pop Warner gave the game more than any of the others when he had Carlisle, Pittsburgh and Stanford. Pop wasn't a handshaker. He was direct, abrupt and at times brusque. direct, abrupt and at times brusque. He said what he thought. He was no diplomat. But he was the only man that Jim Thorpe both feared and respected when Jim was king."

There happened to be at least 10 old-timers in this midnight group. All agreed that Pop was the top— the game's greatest genius. I'll vote with Red Blaik of Army along these lines.

Another great coach, in some ways the greatest of modern times, is Tom Hamilton of Navy. Tom Hamilton did more for college football than all other coaches put together-and I mean all of them in one compact mass. Except for Hamilton's Navy V and Navy preflight teams, there would have been no college football from 1942 through 1945.

College football should erect a statue or a monument to Hamilton, too high for Luckman, Baugh or Dobbs to cover with a pass—or a

He has been the big man of foot-ball during the last four years for the job he did of saving college foot-ball, whatever happens to him in pen to know the inside story of the fight made against him to abolish college football in 1942, and the valiant stand he took against heavy odds, the odds that Hamilton loves.

Kickers and Passers

The growth of "air travel" in football-particularly professional foot-ball-is one of the features of this air-minded age. I refer to passing and kicking.

Passers such as Luckman, Baugh, Dobbs, Ace Parker, Filchock, Christman, etc., have increased in importance from year to year. there soon will be a new flock head-ing in from the colleges-Gilmer, Layne, Wedemeyer, etc., who will be in big demand when their campus time is over.

A group of pro coaches recently was arguing about the fastest backs.
"I see," one said, "where Halas names McAfee. I'd say Gallerneau on his own club was even faster. He can fly."

"What about Franck of the Giants?" another asked. "He can also move."

Greasy Neale still refuses to be-lieve any of these can outrun Steve Van Buren with a football under either arm.

This led to another argument—who is the best combination kicker who is the best combination sicker and passer — Baugh of the Redskins or Dobbs of the Brooklyn Dodgers? Both are great passers and both are among the best kickers. Both can call on a play that so few use—the quick kick. It is the greatest yard gainer of all. Scotler H Welson
