OUR COVERNMENTS. OFFICERS OF THE FEDERAL GOVERN

MENT.

THE EXMITTIVE. Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio, President of the United States. William A. Wheeler, of New York, Vice-President of the United States.

THE CABINET. William M. Evarts, of New York, Secretary John Sherman, of Ohio, Sec'y, of Treasury. George W. M. McCrary, Secretary of War.

Richard W. Thompson, of Indiana, Secreta-Carl Schurz, of Missouri, Secretary of the Charles Devens, of Massachusetts, Attorney-David M. Key, of Tennessee, Postmaster-

General.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES. Morrison R. Waite, of Ohio, Chief Justice. Nathan Clifford, of Maine, Noah H. Swayne, of Ohio, Samuel J. Miller, of Iowa, David Davis, of Illinois, Stephen J. Field, of California, William M. Strong, of Pennsylvania, Joseph P. Bradley, of New Jersey. Ward Hunt, of New York, Associate Justices

THE JUDICIARY.

OUR STATE GOVERNMENT.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. Thomas J. Jarvis, of Pitt, Governor. Dawes L. Robinson, of Macon, Lieutenant Gevernor W. L. Saunders, of New Hanover, Secretary

John M. Worth, of Randolph, Treasurer. Donald W. Bain, of Wake, Chief Clerk. T. C. Worth, of Randolph, Teller. Dr. Samuel L. Love, of Haywood, Auditor. Thos. S. Kenan, of Wilson, Attorney-Gen

John C. Scarborough, of Johnston, Superntendent of Public Instruction. Johnstone Jones, of Burke, Adjutant General. J. McLeod Turner, Keeper of the Capitol. Sherwood Haywood, of Wake, State Libra-

JUDICIARY.

SUPREME COURT. W. N. H. Smith, of Hertford County, Chief

John H. Dillard, Thos. S. Ashe, Associates. W. H. Bagley, of Wake, Clerk of Supreme D. A. Wicker, of Wake, Marshal.

Business Directory.

Attorneys at Law.

IZ EOGH & BARRINGER, ATTORNIES AT LAW, Office in Corner Building, over NORTH STATE office. Watches and Jewelry.

W. B. FARRAR.
WAIGHMAKER, JEWELER, ENGRAVER and Optician, under Benbow House, keeps constantly TOHN CHAMBERLAIN, WATCHES, CLOCKS AND JEWELRY, in Book Store, under Benbow House, Dry Coods, etc.

DRY GOODS, BOOTS & SHOES, ETC. Vest Market St., between Greene and Ashe. ODELL, RAGAN & CO., DRY GOODS, HARDWARE, BOOTS & SHOES. R. MURRAY, W. R. MURRAY, DRY GOODS, CARPETS, BOOTS, SHOES, &c.

Books and Stationery.

CHAS. D. YATES. BOOKSELLER AND STATIONER. and dealer in Music and Fancy Articles, under the Miscellaneous. SERGEANT MANUFACTURING CO., Portable Saw Mills, Castings of all kinds. Shop beween Washington street and N. C. R. R.

TO G. CARTLAND & BRO.. TAILORS AND CLOTHIERS, SOUTH ELM STREET, under Benbow Hall, STOVES, HOLLOWARE TINWARE, &c., South Elm street, next door to Odell, Ragan & Co.

Physicians.

DR. R. W. GLENN, PRACTICING PHYSICIAN & SURGEON,

Hotels.

DLANTERS' HOUSE.

DIEDMONT HOUSE.

N. H. D. WILSON, INSURANCE AGENT

CREENSBORO, N. C.

REPRESENTS FIRST-CLASS COMPANIES

With an aggregate Capital of over 30,000,000 DOLLARS and can carry a Full Line at Fair Rates.

Office over Wilson & Shober's Bank, under the effitimes be glad to wait on all who desire either Life or MONEY! We pay cash for old Bounty Land Warrants they are scattered all over the South; send them F. street, Washington, D. C.

PEOPLE'S SAVING BANK, Washington, D. C., Nov. 20, 1876. Knowing well Messrs Gilmore & Co. I take pleasure in recommending thom as reliable and trustworthy agents and attorneys. W. L. VAN DERLIP, Cashier.

