PHOTOGRAPHS.

—Nearly everybody gave thanks yesterday.

—Don't drop the "hospital for Louisburg."

—Help the Chamber of Commerce and it will help you.

—Right many of our people went to Richmond yesterday.

—Only thirty days to Christmas, but each one will be a month to the little ones.

—The slogan of the Louisburg Chamber of Commerce is "to start something."

—Old Santa Claus seems to be a little early in his visit to F. R. Pleasants drug store.

—Just think, today one week will be December 2nd. What about your new year pledges?

—Quite a number of our people took advantage of the excursion to Norfolk yesterday.

—Mr. Chamber of Commerce what about some manufacturing enterprises for Louisburg?

—Majestic Range Demonstration at McKinné Bros. Co. next week. Read their advertisement.

—Right many of our merchants and clerks spent yesterday hunting. They report right much sport.

—The schools in Louisburg all observed Thanksgiving day yesterday and the children seemed to be thankful.

—Read the change of advertisement of W. B. Cooke in this issue. He has just received a lot of samples.

—Practically all business was suspended here yesterday in order that the clerks and all others could give thanks.

—L. T. Horton has opened a machine shop and plumbers establishment under the Ford warehouse on Nash street.

—We again extend our subscribers, who are in arrears, an invitation to pay up as the banks say we must "ant" up or quit.

—K. P. Hill left Sunday for St. Louis, where he will buy a lot of fine horses. LATER—He shipped two car loads yesterday.

—You are invited to attend the opening of Christmas toys at the Racket Store next week. Read their advertisement.

—W. D. Fuller informs us that he killed a hog Monday, nine months and twenty-seven days old, that weighed 387 pounds.

—The attention of the readers of the Times is called to the change of ad of the Racket store in this issue it contains something of interest to you.

—The new store rooms on Nash street of D. C. and R. H. Strickland are about completed and they present a very neat and pretty appearance.

—J. P. Winston has about completed his new building on Nash street and the new rooms are being occupied by J. S. Howell, and E. A. Rogers.

—He who does not contribute toward the support of his church and borrows his neighbors newspaper has a very slim chance of getting to heaven.

—Our subscribers seem to have forgotten, this year, that we like Turkey for our Thanksgiving dinner. We hope it will not be repeated on Christmas.

—Griffin & Beasley are busy making the excavations for their building on River street, and at the same time are leveling up their lot on Main street in front of their stables.

—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of McKinné Bros. Co., in this issue of the big Majestic Range Demonstration that will take place in their store next week.

—We went to press this week a few hours earlier in order to give our force a little time in which to give thanks. We hope our patrons will be as thankful of our services in trying to please them as we are of their patronage.

—Let the Chamber of Commerce take up the subject of having a clock placed in the court house steeple. This will be no unnecessary expense in the fact that it can be purchased so that it will be alright for the new court house, when it comes.

—In making your selections for Christmas presents don't forget that one of the best things you can find is a years subscription to the FRANKLIN TIMES—it will remind the recipient of your thoughtfulness fifty-two times in each year, and the cost is only $1.00.

—The tax-payers of Louisburg are requested to read the change of advertisement of D. C. High in this issue. He has been ordered to make collection of all the taxes immediately and hopes that everybody will pay up before it becomes necessary for him to resort to means which will bring more costs and trouble.

—Those who live in the easiest and pleasiest are often singularly forgetful of grateful ascription to the source of blessings. Thanksgiving day was not instituted by a people surrounded by comforts and luxuries, but who turned their hearts to God in the midst of hardships of which their descendants scarcely comprehend the meaning.

—Let us be thankful that we live in times of peace and prosperity. Let us be thankful that we have homes with husbands and children to love and love us. Let us be thankful for the comforts of life. Let us be thankful for work, and that we have the health and strength and desire to do our work gladly. Let us cultivate a spirit of gentleness, of graciousness, of brightness and gladness and wisdom that will make all about us thankful that we are alive.

Toy Land.

Mrs. A. M. Hall invites the public to be present at the grand opening of Christmas Presents under the Racket Store next Tuesday night.
