TAR DROPS.

—Pave your sidewalk.
 —Are you having the sidewalk in front of your place of business paved?
 —Read the change of ad of Geo. H. Cooper in this issue. It will be of interest to you.

—R. Z. Egerton has a new advertisement in this issue to which we direct your attention;

—Read the change of advertisement of F. W. Wheelless in this issue, if you want clothing.

—W. B. Cooke says he has a lot of drummers samples on hand he is selling at wholesale prices. Read his ad.

—Let every property owner in the business part of town get the "paving fever" and have the sidewalk paved.

—Candler-Crowell Co., will have their millinery opening next Monday and Tuesday. Read their advertisements in this issue.

—B. H. Meadows, who has been with Mr. J. J. Hayes in the livery business for the past several months, has taken a position with J. H. Southall & Co.

—The leading secret societies of our county continue to increase in membership. There is something in a secret organization that strongly appeals to a married man.

—B. G. Hicks is treating his store to a new coat of paint which is adding quite a good deal to the appearance of it. This is a habit it would do well for many of our merchants to catch.

—With the sidewalks all over the business part of town paved Louisburg would present a much better appearance and it would be worth the expense to the merchants to have them paved.

—Information was received here this week that Mr. R. P. Taylor, our townsman, had fallen heir to about $300,000.00. We understand that this was through the death of a wealthy relative in Texas.

—It has always been a mystery to us that a young lady should make some poor fellow believe that she is interested in his welfare when as a matter of fact she is interested only in his farewell.

—From a letter received from Mr. T. W. Watson, this week, we learn that he has moved from Jacksonville, N. C., to Sumter S. C. In this move Mr. Watson has received quite a nice promotion of which his many friends here will be glad to learn.

—A friend at our elbow suggests that the best way to head off the mail order houses is for the local merchants to advertise liberally and get the trade themselves. It does look reasonable. All of the successful mail order houses are heavy advertisers and if they can make it pay why not the local merchant?

—We have residing in the southern suburbs of our town, a young man, who, if reports are true, is wonderfully made. His doctor said he had an iron constitution; his friends said he had nerves of steel; his uncle that he had a wooden head; the girls said he had a heart of stone; his enemies declared that there was more brass to him than anything else; others declared he had lots of sand; while his admirers declared that he was all wool and a yard wide.

—We heard a young man remark last week that, "The world owes me a living." It is hoped, for that young man's good, that he'll get the notion out of his head. It's a mistake, a grave mistake. He never entertained a more foolish idea nor one which will bring him a smaller measure of respect. The world owes the young man nothing; but instead he owes the world and society an active, noble manhood, a steady, honest energy which will enable him to associate with decent men and women in a true manliness of character that will make his friendship valuable and his presence and companionship desired. This young man should contribute to society's happiness and welfare the grace which comes through study, toil and honest thought.

A Big Improvement.

Mr. R. Z. Egerton has converted the Carlisle store into a bower of neatness. A new coat of paint, white wash, and a thorough cleansing has added very much to its former appearance. Removing the counters and altering the shelves has given him a model shoe store which is indeed attractive and city-like in appearance. He is now open and ready for business. Read his advertisement.

COMMISSIONERS SALE

By virtue of an order of sale of the Superior Court of Franklin county made in the special proceedings, entitled Mrs. Kate White, C. T. Cheaves et al vs Julius Tant, Mrs. Rebecca Perry et al, the undersigned commissioners will, on Tuesday the 18th day of October, 1910, at 10 o'clock of the October term of Franklin Superior court, at the noon recess of court, at the court house door in Louisburg, offer for sale to the highest bidder, at public auction, that tract of land known as the Tom Rogers tract in Dumas township, Franklin county, adjoining the lands of J. M. White and others, and bounded as follows: On the north by the lands of J. M. White, on the east by the lands of the estate of Amy Bell, on the south by Crooked Creek and on the west by the land of the estate of A. J. White, containing 64 acres more or less. Terms of sale cash.

This 16th day of September, 1910.
 Wm. H. Ruffin,
 W. M. Person,
 Commissioners.

Which One Do You Belong To

DIED SUDDENLY

The community was shocked yesterday to learn that Mr. J. S. Improvident, while sitting on the porch at his home, died suddenly. No one was with him when he breathed his last. Mr. Improvident was an exemplary citizen, and will be sadly missed in this community where all who knew him admired him for his many manly qualities.

Mr. Improvident leaves a wife and three small children. Unfortunately he had just expressed his intention of taking out a life insurance policy, but neglected it, and his estimable family will be left in almost destitute circumstances. His children are of tender age and the affliction falls heavily upon the widow who is universally esteemed.

DIED SUDDENLY

The community was shocked yesterday to learn that Mr. J. S. Provident, while sitting on the porch at his home, died suddenly. No one was with him when he breathed his last. Mr. Provident was an exemplary citizen, and will be sadly missed in this community where all who knew him admired him for his many manly qualities.

Mr. Provident leaves a wife and three small children. Luckily a few years ago he took a policy in the Blank Life Insurance Company for $5,000 and this neat sum will provide for the grief-stricken widow and fatherless children. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Automobile Speed Limit Ordinance.

The following ordinances were passed by the Board of Town Commissioners at a meeting held on Wednesday morning, September 7th, 1910:

ORDINANCE: Be it ordained that no person shall operate a motor vehicle upon the streets in the town of Louisburg at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to traffic and use of the highways, or so as to endanger life or limb of any person on the streets, between Franklin and the River Bridge, and Spring St. and Church Streets in Louisburg run at a higher rate of speed than six miles an hour, and in no other parts of said town shall not, in any event run at a rate of speed greater than twelve miles an hour. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined Five Dollars for each offence.

ORDINANCE: Be it ordained that no person shall operate a motor vehicle upon the streets of the town of Louisburg in the night time without displaying two white lights in the front of said vehicle, and one red light in rear of same. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction be fined Five Dollars for each offence.

ORDINANCE: Be it ordained that every person operating a motor vehicle upon the streets of the town of Louisburg, shall sound a horn or signal upon approaching a crossing in said streets, and have said motor vehicles under control. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction, be fined Five Dollars for each offence.

ORDINANCE: Be it ordained that any person operating a motor vehicle upon the streets of the town of Louisburg shall, before passing any other vehicle upon said streets from the rear thereof sound a horn or other signal, and pass with due regard to the situation of said other vehicle. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction, be fined Five Dollars for each offence.

Who Invests Your Money

The money you earned last year but let get away from you in "little dribs." Rest assured someone has it invested and is getting the benefit of its earning power. Keeping your dollars working for you means that you and not someone else reaps the full profit of your labor. Why not start an account with us and save part of your earnings—make your own investments? This plan has been profitable to others. It is safe and has other advantages in addition to the amount you accumulate.