TO $6000 A YEAR, or $5 to $20 a day in your own locality. No risk, Women do as well as men. Many make more can fail to make money fast. Any one can do the work. You can make from 60 cts. to $2 an hour by devoting your evenings and spare time to the business. It costs nothing to try the business. Nothing like it for money-making ever offered before ed before. Business pleasaut and strictly honorable, Reader, if you want to know all about the best paying business before the public, send us your address and we will send you tull particulars and private terms free; samples worth $5 also free; you can then make up your mind for yourself. Address GEORGE STIN-SON & CO., Portland, Maine.

THE FEDERAL UNION-IT MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED .- [ANDREW JACKSON.]

VOL. 9.-NO. 17.

GREENSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1880.

[From Chambers' Journal.] The Siren Isle.

Evening's purple glory slept Upon peak and cliff and stream. And the voiceless wavelet crept To the shore with lingering gleam.

High above the cedar grove, Hesper led the starry world, Shedding the sweet light of love On a land in slumber furled.

Twilight's weird and mystic veil Lav on wave and rock and lea, When we dropt with viewless sail Into the enchanted sea.

Knew we then the Siren shore With its fatal melodies; But the wind no whisper bore O'er the dark seductive seas.

Gazed we through the gathering shades Fear-bound, as if on the grave; But the Siren sister-maids Saw we not beyond the wave.

It was well no whisper broke On the silence over all, That no magic music woke, Weary spirits to enthral.

So we, shrouded in half-light,

Rested silent on the oar,

Till the ebon gulfs of night One bright belt of beauty bore. "Brother mariners," I cried, "Let us fly the treacherous track, Ere the spell be on the tide.

And the death-song lare us back." [From Chambers' Journal] Her Father's Daughter.

[CONCLUDED.]

IN FOUR CHAPTERS-CHAPTER III. Alice looked at her watch. "It is now one-thirty," she said. "It will take the man an hour to get to Brookfield, and another hour to return, by which time it will be three-thirty. Allowing another half-hour for a telegram | ing, Mrs. Gerald, as she called herself, from papa to reach Mr. Simmonds, his walked into the office of Mr. Boucher. broker, that will bring the time to four o'clock-too late in the day for business day afternoon?" were her first anxious on the Stock Exchange. You may send words. the message; Boucher will have had a

"Which means," said Gerald, "that experience." you are taking advantage of your knowledge of the information in your uncle's telegram, to forestall your father's action in the matter, and make the information worthless so far as he is

"That is precisely what I am doing," said Alice with emphasis. "I was not my father's secretary for so long a time without learning something. He has refused to forgive me or to condone my marriage unless I can go to him with six thousand pounds. He does not ask me whether I am happy. He has no curiosity as to the kind of man I have made my husband. He simply says: Bring me six thousand pounds, and all shall be forgiven.' To meet his mercenary views, A must become mercenary myself. All is fair in love, war, and on the Stock Exchange. The moment the information conveyed in this message reaches my father, he will take advan- me?" tage of it by telegraphing to his broker to buy up every Deep Lip share in the one. market. I happen to see the message first, and I take the first advantage of it; that is all." "I am afraid that you are making me a confederate in a very nefarious scheme," said Gerald, looking as if he hardly knew whether to laugh or be se-

"In this case the end must justify the means. It is just the sort of ruse that papa himself would delight in-just the them.

sort of advantage that he would be the first to take." "Then you are buying for what is called a 'rise?' " said Gerald. "Precisely so. If the information hit. Of course, my object will be to have reached what, in Boucher's opinion, seems something like their maxi-

"But suppose the information conup at all-what then?"

not sink much lower than they are at ternoon.' present, and, as a consequence, my loss will be proportionately trifling .-But I won't even think that loss is pos-who is doing all this?" whole affair is as simple as A B C."

"Now you know the reason why I idly." clent supervision of W. H. HILL, who will at all interceded with Sir Charles to have wood.

