Ned Ford Ben Williamson Chas. Johnson

Castalia Items.

I. C. Braswell, one of our most successful farmers and hog raisers tells the writer he has eleven head of shoats ready to kill that will make him nearly 4,000 pounds of pork.

Dr. Highsmith, of the faculty of Wake Forest College, will deliver an address on the 24th at night. He is an orator of the first magnitude and a rich feast is in store for all who may hear this scholarly gentleman.

S. J. Bartholomew is placing four or five hundred cords of dogwood at his steam plant, and about the first of the new year will begin to manufacture shuttles on a big scale.

Willie Braswell went up to Oxford some days ago and claimed for his bride Miss Tassie Howard. Mr. Braswell is a young and industrious planter and his many friends wish the happy pair a long life, full of joy.

Lewis Blackwell is erecting a nice residence upon a pretty site here. When completed it will add much to that portion of our village.

E. S. Ford, of Louisburg, has purchased a fine location here, and will soon begin suitable buildings for a buggy, harness and live stock business, which he expects to open up here the first of next year.

S. J. Bartholomew and family went over to Wake Forest to spend Sunday with their son, Russell, who is attending school there. They were highly pleased with the good roads in Franklin and Wake counties.

On Thanksgiving the ladies will have a bazaar at the dormitory for the purpose of equipping the school building. There will be served oysters and other delicacies. Come out and help a good cause.

PLAIN TOM.

Will Be Here Wednesday 23rd.

See Dr. Rapport at the Louisburg Hotel, Wed. Nov. 23rd, if you wish to have your eyes examined and glasses adjusted. He guarantees his work and his prices are reasonable.

Samples of Laces and Embroideries are Now Displayed in my Window

Just received 18 new coat suits. To prove my prices on coat suits are $1.50 to $5.00 less than you buy elsewhere. I will send garments to your home for comparison, letting you be the judge. Don't fail to see this new lot. A big cut in the price of jackets this week.

To make the entire week lively I have decided to make special reductions as follows:

50c silk finished mohair 37c per yard, all colors. $4 silk petticoats $2.39 $5 silk petticoats $3.89. $1.50 Hyde-good petticoats $1.15. $1.25 petticoats 95c. $1.50 french kid 2 clasp gloves 95c. 12 1-2c curtain swiss 10c. Everything in ladies and children underwear, all wool, half wool and fine grade of cotton. Note the prices.

SHOES SHOES

Almost daily arrivals of shoes and yet I can hardly keep in numbers. Five large orders gone to Godman already, others to follow, I want this fact to sink in, that I am selling more shoes than any house in Louisburg.

The one and only reason that makes this a fact is I sell better shoes at less price, knowing what to buy, where to buy and no expense in selling. If you desire further proof let me show you.
