LOCALS.

Monday being first Monday quite a number went over to Louisburg.

A 11 pound boy and Sarah, H. L. Strickland is wearing the usual smiles.

Miss Bessie Evans is taken position with Mrs. M. C. Henley and will be glad to have her friends call.

Cotton sold here yesterday for 13 5-8 cts. 13 1-2 has been the ruling price though for the past week. There has been 317 bales sold up to Monday night—this season.

Capt. Kearney wishes us to say to his company that every member is expected to be present next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the first regular drill this month.

Rubber heels seem to be the latest fad among the boys now. They enable a fellow to make so much less noise while leaving his sweethearts house in the "wee" hours.

Mrs. Parker, wife of one of our Missionaries to Cuba, spoke in the Methodist church Sunday night instead of the regular sermon. Mrs. Parker's plea for the Cubans was very strong and should bear good results.

The friends of Rev. T. B. Justice, of Benson, who was bitten by a mosquito a few weeks ago and developed blood poison for which he was taken to Rex Hospital, Raleigh, will be glad to know that he has recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital this week.

Work is progressing very nicely now on the good roads. They are complimented very highly by all who see them too. Our township can boast of as good roads now as any township. The road leading out towards Youngsville we understand will be the next road to be worked and this road will be the first one that will be worked by Youngsville township meeting us at the line between the two townships.

Personal
