Alert R. F. D. No. 1 Items.

As I have not seen any items from here in a good while I thought I would send in a few.

Our Rural carrier, Mr. H. P. Speed, has purchased a new mail cab and he finds it very convenient in delivering mail and in taking his "girl" out to dances these cold nights.

We are glad to welcome Mr. J. C. Foster and family in our neighborhood. He has moved to his new residence on "Oak Grove." We wish him much success in his merchandising.

Mr. Robert Carroll, of Warren, is spending some time with his brother, Mr. O. P. Carroll.

J. J. Lanier, of Woods, will occupy the store at Laurel recently vacated by Mr. John C. Foster.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Howell Incoe, which occurred in Henderson Wednesday last. His remains were brought down Thursday and laid to rest in the family burying ground.

W. D. Foster, of Manson, spent Sunday with his mother.

Oh You Kid.

News from White Level.

As it has been sometime since I saw anything from White Level I will endeavor to send you a few items to let you know we are still on the map.

The farmers of this section are right busy preparing their plant beds, yet some of them are not through selling their last year's crops.

School opened with only a few attendants as vaccination was feared. But they go in multitudes now since the cry of small-pox is over.

Mr. Call Parrish, of Gupton, is attending school at White Level.

There was preaching at White Level Academy last Sunday.

Miss Obessis Wheeler, the assistant teacher at White Level, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Mabel Sturdivant, visited her parents at Castalia the past week.

Mr. Jim Wood, who has been suffering from a stroke of paralysis is improving.

Miss Sallie Wood, of Philadelphia who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Mammie Wood has returned home.

I saw in the FRANKLIN TIMES of last week that Pattie Lou, the eight year old daughter of Mr. John Yarborough had taken strychnine and died shortly after. I write to correct the error in that it was Mrs. Georgia Griffin's daughter instead of Mr. John Yarboro. [We thank you for your correction as it was an error in the information given us.—EDITOR.]

Miss Lucy Gupton, of Wood's, and who is teacher in the Pearce school, visited Mrs. Hattie Griffin the past week.

Sid Joyner, of Louisburg, visited Mr. Ben Bartholomew on last Saturday.

Mr. Ernest Sledge visited his cousin, Clyde Bartholomew, on Sunday last.

Mr. Rufus May stopped over and spent a few days with friends and relatives before returning to his home at Garner.

Ed Lancaster, of Red Bud, was on "double duty" Sunday, as he was rushing three girls for the sake of one.

Many of the "Centreville boys" were visitors to White Level Sunday.

With best wishes to the FRANKLIN TIMES.

ROSE BEE.

A Paradoxical Reply.

"Doctor, do you think eye-glasses will alter my appearance?" inquired Mrs. Gunson anxiously.

"I shall at least expect them to improve your looks," replied the physician.—February Lippincott's.

The proper study of mankind is a room where womanhood can't get in.—February Lippincott's.

PHOTOGRAPHS

Washington, the photographer, will be in Louisburg at his old stand on the Mason Hotel grounds from Jan. 20 to 31. Will have the most up-to-date line of photos ever shown in Louisburg, and will be prepared to do all kinds of work. Remember the date and come and see me.

Notice! Owing to the prevalence of small pox among the colored people I will do work for the white people only.