"Then the scheme that you are carryyour brain from the first?" "Certainly. It came to me like a ing-room outside. by registered letter to GILMORE & CO., 629 flash of inspiration on the very day that we received papa's letter."

time to read you thoroughly."

the telegram with him, which he sent York, was actually at the trouble to off at once by one of his porters to send me a message by cable telling me Brookfield. After the departure of the to buy up all the Deep Lips I could lay next train he came in for an early cup hands on. Of course, I acted on the "What a pity she wasn't born a boy!" Harris, who lives about 4 miles from that there was no patriotism or State "With regard to this telegram," said delay; but, would you believe it, when Gerald, as he sat down at the table, "it Simmonds went on Change next morn- for a very long time. May I ask the is written in a cipher different from any ing there was not a single Deep Lip to name of the particular stock which you was burned severely. Her son, Levi, moved to lay the whole matter on the bacco at an average of $45.25 per hunthat I have seen before; it is nothing be had! Some vagabond had been favored with your confidence?"

but a mass of figures."

kind that defies the scrutiny of an out- sold in my life before." sider, and yet can be read by a child "Why now, Crewdson, that only goes who possesses the key. The key to to prove that there are other specula- he gasped out at length. this kind of cryptogram is a book-a tors in the world as elever as you." to page seventy, count till I come to letter. the eleventh word from the top, which ing to page five hundred and ninety ment.

a dead letter to me forever."

At five minutes past ten next morn "Did you receive my telegram yester- his chair.

fair start If he does his duty, there Then as he handed her a chair; "I hope one that would recommend itself to my

"I suppose not," said Alice quietly. "But I had my reasons."

"Oh, of course," rejoined Boucher .-'Your father is known as one of our boldest and most successful speculators; and you, as his daughter, would rious mistake. But still-" "But still, had you been going to lay have done as I have done.

with; and hardly then.' "There's one comfort—they cannot sink much lower than they are now." "But you, I presume, are buying for surely, you cannot have forgotten."

"Precisely so."

"To what extent have you bought for Boucher named the figure—a large

"I should not have thought there was so much in the market.' "People look on them as a bad lot and are only too glad to find a cus-

"So much the better for those who if there are any more to be had, buy pounds."

At three-forty-five Mrs. Rivers was again at Mr. Boucher's office.

"You did quite right, Mr. Boucher. "Why, even in that case, they can- graph the closing price to me each af- Rivers."

"Your wife? Why not, dear? The ble advices from San Francisco state ise, as my god-daughter says you made." to secure the representation to which Syndicate and if these matters were Mr. Samuel Williams, near Hickory

A few days later, as Gerald was seatyou appointed as station-master at Leas- ed behind the open pigeon-hole of his stammered Mr. Crewdson. "I thought methods to misrepresent them in the fore they are made. I attack no man Mr. C. Peeler, a native of Rowan gers who might be going by the next worth a penny?" ing out to-day has been hatching in train, his attention was attracted by the loud tones of two people in the wait- was worth just twenty pounds in hard overwhelming y in favor of the nomi- remarks opposing the Resolution.

"I tell you, Stopford, I was never more annoyed in my life," said one, and "You are a strange girl, and I some- Gerald knew at once who was the times think that it will take me my life- speaker. "My brother, who, as he and speculating on 'Change." thought, had got the information before Then Gerald left the room, taking it was known to any one else in New sult?" message without an hour's unnecessary upon between my father and my uncle, 'they're going up like wild-fire. Thous- shares."

book previously agreed upon by the "They were bought through Bouchparties communicating with each other. er, too. But he's as close as wax. No at him. The book agreed upon in this case, as getting a word out of him. Some con-as may be. Let us take the first sen- Mr. Boucher every afternoon. It was speculation in Deep Lip shares. It is tence of the telegram, for instance, an anxious time for her. For three needless to add that she was forgiven. which, when interpreted, runs as fol- weeks the shares went up day by day. lows: 'Buy up all the Deep Lips you At the end of that time they remained can lay hands on.' As originally tele- stationary for two days. The following graphed, it ran thus: 'Seven ought morning they dropped one eighth .-

"Seven thousand five hundred and the word up. Proceeding by the same ready to go to papa."

earth do you mean?"

spare capital than I knew what to do to the dowry you at one time intended that the Republican State Governments to give me-you would forgive and for- of South Carolina and Louisiana electget everything, and take your little Al- ed in 1876, being unable to sustain ice back again to your heart? Surely, themselves without the aid of United

"And did I really say all that?"

