

TAR DROPS.

—Register now, don't wait.
 —If you want to vote register.
 —Now for the new court house.
 —Don't let October 29th pass without having registered.
 —Its a bounding boys and Mr. F. W. Hicks is all smiles.
 —Don't forget to register if you want to vote on November 8th.
 —Quite a big number of our people attended the fair at Raleigh the past week.
 —If you haven't registered you had better do so or you may not be able to vote.
 —The Woman's Foreign Mission Society conducted a sale in the Armory on last Saturday.
 —The graded school gave holiday yesterday that the pupils might take in the fair at Raleigh.
 —The work of paving around the court square and the grading of the square was begun this week.
 —If your subscription is due you cannot confer a greater favor on us than to come in and pay up.
 —The concrete sidewalks are making a bigger improvement than could have been imagined, and the work should be continued until it is all over the business part of town.
 —A gentleman from near Kittrell remarked, as he entered town yesterday, to a citizen "you Louisburg folks are coming out, I see you are putting down "granulated" sidewalks."
 —Let your business be represented in the columns of the FRANKLIN TIMES and you will profit thereby. Remember by doing so you can talk to more than five thousand people every week.
 —There is no new registration, but all those who have become of age or who have moved into another township will have to register. If this covers your case you had better register at once.
 —Those old elms on the court yard that have stood the summer winds and wintry blasts for the past seventy-five years, bowed their heads in shame and fell to the earth yesterday when "Mary Ann" made his appearance in town.

"Polly of the Circus."

It is not often that we are tempted to find fault with a producer of plays for being too generous, but that is the kind of play producer Frederic Thompson happens to be. He wants to give too much for the money. As a result of his extravagance he has made "Polly of the Circus" a case of "Polly" and the circus. There are not many people who will object to this however. There may be some who will agree with us that Polly is so much more interesting and so much more important to the little drama of which she is a part than a hundred circuses could ever be that the show scene should be eliminated. But probably there will be as many more who will enjoy the sight of a real lady bareback rider turning somersaults off the back of a real horse ambling patiently around the inside of a real ring and keeping time to the oom-oah horn of a real circus tune. It is not often playgoers object to being offered too much entertainment, even though the extra measure proves a clear case of assault and battery with a poor old drama as victim. "Polly of the Circus" is a pretty, appealing story of hearts of the tried and true type, until the circus happens into it, then we have a three ring circus in full operation on the stage.
 Among the many features of this play, "Polly of the Circus," which will be seen at Grand Theatre, Henderson, N. C., on Oct. 24th, Monday night is "Little Hip," the educated elephant that performs stunts unheard of for the amusement of old and young; Barlow's dog and pony circus, and "Bingo," the celebrated thoroughbred Arabian horse; also clowns, acrobats, bareback riders, ringmasters aerial and horizontal bar acts.
 This is the same production that appeared at the Liberty Theatre New York, for one solid year.

Important.

After careful investigation and inquiry The TIMES made arrangements to publish a Tobacco and Trade edition which is to receive wide distribution to the homes of the people in the villages and on the farms for miles in every direction.
 In the investigation of the subject, preliminary to completing arrangements. The TIMES found that such editions had been issued from many of the towns of the State and in each and every instance the business men of every one of them gave their hearty, and substantial co-operation and the result was a class of work that reflected the public spirit and enterprise that prevailed in those cities and towns and which are the very essence of upbuilding and development.

The work of compiling and publishing a Tobacco and Trade edition is too big for one man, or for any group of men, to undertake it.

It appeals to all and singular of the business men of the community, for the more the advantages and popularity of Louisiana is proclaimed as a tobacco market and trade center the greater will be results to every one engaged in business, more or less, according to his facilities to supply the needs of the people.

On the other hand, if such an edition is supported in an indifferent or half hearted manner it reflects these very qualities, or better still lack of appreciation for any attempt to achieve results on a broad plane, and all because there is a cost attached—a cost which is minimized by co-operation and is only, after all, a trifling outlay in view of the wide publicity each business secures. Here, as elsewhere throughout the country, the TIMES Tobacco and Trade edition will receive the support and co-operation of the liberal minded and progressive, for they believe that publicity and enterprise work hand in hand to secure the greatest possible results, and for this reason such an edition, as is proposed, appeals at once to them.

So, see to it that your business is represented, for the preparation of such an edition is all work and those behind it eat no idle bread. It ought, therefore, be representative of Louisiana and its trade advantages and when published and distributed to the thousands of homes the credit will belong to those whose co-operation was generously forthcoming at the mere mention of the proposition and its purposes.

No Court Next Week.

We are requested by Clerk of the Court, J. J. Barrow to state that there will be no court held in Louisiana next week—the court having been adjourned sine die. The jurors for the second week of the October term need not attend as there will be no court.

Marion Butler Speaks.

On Tuesday morning "Mary Ann" Butler delivered his regular abusive speech here in the opera house to a very small number of listeners, although there were Republicans here from Vance, Nash and other counties. His talk was one that the average man, even Republicans, do not like to hear and the absence of applause showed their silent contempt for his many abusive remarks and especially when he attacked our worthy and highly honored townsman, Hon. T. W. Bickett, Attorney-General. He admitted his identity with the South Dakota bond case and failed to show the people that he was not connected with the carpet bag bond scandal now so prominent all over the State. There is no doubt but that his speech here made many Democratic votes for the 8th of November. They had the Harriet Cotton Mills band of Henderson, whose music was practically all the attraction of the day.

TAX PAYERS Take Notice

The tax books of the town of Louisiana for the year 1910 have been turned over to me for collection of the taxes thereon. See me at once and settle same and save yourself and myself any unnecessary trouble. Remember I am instructed to make these collections at once. This Oct. 19th, 1910.

HARTS WAREHOUSE
LOUISBURG, N. C.

October 14th—Prices reached high water mark for tobacco at Harts Warehouse this week, all grades from the lowest up to the highest are now selling higher than at any previous time for a number of years. Our advice is to market your tobacco as fast as you can, as there is never a better time to sell than when prices are high. I am not paying, or asking you to pay a lot of drummers to tell you where to sell your tobacco, or to persuade you to sell it where you do not want to, but as a matter of business will guarantee to put more dollars and cents in your pocket for your tobacco than any other warehouseman in North Carolina—quality considered. Get you a piece of paper and pencil and see if you can count up how many men have been to see you for the past week, trying to persuade you to carry your tobacco to them and if not trying to but your tobacco at home, what does this mean? Just this, tobacco has gone up, and they think perhaps you are not wise to the fact. Just remember this, that J. R. Collie at Harts Warehouse sells it higher and treats you better.

Keep What You Reap

Good crops are of no lasting benefit if you spend every year all that they bring you. Make your successful harvest do more than merely enable you to live till the next one. Bank your proceeds, check out as your needs require and see to it that there is a surplus remaining at the end of a year's time—a clear profit from the business.

THIS BANK WILL KEEP YOUR MONEY SAFE

Give you every consistent accommodation and co-operate with you in every way possible to make your farm investment pay greater dividends than it has ever done before.
