FRIDAY, JANUARY 28 1910.

WHAT a pitiable spectacle. One day Mr. Taft is going to enforce the law against trusts and the next day the sensational report is repudiated. "Everything by turns and nothing long."

THE Monroe Journal truly says: "A man who attacks either the ability or the motives of General Lee at this day, so clearly advertises himself a fool that nobody will take the trouble to answer him."

It looks like we are between the devil and the deep blue sea, for the Charleston News and Courier says: "We are told that people who do not eat meat become mollycoddles. Those who do eat it become paupers."

EDITOR BAILEY, of the Houston Post, remarks that the American eagle must have screamed with delight when Senator Gore exclaimed: "The tariff enables the jeweled hand of avarice to pick threadbare the pockets of need."

THE New Burn Sun thus gets off the best pun of the year: "From the way Judge Lyon is putting the screws to the blind tigers in Anson county we are lead to believe that lions and tigers are not such good friends after all."

We notice from the report of the grand jury that a new court house is recommended. To this we wish to add our heartiest endorsement. Of all the things Franklin county does need, we feel that a new court house would be the most acceptable to the people at large. And from what we can learn the county is in a position to get it very easily and without creating a hardship on any one.

HONEST AND CONSCIENTIOUS OFFICER.

The following letter was taken from the News-Observer of Wednesday. We reproduce it here with our hearty endorsement:

To the Editor: Hon. C. C. Daniels, of Wilson, has announced that he will not again be a candidate for solicitor of the Fourth District.

This public announcement permits me, without violating propriety of making an estimate of him, have the appearance of a campaign document, to pay a just tribute to a good man.

For more than eight years my opportunities for judging of the official conduct of Mr. Daniels have been exceptionally good. In all kinds of criminal prosecution and with all classes of law-breakers, I have seen him engaged, and have been myself engaged on opposite sides from him. Of him it may truly be said that his first consideration has ever been the performance of what he conceived to be his duty. No influence was powerful enough to drive him, a hair's breath from the course his conscience approved. There has been and are in the State, perhaps, more vigorous prosecuting officers.

Among the solicitors there may be found, possibly, some better lawyers and more acute intellects, although he has himself always met every requirement of his exacting office. But it is my deliberate judgment that an honest or more conscientious man never took oath of office.

At the end of eight years of service it is possible to find in his district a few men who do not like him; there are many who do like him; but not one, I venture, can be found who will assert that he ever acquitted with duty, or compromised a principle.

This much I have said because it is just and true.

Endorsement of the Candidacy Of R. G. Allsbrook, Esq., For Solicitor of the Fourth Judicial District.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

The Bar of Edgecombe county hereby announces the candidacy of our fellow townsman, R. G. Allsbrook, Esq., as a candidate for Solicitor of the Fourth Judicial District to succeed Hon. C. C. Daniel, whom we understand, will not be a candidate to succeed himself.

Mr. Allsbrook has been an active and successful member of the Tarboro Bar for the past ten years. He is a young man of splendid habits, and fine character a forcetful fluent speaker, a good lawyer, and in every way thoroughly qualified to discharge the duties of the office with credit to himself and satisfaction to the public.

He has so lived his life that he enjoys the respect and confidence of the entire public. He is a Democrat of Democrats and has rendered the cause of Democracy loyal, valient, and splendid services; and for the past four years he has been Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the county.

While he has never sought political preferment before, yet, at the unanimous request of his party, he has served as chairman of the Board of County Education for the past eight years. He has given greatly of his time and ability to the cause of Democracy and to the cause of education. In all things pertaining to the welfare of his people, his time his means, and his ability is at their service.

His sympathy is with the plain people of his State; he has a high conception of the duties of the office of Solicitor, and if elected he will, in our opinion, discharge the duties of the office with fairness to all, with credit to himself, and with entire satisfaction to the public.

In recognition of his loyalty to the party, his services to the State and county, and his qualifications for the office, the undersigned, Democratic members of the Bar of Edgecombe county, hereby heartily endorse his candidacy for the office of Solicitor for the Fourth Judicial District, and request their brethren of the Bar and all the voters of the District to give to Mr. Allsbrook their support for this office.
