CRUDE THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITORIAL PEN

HOLD ON, BOYS.

Hold on to your tongue when you are just ready to swear, lie or speak harshly, or use an improper word.

Hold on to your hand when you are about to punch, strike, scratch, steal or do any improper act.

Hold on to your foot when you are on the point of kicking, running off from study, or pursuing the path of error, shame or crime.

Hold on to your temper when you are angry, excited, or imposed upon, or others are angry with you.

Hold on to your heart when evil associates seek your company and invite you to join in their mirth, games and revelry.

Hold on to your good name, for it is of more value than gold, high places of fashionable attire.

Hold on to the truth, for it will serve you well and do you good throughout eternity.

Hold on to virtue—it is above all price to you in all times and places.

Hold on to your good character, for it is, and ever will be your best wealth.

It can choke itself black in the face with greater ease than the most accomplished wretch that ever was executed.

It can keep a family in a constant turmoil from morn till night and from night till morning, without once varying its tune.

It can be relied upon to sleep peacefully all day when its father is down town and cry persistently at night when he is particularly sleepy.

It may be the naughtiest dirtiest, ugliest, most fretful baby in all the world, but you can never make its mother believe it, and you had better not try it.

It can be a charming and a model infant when no one is around, but when visitors are present it can exhibit more bad temper than both of its parents together.

It can brighten up a house better than all the furniture ever made; make sweeter music than the finest orchestra organized; fill a larger place in its parents' breast than they knew they had, and when it goes away it can cause a greater vacancy and leave a greater blank than all the rest of the world put together.

HOW TO GET RICH.

Live up to your engagement. Earn money before you spend it. Never play at any game of chance.

Drink no kind of intoxicating liquor.

Good character is above all things else.

Keep your own secrets, if you have any.

Never borrow if you can possibly avoid it.

Always speak the truth. Make few promises.

Keep good company or none. Never be idle.

Do not marry until you are able to support a wife.

Keep yourself innocent if you would be happy.

Ever live (misfortune excepted) within your income.

When you speak to a person look him in the face.

Make no haste to be rich if you would prosper.

Save what you are going to spend when you are old.

Avoid temptation through fear you may not withstand it.

Never speak evil of any one. Be just before you are generous.

Never run into debt without you see plainly a way to get out again.

Small and steady gains give competency with tranquility of mind.

Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue.

Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts.

If any one speaks evil of you let your life be so that none will believe him.

When you retire to bed think over what you have been doing during the day.

If your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind.

Sometimes one has more flowers piled on his coffin and grave than he ever had given to him in all his life.

We want our flowers while we are living. The dead are past all that.

If we would do good let us do it while we are living to those who are living.

Carolina Realty & Auction Co., Greensboro, N. C., will sell the old Dink Perry home place at Needmore, N. C., Dec. 21st, Wednesday at 11 A. M. for every body.
