

RIVERSIDE

INDEPENDENT WAREHOUSE

Farmers from Missouri have been shown and are now convinced that the Riverside is the place to sell tobacco. Our purpose and determination throughout the entire season has been to give each and every farmer an honest deal, correct weights, courteous treatment and the highest prices the market could afford. As to whether or not we have done this you are the judges and your verdict has been evidenced by the liberal patronage we have received for which we are duly grateful. Wishing for each and everyone who has sold tobacco on the floor of the Big Riverside a Merry Christmas, a jolly good time during the Holidays and a prosperous New Year, and hoping that you will come back, to see us next season for we are in the warehouse business to stay. We are yours to serve

High and Low Prices
 TO THE EDITOR:—
 After a long trip through many States, I am exceedingly happy to be again among the kind and hospitable people of Franklin County. There is no place on earth when I feel more at home or am more cordially welcomed. It gives me much pleasure to hear of the unusual prosperity enjoyed by all the past year. The bankers, the grocers, the druggists, the furniture men, clothing men—in fact everybody tells me their trade has been unprecedented.

I was standing yesterday in front of P. S. & K. K. Allen's store discussing the general prosperity, with several gentlemen, among whom there were several farmers. One of these farmers who was listening to the conversation, but who did not seem to be enjoying much, as he would occasionally cast his eye to a mule wagon loaded with hay, flour, meal and a deeper hog. When the conversation began to lag, he turned to me, and said, "my friends, after all your big talk about good times, I would like for you to show me where the poor farmer comes in. Now look then at that load of stuff. They made me pay 12 1-2 cts a pound for that pork, $8 a barrel for that flour and a dollar a bushel for meal. Now don't that look like perishing the poor farmer and his family."

"No, Mr. Farmer it looks more to me like perishing the town people and enriching the poor farmer. You have the thing backwards, my dear friend. You being a farmer, should have that load of stuff to sell instead of buying it. A country is prosperous when produce is high, and other stuff low. Now walk in P. S. & K. K. Allen's store a minute and let me show you some prices that will "make your head swim." Pete Allen has just gotten back from the north where he purchased over $3000 worth of mid-winter clothing and they are offering them at prices never before dreamed of anywhere. Pete has been showing me around, and I must admit that I was amused. Now here are a new lot of over 400 pairs of pants that cost to manufacturers from $8 to $4.50—new wash-trousers, stylish and up-to-date, which they are offering you your choice for $1.50. Here are a lot of Diskey Kersey's—new, just from the factory, which you know always used to sell for $8 to $10, you only have to pay $6.

Here are heavy long overcoats that you always paid $8 for—only $3.50. Here is a big lot of fine stylish suits which the year before normally pay from $22 to $30—now only $10.

Here is a lot of Thibit, Melton and Beaver Overcoats that always sell for $15, their price only $7.50. They also have a lot of $5 all wool suits that you can't buy elsewhere for less than $7.50. I know now, you will agree with me that these prices are wonderful.

After showing him through, I walked down to the stove to finish my cigar and looking to the front of the store I saw my friend paying the affable Jno. Yarborough for one of the $3.50 overcoats.
