TAR DROPS.

—Don't forget to write it 1910.
 —Since the New Year has come lets try to live up to our new resolutions.

—Will Cooke has a fine lady broke horse he wants to sell. Read his ad.

—Dr. Joel D. Whitaker will be in Louisburg on next Tuesday, January 11th.

—They are both fine boys at the homes of Messrs W. F. Beasley and J. H. Southall.

—There was a good crowd of people in town on Monday—it being the first Monday.

—Happy and prosperous New Year to all is the wishes of the editor of the TIMES.

—Mrs. Dr. Hal Harris has taken rooms at Mrs. W. M. Person's and will make her home in Louisburg.

—Franklin Superior court will convene here on Monday, January 24th, with Hon. O. H. Guion, presiding.

—The big sale of the Alston Company, that started on Wednesday, has been attracting a large number of people.

—Dr. J. R. Wheless, who has been located at Centerville for several years has moved to Spring Hope and Dr. T. O. Coppedge, of Gastalia, has located at Centerville.

—The "Christmas treat" given at the Opera House on last Friday night to the children of the Methodist Sunday School was very much enjoyed by all, both young and old.

—The attention of the people of Louisburg is especially called to the advertisement of D. C. High Tax Collector, in this issue. This is a very stringent order on him and you will do well to attend to this matter at once.

—Among those who made changes in the position as clerks, here the first of the year, we notice the following: L. J. Perrell from M. C.
 Pleasants to G. H. Cooper's; J.
 Lehman from W. P. Neal and Co., to C. T. Stokes.

—A Christmas tree was given at the Episcopal church to the children of that Sunday School on Tuesday evening of last week. The occasion was one of great interest and enjoyment. The music furnished by Miss Sallie Charles Cheatham on the violin added much to the success of the occasion.

—Two little boys, Kenneth Collier and Edward Southall, went on of the porch of Mr. E. B. Smith's house to skate on Wednesday of this week. Kenneth being the first one to attempt the skating did not stop at the edge but fell to the ground which scared Edward so that he did not try it. Fortunately Kenneth was not seriously hurt, although he escaped very narrowly.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to extend my very sincere thanks to all those who contributed to that nice Christmas present, the twenty-dollar gold piece, and to assure you that this token of your approbation is exceedingly gratifying and will ever be most highly appreciated.

Sincerely,

See T. Alston.

Laurel Items.

As I haven't seen any news from here lately, I thought I would send in a few items.

Rev. G. M. Duke filled his appointment at Mt. Zion last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. S. J. Person has returned home after spending a few of the Xmas holidays with her brother at Oxford.

There was a candy stew at the home of Mrs. M. T. Hicks Tuesday night last. It was given in honor of Miss Maggie Foster who was visiting there.

Messrs. Frank Hicks and J. B.
 Hunt spent Sunday at Mr. W. D.
 Foster's.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Ben Harris which occurred at his home Friday, Morning Dec. 31, 1910. He was one of the eldest men in Franklin county. He was about 98 years of age and lived an honest upright life and will be greatly missed by his friends and relatives.
 U. and I.

Pocomoke Items.

A large crowd attended the Christmas tree at Pope's, and everybody seemed to enjoy the occasion.
 Prof. R. B. White delivered a short but interesting address, and Mr.
 Herbert Holmes played well the part of Santa Claus.

The young people had a pleasant time on Tuesday night at the home of Mr. G. R. Ferguson.

An earthquake shock was felt here on the night of December 31st.

Miss Ethel Holmes, who teaches at Benehan, spent the holidays at home.

Miss Lonie Williams spent Christmas at the hospital in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ray, of Roger's Store, have been visiting at Po-comoke.

Misses Ida and Sarah Conyers and Messrs. Charles, Sam, and Billie Conyers spent Christmas with their home people.

Miss Lola Fuller is visiting at her father's, Mr. G. R. Fuller.

The Merry Christmas days are ended.

And numbered with the past,
 The New Year comes to us full blended,

With hopes we should not blast.

May we this year a record make,
 Of good deeds and of love, Which angels will not blush to take,
 Up to the throne above.

If we will give our life to God,
 And trust him every day, He'll lead us over every clod.

And keep us in the "Gold old way."

Then when we lay our mantle by,
 We'll rest content on yonder side.

For those who reach the portals high, Ne'er wish to cross the reflux tide.

NATURE'S WARNING.

Louisburg People Must Recognise and Heed it.

 iously.

But nature always warns you.
 Notice the kidney secretions.

If there are settlements and sediment Passage frequent, scanty, painful.
 It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in this locality.

Mrs. H. S. Cox, 223 W. Jones Street, Raleigh, N. C., says: "For a considerable length of time my kidneys were very weak and I was caused a great amount of annoyance by the frequent passages of the kidney secretions. My back ached constantly and I had dull pains across my loins, so severe at times that I was hardly able to get about. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, completely cured me and since that time there has never been a return of the trouble. I endorse this valuable specific for kidney complaint in the highest terms."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one needed disease that science has been able to cure in a safe, and that is Catarrh; Hall's Ca-tarth Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
