LOCALS.

—His many friends will be glad to learn that Mr. Walter Moore, who is in the hospital at Raleigh, continues to improve.

—Capt. E. J. Cheatham had an exhibition at the S. A. L. Warehouse this week, a very fine Pelican, which he brought from Florida.

—The Odd Fellows met last Friday night and organized a new degree team. The old "goat" having about played out a new one had to be gotten which is up to date, and if you don't believe just join the Odd Fellows.

—E. E. Powell, who shot the chief of Police of Scotland Neck, C. W. Dunn, Messrs E. L. Travis and A. Paul Kitchen in Scotland Neck last week, passed through our city in the custody of the Sheriff of Halifax county en route to Raleigh Sunday where he was being taken to the penitentiary for safe keeping.

—Mrs. William Cannady died at her home near town last Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock after an illness of over two years. She was about 80 years old and was the mother of Mrs. Mary C. Henley and closely related to the Vann's and McShee's here and many others. She was buried at the old Cannady burying ground near Cannady's mill, Monday afternoon. Quite a number of our town people attended the burial services which were conducted by Rev. G. P. Harroll of the Baptist church here.

—Mrs. Bettie Mitchell, wife of Mr. John Westly Mitchell, died at her home near Mt. Carmel church last Tuesday evening about 1 o'clock of paralysis. She was about 75 years old. She was the sister of Mr. Henry May, of Lynchburg, Va., who was in Franklinton when she died, but on account of being sick was unable to attend the funeral, and also Messrs J. C. May and B. C. May, of Franklinton, Mrs. V. C. McShee, of Franklinton. She was a devoted member of Mount Carmel church at which place she was buried by Rev. W. W. Rose, pastor of the Methodist church here, Wednesday afternoon. The following acted as pall-bearers: L. S. Bell, W. C. B. Evans, Louis Timmet, Gland Wright, H. M. Cooke and A. J. Evans.

Margaret Items.

The farmers of this section have taken advantage of the good weather and are getting down to work in earnest.

Mr. P. R. Bunn spent Sunday with friends across the creek.

It was the pleasure of the writer to attend the services at Rock Springs last Sunday. It being the regular appointment was filled by their pastor Rev. L. W. Swope who preached a very able and forceful sermon.

A pair of mules belonging to Mr. W. R. Bunn became frightened on a bridge near Clifton's Mill last Tuesday which resulted in a very painful, but not serious, hurt to one of his mules.

Mrs. J. R. Bunn spent a part of last week visiting her mother Mrs. J. R. Wheeler.

Mrs. S. F. Spruill and daughter, Eva, who have been spending some time with relatives near here, will leave for their home in Asbury Park N. J., next Saturday.

The writer requests that everyone in this section that is interested in the Sunday School work, meet him at Shioh the 4th Sunday in March. Literature for 2nd quarter will be distributed.

Best wishes for your paper and to many readers.

Dixie.

Perry Mills Items.

As I have not seen anything from Perry's Mill in a good while I will send a few words to let you all know we are still alive.

Julian Pearce and family, of Warren, spent the past week with his people near Louisburg.

We are very sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Kate Beddingfield which occurred on last Thursday. She has left us to go and live where no pain or sorrow can enter. The bereaved family have our deepest sympathy.

Miss Lela Pearce is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. G. Edwards at Wake Forest.

We can not boast of very many girls around here but what few there is, are as pretty as can be found anywhere, for they say some of them look like wax dolls.
