LOCALS.

—Its a fine 10 pound boy and H. O. Ray is wearing smiles.

—Tom Outlaw, colored, who ter forty years has been our street dray-mna, was married last week.

—E. P. Blackley, has taken a position with the McGhee-Jörner Co., and will be glad to see his friends.

—The cool weather the past week has caused a lot of us to come down the street with our hands in our pook-ets.

—The Philathea class of the Baptist-church gave a lawn party for the benefit of the class Friday night in Joyner's Grove, which was very much enjoyed by all present.

—The ginnin' outfit operated last season by Capt. I. H. Kearney and Mr. J. H. Cooke, has been rented by the Farmers Union, who will operate it this season. The outfit is a new one and was bought by them last fall.

—The first new bale of cotton sold on this market this year was sold Wednesday afternoon by Nat Murray, colored. It weighed 460 pounds and brought 13 1-2 cents. S. C. Vann bought the cotton and it was ginned by Green & Powell.

—Sheriff H. A. Kearney, passed through our town yesterday en route to Raleigh with the negro who murdered policeman Stallings, of Spring Hope. Sheriff was in the act of getting off the train to go to Louisburg, when he was handed a telegram to continue his trip to Raleigh.

—His many friends here will regret to hear the following taken from the Raleigh Evening Times: Rev. T. B. Justice, of Benson, N. C., was brought to Rex Hospital today for treatment. Some days ago he was bitten by a mosquito and it seems to have set up blood poison. He was brought to the hospital last night by his son Mr. Geo. B. Justice, assistant labor commissioner.

—One of the most pleasant affairs of the season took place on Saturday evening when a number of friends were entertained at the elegant and spacious home of Mrs. J. H.

May, of Youngsville. Delightful refreshments were served in the dining room which was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The guests at a late hour broke up, hoping that she would entertain again real soon.

—On the night of September, 3rd the Philathea class of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. H. W. Allen, it being the time for the election of new officers. We had a very enthusiastic meeting, the following officers were elected Mrs. H. W. Allen, President, Miss Susie McGhee, Vice President, Miss Bessie Joyner, Secretary, Lottie Evans, assistant secretary, Mrs. J. W. Nowell, Treasurer, Mrs. H. L. May, Reporter.

Personal

Miss Maggie Cooke, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. J. A. Kelly, of Henderson, visited Mrs. L. C. Perie this week.

Mrs. T. P. Barrett and sister, Miss Susie Allen, visited Raleigh Tuesday.

Miss Winston and friend, of Durham, spent last week at R. S. Gnp-ton's.

Mrs. Lucy Person Blake, of Greensboro, is visiting at J. D. Speeds.

L. H. Cutler, Jr., of Nerberne, visited his sister, Mrs. Dr. Winston, last week.

Mrs. W. E. Moss and Miss Wester, of Henderson, visited our town the past week.

Miss Myrtle Holmes, of Durham, is visiting her grandfather, J. H. Cooke, Esq.

Mrs. C. D. Britt and Mrs. A. O. Perry returned from the northern markets Monday.

Mrs. Joe Person, of Charlotte, spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Harris near town.

Sam Person, of Laurel, accompanied by W. P. Montgomery spent a part of Sunday at J. D. Speeds.

Dick Conway, of Franklin, Va.,

Miss Mattie Conway, of Wake Forest, visited their people here this week.

Miss Ruth Finlayson left the past week for Norfolk, where she will attend school. She was accompanied by her father.

Misses Emma Perry, Annie Prutt and Ethel Perry attended the Woman's Missionary Union at Youngsville last week.

Mr. Hayes, of near Louisburg, and Arthur Person, of Louisburg, seem interested in the good roads around Franklinton as both were up here on Sunday.

Miss Mary Fuller Day left for Statesville this week to attend the Woman's College, and Miss Willie Green Day left for the Teachers Training school at Greenville.

Rev. and Mrs. Noblit spent Sunday at the home of Rev. W. W. Rose. Mr. Noblit is pastor at Youngsville and filled the pulpit for Mr. Rose, giving us a fine, practical sermon.

Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Pratt will return to their home in Richmond this week, and Rev. and Mrs. Harrell will spend the winter with Miss Grace Ward. Miss Ward should feel particularly fortunate in sharing her house with this interesting and pleasant couple.

Dr. William Carter Person and charming daughters, Misses Mary Agnes and Millie Carter, of Orlando, Fla., visited last week at the homes of Mr. W. P. Montgomery and Mrs. P. C. Person. Dr. Person is a native of this section, leaving here in the sixties for Mississippi and later settling in Orlando, Fla., where he enjoys an extensive practice as a physician and is now medical director for the Seaboard system. Dr. Person was much impressed with the substantial growth of our little town, and the many improvements since his last visit to this section five years ago.
