

The Louisburg Guaranty, Loan AND Realty Company

This is the title of the company just established in Louisburg and read below what we can do for you.

REAL ESTATE If you wish to buy a farm, we will buy it for you, and assist you in negotiating a loan to buy it, if you want time to pay for it. If you wish to sell your farm or exchange it for another, we can assist you to do that also.

RENTING PROPERTY AND COLLECTING RENTS If you wish to rent your property, we will assist you in finding a tenant. We will also collect your rents for you if you desire and keep the property insured and in repair.

LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE We will also insure your life against death, and we will insure your property against loss by fire. An insurance policy on your life will not cost much, but it would mean much to your wife and children, in case of your death. Your savings and accumulations of a life time may be destroyed in a few minutes by fire. A fire insurance policy will protect you.

MONEY If you wish to borrow money, we will assist you to borrow it. If you have money to loan, we will place it for you on absolutely gilt edge security, and charge you not a cent. No matter what amount you may desire to place out at 6 per cent. interest on gilt edge security, whether only a few dollars, or larger amounts, we will place it for you, and not charge you a cent for our services and the services of our attorney, who has made a specialty of looking up real estate titles.

WE CAN GIVE YOUR BOND We are also prepared to give bond of certain character, and you can have this company furnish your bond, instead of asking your friends to sign your bond.

We have enumerated in the foregoing some of the services our company can render if desired. We are prepared to serve you in a number of other ways and we offer our services to the public. We begin business February 1st.

TAR DROPS.

—The First National Bank has a change of ad in this issue.

—The best friends are those who stimulate each other to do good.

—If you want to buy a cheap typewriter read the ad signed TRAX office in this issue.

—The attention of our readers is directed to the change of ad of the Alston Co., in this issue.

—Those who enjoy tramping about the streets in mud have certainly had their fill of it this week.

—Every man's life is a failure who does not try to do something to leave the world richer than he found it.

—No matter how small a sin is examine its tracks and you will find that they point straight toward the pit.

—Mr. J. P. Winston is having the material put on his lot on Nash street preparatory to erecting three store rooms.

—The attention of our readers is directed to the change of ad of Geo. H. Cooper in this issue. See what he has to say.

—Hill & Sledge are moving their stock of furniture to the Garrett store on Nash street recently vacated by the depository.

—Mr. R. Y. McAden and wife have moved to Louisburg and will take rooms at Mrs. Jennie B. Hart's for the present.

—We are now at work on the Annual Statement for Franklin county, and if you wish your business represented therein send in the copy for your ad at once.

—From their change of ad in this issue it will be seen that F. N. & R. Z. Egerton will put on a big reduction shoe sale beginning March 7th. See their ad.

—We are requested to announce that there will be an Easter dance at Collins Mill on Monday, March 28th given by Mr. S. F. Collins. The public is invited to attend.

—Having completed their recent contest P. S. & K. K. Allen are getting up a new one and hope to have it in shape to begin to "hand out" good tidings in a few days.

—The Alston Company is moving its stock of general merchandise to the store room next to the Beasley-Alston Drug Co., on Nash street, recently purchased and remodeled by Mr. A. W. Alston.

—Mr. W. P. Gill was in to see us this week and informs us that they have a clock at his home that is over one hundred years old, and although there are three cogs broken from one of the wheels, it continues to keep perfect time.

—It takes a rich man to draw a check, a pretty girl to draw attention, a horse to draw a cart, a porous plaster to draw the skin, a toper to draw a cork, a free lunch to draw a crowd, and a well displayed advertisement in this paper to draw trade.

—The music committee of the Methodist church, has secured the services of Mr. A. H. Fleming as organist until Mrs. J. E. Malone recovers. They are to be congratulated upon their success, as Mr. Fleming's ability in this capacity is well known among our people.

—Chief D. C. High informs us that he will get the list of delinquent taxpayers ready for publication next week. He also says that he has given everybody fair warning and now as the Board of town Commissioners are after him he will have to close up with the people at once.

—A farmer whose son was an applicant for a position under the government, but had been repeatedly turned down, said: "Well it's hard luck but John has missed that civil service examination again. It looks like they jest won't have him!"

—"What was the trouble?" "Well, he wuz short on spellin, an geograph, and missed purty fur in Mathematics." "What is he going to do about it?" "I duano. Times is mighty hard, an I reckon he'll have ter go back ter teaching school fer a livin!"

—Don't patronize home talent. If you want some one to give a lecture, don't employ any of your own townmen, no matter how well qualified they are; send for some stranger so that you can let him carry your surplus money away with him. Don't patronize home schools; it is not stylish, you know. Send your children off; it will cost you more, but then it is more toney. Patronize all the snide shows that come around. You can use a good deal of your surplus cash in that way. But be sure and do not attend our home entertainments; it might further the interest of your town.

—A wise conducted newspaper is like a banquet, says an exchange. Everything is served up with a view to variety. Help yourself to what you want and do not condemn the entire spread because pickles and onions may be included. If you do not relish them somebody else may find them palatable. Be generous and broad enough to select gracefully such reading matter from newspapers as will be agreeable to your mental taste. You, as an individual, are not compelled to swallow everything. We do not all think alike on every subject and it is a good thing, as it makes more variety and variety is the spice of existence.

—Before listening to the complaint of your children about the general fienidishness of the teachers, and getting all worked up and excited over it it is better to reflect a little. Remember your one or a half dozen cherubs drive you crazy about half the time, and bear with the teacher who is making for you intelligent men and women out of as unpromising raw material as you were twenty or thirty years ago. Remember that besides your boy, who, of course, everybody knows is angel, she has to contend with that awful boy of your neighbor's and you know full well what a terror he is.
