

LOCALS.

J. J. Conyers has moved to the "Cut-off" in Granville county.

R. A. Pruitt made an assignment on December 31st. Mr. A. S. Jayner is his assignee.

Mr. H. G. Holmes has taken a position with the Franklin Grocery Company.

D. M. Cooke and family, left Wednesday for News Ferry, Va., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. F. E. Sams entertained a party of young people in honor of her guests on Tuesday evening of last week.

Miss Katie Bet Merriis entertained a number of her immediate friends at the home of her father, on Main street, Monday evening of last week.

On account of the illness of Mrs. Henley, the coming in of the New Year was not heralded by the ringing of bells New Year's night, "but 1910 came all the same."

The winners of the gold money in the McGhee-Joyner Christmas Sale were as follows: Will Lawrence $20, a negro named Jeffreys, of near Youngsville, $10, and Walter McGhee $5.

L. C. Pirie has taken a position in Henderson and will conduct an up-to-date fancy grocery store there. Mr. C. T. White has taken the position of manager of the Franklin Grocery Co. here in the place of Mr. Pirie.

Mr. T. B. Conyers and Miss Minta Williams were married at the home of Mr. Will Mitchiner on Sunday evening, January 2nd, in the presence of a few friends. The bride was a daughter of Mrs. Seanis Williams of this place.

John Henry Harris happened to the misfortune of getting his left arm broken just above the wrist last Monday morning. He was riding horseback through a woods when the horse shied at something, throwing him up against a tree. He is getting on very well.

Dr. S. C. Ford has leased the residence on Main street recently occupied by Mr. E. P. Blackley, and will move in right away. His many friends here are glad to know that he will continue practicing his profession here the coming year.

Messrs J. C. Blackley and A. S. Powell have formed a copartnership in the horse business here, and will be ready in a few days to furnish the people with good animals at reasonable prices. Mr. Blackley leaves to night for Richmond to purchase a new lot of horses and mules. Read their ad.

Mr. J. K. Wright one of Franklin county's most successful farmer's and land owners was found dead in bed by his wife Thursday morning. Mr. Wright live in about 5 miles of this place. Mr. Wright be missed by a lot of people. His wife noticed Thursday morning before day that something was matter with him and called his Rufe, who was in an adjoining room but before he could reach his side he was dead. Mr. Wright up about 15 minutes before his discovered anything was the matter with him, apparently well as usual. He leaves a wife and 8 children. He was buried at the family bury ground Friday afternoon. Rev. Wicker officiating.

Personals.

C. D. Britt left today for Atlanta.

Mr. C. S. Williams lost a nice uncle this week.

Mr. W. H. Byrum visited his daughter in Raleigh yesterday.

Mr. Jeff Pearce, of Virginia, spent Xmas with friends here.

E. W. Edwards spent the holidays with relatives in Raleigh.

M. P. Allen, of Raleigh, spent Xmas at home with his people.

P. E. Kearney, of Oxford, spent the holidays with his people here.

Miss Mary Timberlake, of Youngsville, is visiting Miss Martha Harris.

Mr. J. M. Best and bride, of Gastonia, visited his people here Xmas. Messrs. Dallas May and J. C. Beckham left Monday for Pennsylvania.

Mrs. F. C. Larraber, of Hampton, Va., is visiting her brother here this week.

Mrs. J. L. King and daughters, of Raleigh, spent the holidays here with relatives.

Miss Effie Vines returned Friday after spending the holidays with her people at Tarboro.

Mr. Robert A. Winston, who is in the government service, spent the holidays with his people here.

Miss Cleo Winstead and brother, Albert, of Wilson, visited at W. M. Best's the past week.

Miss Baine Best has returned from the State Normal College at Greensboro and will take a position with Mrs. D. G. Best & Son.

Mr. K. G. Winstead, left this week for Wilson. He has many friends here who regret to learn that he has severed his connection with Mrs. D. G. Best & Son.

Death of a Good Woman.

On Sunday morning at 4 o'clock at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. M. C. Henly, all that was mortal of that good old lady, Mrs. James Aldridge Henley, passed into the great beyond. Mrs. Henley was nearing her 86th birthday and leaves one daughter, Mrs. S. C. Vann, and a host of friends to grieve over the loss of one so much loved and respected by all. Her death was not unexpected as she had been in feeble health for some time. The funeral services were conducted from the home by Rev. W. W. Rose, pastor of the Methodist church, and her remains were entered in Oakwood cemetery on Monday evening at 3:30 o'clock, amid one of the largest processions seen here in many years. The floral tribute was beautiful and profuse. The pall bearers were as follows: Active—J. W. Daniels, Dr. A. R. Winston, N. Y. Gully, A. B. Wester, C. S. Williams, H. E. Pearce, Maj. B. F. Bullock, C. W. Coaway. Honorary—H. F. Fuller, C. L. McGhee, J. E. and C. T. Nicholson, S. C. Duke, H. T. May.

Mrs. Henley was a member of the Baptist church here and was a woman in whose character and every day life shown out a beautiful spirit "that it was a pleasure to be a friend to all," through which she had won the friendship and love of all who came in contact with her. The bereaved friends and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

Sad Death.

News was received here Wednesday afternoon of the tragic death of Mr. Jessie Holden, about three miles from here. He was found dead in a field and was brought to the hotel here where he died about 11 o'clock Wednesday night. He was a son of Mr. Tobe Holden of near Youngsville, and was buried at the home place Thursday afternoon.

DR. FORD DENTIST Franklinton, N. C.

PINEULES for the Eye

A Happy And Prosperous New Year

We wish to extend to our many friends and customers our many thanks and appreciation for the past patronage and will assure them that our every effort in the future will be to furnish them the best goods the market affords at a cheaper price. Wishing you the compliments of the season.

McGHEE JOYNER COMPANY

"THE STORE OF QUALITY" FRANKLINTON'S BIGGEST AND BEST STORE

BLACKLEY & POWELL

Franklinton, N. C. HORSES and MULES FOR Cash or On Time

Don't buy until you see what we have. Will have another big lot of fine horses and mules to arrive in a few days.

SALE AND LIVERY

I have decided to run again a Sale and Livery Stable and am prepared to serve the public with First Class Teams At All Times. Will be glad to have a liberal share of patronage and guarantee satisfaction. Safe teams and polite and accommodating drivers.

R. F. FULLER

FOR

Bananas, Apples, Oranges, Raisins, Nuts of all kinds see us and save money.

A. W. PERRY, JR. CO.

Closing Out Sale

The law compels me to close up the business of W. P. Neal & Co.

The Goods Have to be Sold

Therefore if you want to buy

At Your Own Price

Come and buy at once. All must be sold by Christmas.

Sale Now On

W. H. YARBOROUGH

Surviving partner of W. P. Neal & Co.

For Blank Books and Up-to-Date

Job Printing

of all kinds and work that will please you, try the

Franklinton Printing Company

Franklinton, N. C.

Prompt Attention to Mail Order. P. O. Box 207

GOOD DRY STOVE WOOD

When in need of good dry stove wood, call up phone 92 and we will take pleasure in sending it to you at once. This wood is dry outside from our saw mill and we will furnish it to you at $2.50 per cord and is sawed up ready for use.

GRIFFIN & BEASLEY