own words if you like." not quite forgotten that letter. So fact that John Sherman, who long pro- ter was discussed, and wished the House But then there was rescality in that tion was too hard a one, that you and was a leading spirit in the memorable Mr. Norment said, that in approaching dle, &c .- but this time a different set of your poverty-stricken husband"you that your condition is fulfilled—is chairs of South Carolina and Louisi- ghost, quoting: more than fulfilled. Here is my bank- and to White League Democrats whose Be thou a spirit of health, or goblin damn'd, book. Look inside it, and there you title to such seats was not as good as Bring with thee airs from heaven or blasts from hell. have the courage to buy," said Alice as she rese to go. "I will call in again ald Rivers—my husband's name—a dedency. In the face of this fact, and of That I will speak to thee." between three and four. Meantime, posit of seven thousand five hundred the further one that in nearly all the He then said that the object of the Oh, that we "tar heels" could see and ordinary!" exclaimed Sir Charles. "A few more were offered to day and hands trembled so much as he took the plicants, it is, perhaps, not to be won- only on the floor of the House but in worse,) when the only difference ap-I bought them," were the broker's first bank-book that he could hardly hold dered at that Mr. Sherman is disliked public, in his address to his constitu- pears to be, leasing a railroad for a term words. "Singular to say, Simmonds, it. He turned redder than ever, and by intelligent Southern black men. At ents, and in public print, and that it of years, by or through Republicans, conveyed by my uncle's telegram be your father's broker, has been inquiring then he cleared his voice loudly and put all events, and no matter what the rea- would not do to pass these things by and the giving away of a railroad, by correct-and he is too old a soldier in after Deep Lips all day. Hearing that on his most portentous frown. Then son, there is no doubt that the Secre- and say that Turner was crazy; but it or through Democrats. But as I said the field of speculation not to know I had bought heavily yesterday, he sent he opened the book and looked vacantly tary of the House to investigate I am no railroad man, and know nothwhat he is about-then will Deep Lips on one of his people to know whether at the writing for a moment or two, class in question, and that among the the matter thoroughly, not only in justing about railroads, I had better not go up, up, up, as soon as the intelli- I had any to dispose of, even going to and then with a muttered exclamation great mass of the colored voters he has tice to the living but to the dead, as they trespass further on your valuable colgence becomes generally known, and the extent of offering three and an he shut the book and threw it across never been heard of. Such being the could do nothing for themselves. Mr. umns, for the wise man said certain your wife will have made a very lucky eighth more than this morning's quo- the table to Sir Charles. "Those bank case, it is sufficiently obvious that even Turner has heretofore stood high in things about he who has a multitude of tations; but in the absence of any in- fellows write such a villainous scrawl the most questionable methods of ma social and political circles, and does words. Yours in the sell out and realize as soon as the shares structions from you, I declined all over- that there's no making head or tail of chine politicians practiced to forward now, and these charges coming from their pot-hooks," he said.

"Here it is, sure enough," said Sir most be regarded as legitimate when He had been spoken of as the repre-Don't part with a single share till you Charles, peering at the figures through compared to the efforts which interested sentative of outlaws; it was true that have my instructions to do so. Mean- his double eye glasses. "An amount of and unscrupulous political tricksters his county had been cursed with a veyed in your uncle's telegram prove to while, as it is nearly midday before the seven thousand five hundred pounds have been and are still making to se- band of outlaws and desperadoes, but be incorrect, and the shares don't go newspapers reach us down at Leas- deposited three days ago in the West- cure the vote of the South in the they had all suffered condign punishwood, I shall be glad if you will tele- minster Bank to the credit of Gerald National Convention for any candidate meet, and were dead, while the out-

"Sharp girl that, very-regular chip by this time, and had her arms round hundred thousand black Republican If there was no truth in these charges, of the old block," was Boucher's com- his neck, and was kissing him with voters. At a reasonably fair election, how was it that according to the Treasment to himself as he ran through the tears in her eyes and a smile on her lips. those votes would elect at least thirty- urer's report, every dollar invested by telegraphic news in next morning's "You'll have to give way, old friend, seven Republicans to the Electoral the State in Railroads had been utterly "Can it be possible that it is my wife Times, where the following paragraph there's not a doubt of it," continued College. That such an election can be lost? We were called here to transfer at once caught his attention; "Relia- Sir Charles, "if you made such a prom- held, or that the black men will be able the W. N. C. R. R. to the New York that Miss Mary Williams, daughter of that the Deep Lip Silver Mining Com- You were not only to forgive me, they are entitled, there is, of course, not investigated and the truth brought church, in Wayne county, while in new "But to think of your originating pany have just struck a vein of un-ach a scheme!" pany have just struck a vein of un-being thus powerless, however, is only Legislature was bought and the sale fire from a brush heap, and before any little office waiting to book any passen- you had married a man who was not National Republican Convention. No by introducing this Resolution, my county, aged about 60 years, returned nation of Grant, and every delegate "Then this is a legacy, I suppose?" from the South who goes to Chicago in taking up the Resolution by sections. less than three days. "No; not a legacy. We have been the interest of any other candidate may taking a leaf out of your book, papa, safely be regarded as a servant of de- idge for the second time, during this

