THE HEALTH OF YOURSELF AND FAMILY

Pope's Herb is prepared to protect a dependable household from the effects of insidious iron-ore poisoning... It is a purely Herbs, Barks and Roots Compound. It is put up in chocolate coated tablets pleasing and easy to take, (or can be dissolved in water.)

Mrs. J. C. Meade of Haysville, Mo. says: "For years I have suffered with Backache, Headaches, Neuralgia, and Nervousness and extreme fatigue. I tried many remedies without relief. Four months ago a grateful friend induced me to write to Pope Medicine Co. Washington, D. C. for a box of Pope's Herb Compound Tablets. The very first dose of two tablets gave me relief. I used not quite a $1.00 box and I am entirely cured of the pain in my back and have no more headache."

Dr. J. V. Hennessy, a prominent Physician and Surgeon of Albany, N. Y. in part says:

"As a Blood Purifier, Liver, Kidney and System regulator, I prescribe Pope Medicine Co's of Washington, D. C. Herb Compound as I have done for the past 20 years, and I have found it to be a great remedy, which seldom if ever fails. There are thousands of letters from users of Pope's Herbs, that have been benefitted and cured by its proper use. Pope's Herb Compound Tablets are put up 200 in a box, 'six month's treatment,' and will be sent post-paid on receipt of $1.00. Each box contains a printed guarantee, binding us to refund the purchase price if the remedy fails to benefit, also full directions."

Webster's NEW INTERNATIONAL Dictionary, (G. & C. Merriam Co., Springfield, Mass.) surpasses the old International as much as that book exceeded its predecessor. On the old foundation a new superstructure has been built. The reconstruction has been carried on through many years by a large force of trained workers, under the supervision of Dr. W. T. Harris, former United States Commissioner of Education, and reinforced by many eminent specialists. The definitions have been rearranged and amplified. The number of terms defined has been more than doubled. The etymology, synonyms, pronunciation, have received unsparing scholarly labor. The language of English literature for over seven centuries, the terminology of the arts and sciences, and the every-day speech of street, shop, and household, are presented with fullness and clearness. In size of vocabulary, in richness of general information, and in convenience of consultation, the book sets a new mark in lexicography.

Woman Past Help.

Chandler, Okla.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Ella Flowers says, "I hardly know how to thank you for the good that Cardui has done me. Before I tried Cardui, I thought I was past help, but after taking it, I was relieved at once, and gained at least 10 pounds. Everybody says I look so much better. I am still improving greatly." Many women are completely worn-out and discouraged, on account of womanly weakness. Are you? Have you not tried Cardui? It only needs a few doses to convince you that Cardui is just what you need. Try it today. It will cure your pains.

E. church, spoke the impressive words of the marriage service in the presence of a small company of near relatives. The house was prettily decorated with Christmas holly and other suggestions of the holiday season, with pink and white carnations and roses in the dining room and throughout the rooms, suggesting the bridal colors. After congratulations had been extended, an elaborate four course breakfast was served at one long table in the dining room, which had a beautiful centerpiece of roses and carnations, Miss Ina Jacob, cousin of the bride, had charge of the serving.

The bride, who has lived all her life in Black Hawk county and most of the time in Waterloo, is a graduate of the East Waterloo high school and of the Waterloo Business college, and for the past seven years has held a responsible position with the Litchfield Manufacturing company. She has been an active member of the Methodist church, and for several years has been much interested in Chautauqua work, having graduated from the course and having continued her studies for the past two years as a member of the Orion class. She is a young woman who has won a host of warm friends because of her womanly graces and the many traits of character which commend her as an ideal homemaker.

She was married in a pretty gown of white and her traveling suit was a gray tailor made with hat and gloves to match. The groom is a former resident of this county, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Christopher, having lived here for many years until they moved to Armstrong ten years ago. Dr. Christopher is a graduate of leading veterinary colleges of Chicago and Toronto, Can., and now holds an important position with the national bureau of husbandry, being U. S. veterinary inspector with headquarters at Raleigh, N. C. He is a young man worthy in every way the bride he has won. Many beautiful wedding presents attest the good will of their many friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Christooper left at 10 o'clock over the Illinois Central for an extended wedding trip through the east, after which they will go to Raleigh, N. C., to make their future home.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Christopher of Armstrong, parents of the groom; Miss May Christopher of Cherokee, the groom's sister, and DeWitt Gibbs of Hyannis, Neb., brother of the bride.—Waterloo Evening Courier, Iowa—Dec. 21
