LOCALS.

Blackley & Powell lost a fine mule Thursday night.

J. P. Holdren, who is at work near Lillington, is spending a few days with his wife in town.

The Methodist Sunday School, on last Sunday raised $130.00 for the Orphanage at Raleigh. This amount will go toward erecting and equipping the new laundry.

Messrs Blackley & Powell returned from Richmond Friday with the neatest car of horses seen here this season. Several were sold before they were put in the stables.

The Philathea Class of the Franklinton Baptist Sunday School will hold its second regular meeting with its President, Miss Bessie Joyner, at 7:30 March 7th, 1910. A full attendance is requested.

Last Friday night the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church here, gave a supper at the residence of Mr. R. A. Speed for the benefit of the church. The supper was quite a success and a neat little sum was realized.

Mr. W. H. Byrum has sold his entire stock of goods to Mr. D. W. Fowler, who will take charge at once and do an up-to-date business at Byrum's old stand. Mr. Fowler is from near Wilton and our people welcome him to our town.

Dr. A. R. Winston took Walter Moore to Rex hospital at Raleigh on last Thursday morning to undergo an operation. The operation was performed Saturday and at this writing, although he is very weak, he is doing as well as could be expected.

Capt. Kearney requests us to state that he wants every member of Company F, at the drill on Friday as there will be a competitive drill for two company medals. The drill will also be important on account of getting everything checked up for the inspection on March 9th.

Miss Florence M. Young, of Washington, D. C., who was in town a few days ago soliciting contributions to the Florence Crittenton Home, at Charlotte, requests us to extend her many thanks to the good people of Franklinton for their many kindness and liberal donations.

While shifting last Thursday evening the engine of the Louisburg train was upset at the switch near the Sterling Cotton Mills storage house turning the tender over and setting the engine entirely off the track. The wrecking train came that night, but having to attend to a wreck north of here did not clear the wreck here until Friday.

Personal.

Mrs. S. C. Vann spent Monday in Raleigh.