"That is the result." "Her father's daughter; I always said she was," solilognized Sir Charles.

that section.

and used by them alone. It is of a ands out of my pocket. Never was so! Mr. Crewdson sat aghast, and well Where is this husband of yours?"

> "Gerald is waiting outside." "Bring him in, and let us have a look

But it was not till more than a year I happen to know through having been founded Yank's at the bottom of it all, afterward, when Gerald had grown to placed him in command of the Army hours—that Hell was made for men who I happen to know through having been papa's secretary, is a certain edition of Walker's Dictionary, of which I took care to provide myself with a copy before coming to Leaswood. When once the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known to the old man, that the truth when he said that the book is known, the rest is as simple to the book is known to the old man, that the truth was made for men who that the book is the book is known to the old man, that the truth was made for men who that the book is the book is the provided the book is the provided that the book is known, the rest is as simple to the truth was made for men who that the book is the book is the provided that the book is known to the old man, the truth was made for men who of the Potomac after it had been climitated in the truth was made for men who of the Potomac after it had been climitated in the truth was made for men who of the Potomac after it had been climitated in the truth was made for men who of the Potomac after it had been climitated in the truth was made for men who of the Potomac after it had been climitated in the truth was made for men who of the Potomac after it had been climitated in the truth was made for men who of the Potomac after it had been climitated in the truth was made for men who of the Potomac after it had been climitated in the truth was made for men who of Grant Among the Negroes. Gen. Grant, above and beyond all compliments and courtesies at Apporal read a letter from the pen of the Hon. other men is, says the New York Times, mattex. This is the "luck" which bore D. L. Russell on the subject, and think dot eleven stroke five nine nine dot one Alice at once took alarm, and telegraph- the choice of the Republican voters of Grant through two of the most states be has put it about on the line. It three stroke one seven dot two seven'- ed Boucher to sell everything. Three the South. People who have not trav- manlike, wise and beneficent adminis- really seems to me that a great deal of and so on, which when put down in days later a post-letter reached her. eled in the Cotton States can have no trations of the Government that dece- the stir in railroad matters has been actual figurges would look thus: 70.11 "Read the news, dear, and resign your adequate idea of the estimation in rate the page of history. This is the manufactured because the Democrats which the distinguished ex-President "luck" that has challenged for him the have about "played out" of anything to now take my dictionary, and turning her husband as she handed him the is held by the colored citizens of that respect and honor of all the civilized write, talk or legislate on or about section. He is to them the one repre- nations of the Old World-the admira- Our poor ignorant people are not sentative head and front of the Repub- tion, respect and love of the masses of worthy of a liberal school law, by which I find to be the word Buy. Then turn- fifty pounds!" read Gerald in amaze- lican Party-the emboidment of the his own countrymen whenever and they may receive a common school edsentiment which demanded, and in the wherever he appears among them .- ucation, yet the State in her wisdom, nine, I count down to the thirteenth "Yes; and all out of one lucky specu- end achieved, their freedom. There This is the "luck" that followed him to and to cover up her many blunders word from the top, and find it to be lation in Deep Lip shares. Now, I am are many good reasons why he should Cuba and Mexico, and secured for him and management of her internal imbe so regarded by Southern black men. attentions and bonors seldom bestowed provements, wants to throw dirt in the method, I work gradually through the And to her father she went! but not From the first he has been known and upon mortal in those sections of the eyes (minds rather) of her too confitelegram, with what result you know. till after Gerald had sought and found praised among them as "the man whe world. This is the "luck," as the Amer- dent people. Of course, everything depended on my relief from his duties at Leaswood. Mr. won the war." As compared to his ican intimates, which has brought him I am free to say, knowing that the knowledge of the book used between made Old Furnival's Hotel great success in this direction, the through the storm and preserved his home when in London, and there it suchievments of all other prominent Reship and himself frem being engulfed thing that may be said for or against that the telegram would have remained was that Alice sought and found bim. publicans have, among the negroes, in the sea. This "luck" is the worth a measure of public interest, that from As fortune would have it, Sir Charles sunk into insignificance. Indeed, it and merit of a man who meves under what I have heard it is a case of "last Stopford happened to be lunching with must be confessed, even though the pretecting and guiding hand of resort" with the Democracy of this his friend that morning. Mrs. Rivers confession be an argument against the Almighty Power, and which never de- State. I am almost afraid to say this, hardly gave the waiter time to announce intelligence of the freedmen, that in serted our cause in its darkest hour, for fear it will stir up our brother Demher before she followed him into the the more remote districts of the far and has watched over, cared for and ocrats to fix this thing up "instanter." room. Mr. Crewdson started up from South there are very few of them who given success to the wonderful career I will tell you what I over-heard on know even the names of any candidate of the hero-statesman of the United the train the other day. Two men "Why-Alice! You here! Why have for the Presidency except U. S. Grant. States of America. you come? What is the meaning of Blaine, Sherman, and the rest are abso- This luck, of which General Grant is to be a railroad man, and the conver-"I did, and acted on it immediately." this intrusion?" But before he could lutely unknown to them. Even among sippantly and derisively accused, has sation seemed to be on the sale of this say another word his daughter's arms the better informed black men, par- not ended yet. It will follow him into road. Said the railroad man, "Till tell will not be a Deep Lip share to be had you will pardon me for remarking that were round his neck, and her warm ticularly those of South Carolina and the Chicago Convention, and then and you what it is, if we don't sell this road for love or money by to-morrow morn- your choice of an investment is hardly kisses were being rained over his face. Louisiana, where the Senator from there proclaim him the unanimous the Radicals will carry this State sure "Did I not say that I would not see Maine and the Secretary of the Treas- choice of that body as the nominee of as you are born," which I thought at ury may be known, they are not liked. the Republican party. It will then at the time and have been thinking ever "You did, papa, and very hard I Mr. Blaine is unpopular because of his tend him into and through a bitter and since, was a right sure thing, and thinkthought it of you. You did forbid me action in opposition to what was known bateful canvass, and subject him to ing as I do politically if this is the only to come near you unless I could fulfill as the Force bill, while Sherman, on haters and scratchers, but which will plank they have to keep them swimthe one condition named in your let- account of his relation to the present result in his triumphant election. Then ming, they might as well "duck down" Administration and his direct connectit will inaugurate him as President of now. There is, 1 am aware, a strong "Condition, indeed! I remember tion with the conferences which result- the United States, and bring peace and feeling in favor of the sale of this road hardly be likely to make any very se- nothing about any condition. What on ed in the overthrow of Govs. Chamber- joy to fifty millions of people and safety in some portions of the State, and I lain and Packard, is heartily detested. and perpetuity to the Nation. This is am sorry to say it is a shame that with "Did you not say in the only letter Upon the latter subject it is useless to what Grant's "luck" has done for him the great amount of State pride we out money of your own, you would not you have written me since my marriage argue with the better class of Republi in the past and what it promises to do think we have, in order to comthat on the day I could bring you six cans, either white or black. They for him and his country in the future. plete any work we seem compelled to "Certainly not, unless I had more thousand pounds-being an equivalent have been assured again and again It is good luck to all. Dr. Norment's Investigation

Resolution. States troops, were destined sooner or the resolution of inquiry into charges facts, and I defy successful contradiclater to tall of their own weight; they made by Josiah Turner, introduced by tion. "Certainly you did. I have your let- have been told that popular sentiment Mr. Norment. Mr. Ardrey moved to ta- There was a "thunder of a fuse" A significant shrug was the broker's ter in my pocket. You shall read your at the North would no longer sustain ble the whole matter but by request of kicked up when those who were manthe employment of Federal soldiers for Mr. Norment, withdrew his motion aging the interests of the State. &c., "No need, girl-no need. My mem- the purpose mentioned. Such state- when that gentleman stated that he only leased the North Carolina Railroad ory is treacherous at times; but I've ments count as nothing against the was absent on Saturday when the mat- to the Richmond & Danville Railroad.

the candidacy of Gen. Grant, may al- him, should be sifted to the bottom .other than Gen. Grant. There are in laws of Caswell, Alamance, Greene and "But-but-I don't understand," men who are trying by disreputable our duty to deprive these charges be- was burned to death.

one will question their right to repre- object is only to turn on the light. "My husband on our wedding-day sentation in that meeting. They are Mr. McGehee made some extended Mr. Jones here made a long speech, weeks and three days. He returned in

On Monday last while Mrs. G. W. Mr. Bernard gave his views, stating "Then you must have been deucedly this place, was burning grass in her pride as the object of the resolution.

who discovered the burning dress when table, which was finally done by a vote dred.

WHOLE NO. 428.

[From the National Republican.] General Grant's "Luck."

from his triumples in the West and ing he would prove his charges in 48 Confederate capital, by way of the Wil- the different papers of the State on the derness, with persistent power and subject of the sale of the Western Railconsummate skill, until the citidel sur- road, I thought I would have a say, rendered and Grant and Lee exchanged though I am no railroad man. I have you've come to tell me that my condi- fessed to be a stalwart of the stalwarts, to understand his motives in the matter. trade, and lets of it-a Radical swinand to this day mysterious negotiations Mr. Turner on this matter, he felt like men hold the strings, and it is wonders "One moment, papa. I come to tell which resulted in giving the Executive Hamlet when he approached his father's ful how nice and convenient a thing it

The chair then recognized Mr. Ethersigning politicians, not a representa- session. (The first was when he spoke was broken into Tuesday night and the "Speculating? And is this the re- tive of the black men, who constitute on his contested election case.) He safe rifled to the amount of nearly what is left of the Republican Party in thought the resolution should be re- $800. turned to the author, which a withering rebuke from the chair.

Advertising Rates:

ed no concealment. Mr. Turner had been making promiscuous charges long The Beltimore American-bitter anti- enough, and if he could not sustain Grant-says, somewhat mournfully, them he should be expelled, and if they "Grant's luck brought him and his ship were true the people of North Carolina all sale from the gale." This is the should know it.

same "lack" that called General Grant Mr. Turner explained his vote, say-were talking and one of them I knew sell out to foreigners, when the whole thunder for the last ten or twelve years has been poured out on those who did not happen to be born on this side of House Resolution No. 13-This is "Mason & Dixon's" line. These are is on the eve of an important State and National election to give away one or two millions to the "bloated bondholders of the North," we heard so much about not longer ago than 1876. Southern States Democrats or Demo- resolution was not to drag up the names understand the true inwardness of these "Why now, really this is most extra- cratic sympathizers hold Federal posi- of dead men, but that the House should things and satisfy ourselves in regard tions for which there were dozens of take into consideration the fact that to what makes such a great difference Mr. Crewdson said nothing; but his competent and faithful Republican ap- Mr. Turner had made these charges not between one and the same thing, (or

Saturday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, an altereation occurred at the Bluff Factory, six miles south of Favetteville, between Mr. Charles Harrington and a negro man by the name of Jim Mallov, which resulted in the shooting of the latter. The shot was made with a But Alice was on her father's knee the Southern States apward of eight Lenoir had not been so punished pistol, and took effect in the face of the ranging upwards, lodging in the head back of the right eye, - Fayetteville Ban-

> The Rocky Mount Progress learns an additional argument against the was settled before we met. And it is one could come to her assistance she > > here a few days ago from Illinois, after an absence of forty-two years. When he went to Illinois it took him five The store house of Mr. Erastus Edwards, doing business near Goldsbore,

The sixteenth annual exhibition of the Sampson county agricultural socie-ty will take place on the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th of December next.

R. W. Geerge, of Stokes county, sold out a mass of figures."

there before me and had bought up "Gerald and I made all our money it first caught, had his hands badly of 07 to 33.

"The cipher is a private one, agreed every mother's son of 'em, and now by speculating in Deep Lip mining burned in putting out the fire.—Tarbo- Mr. Brown, of Yadkin, voted no, and cisco agitators, was convicted of using explained his vote, saying that he wish- incendiary language at the sand lot,