INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

TAR DROPS.

—If you want your business to profit you, advertise.

—We would be glad to hear from Youngville and Schloss correspondents.

—H. C. Taylor has put up a gasoline tank in front of his shop on on Nash street.

—The ground hog prophecy has proven in good faith for the larger part of the past week.

—Who said baseball? We extend the use of our columns for the purpose of a call to perfect an organization.

—If you don't take the FRANKLIN TIMES we want you to take it. Be one of the 2000 satisfied subscribers in the county.

—There are quite a number of changes of advertisements in this issue that will be of great interest to you to read. Look them up.

—Every farmer in Franklin county should read the advertisement on the fourth page of the Job Department of this office, about printed stationery. Read it and let us hear from you at once.

—The W. E. White Furniture Company is moving its stock of furniture, coffins, caskets etc., to their new quarters on Main street. Since the remodeling of their new building it presents quite a neat and attractive appearance.

—The fourteenth of February is a day sacred to St. Valentine! It was a very odd notion, alluded to by Shakespeare that on this day birds begin to couple; hence, perhaps arose the custom of sending on this day letters containing professions of love and affection.

—We are requested to state that a regular meeting of the Woodmen of the World will be held in its Forest on Tuesday night, February 14th, 1911, at 7:30 o'clock promptly. All members are especially urged to be present as business of importance will come before the order.

—The Bright Jewel Band of the Methodist church, assisted by some of the College teachers, will give a dime concert in the College Chapel Monday evening, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. Let everybody attend, help the children and enjoy a pleasant evening as well.

—Valentines are provided for all. Like the rain, they may descend upon the just and upon the unjust. They are to be found in every style and every variety. Beautiful valentine souvenir spoons are seen and they are out of the ordinary run of spoons, in that the end of the handle is in the form of a cupid and cupids chase each other around the twisted wire of which the handle is formed.

—We have received several lots of items this week that found their way to the waste basket on account of not having the name of the writer enclosed. We are very anxious for a good correspondent in each part of the county, but we are necessarily compelled to insist on this rule being carried out. If any news happens in your section write us but don't forget to write your name on a piece of paper and put in the letter.

—In sending valentine mementos, the dear girls prefer to disguise their handwriting, because a valentine gift is a love gift, and no mistake about it. And so, with papa's stub pen in hand and one of Jack's big plain envelopes, they direct the little token which carries with it the pretty little message which no man, who is a man at all, would misconstrue or take advantage of.

—Do not, then, despise the little bit of sentiment which prompts people to remember each other on Valentine's day, because of all the festivals of the year it is the one which plays most sweetly upon the heart-strings of all. In the postoffice one sees many a maiden and many a matron, many a young man and many a banker stopping for a moment in front of the parcel window to drop in a package, all too precious to be entrusted to the careless hands of messenger and office boys.

Alex Burnette Dead.

The remains of Mr. Alex Burnette, who died in Florida one day last week, was brought here for interment on Saturday.

A Lorimer Lobby.

Senator Cummins' strong hint to the United States Senate that a Lorimer "lobby" was dogging the footsteps of senators to secure a verdict in favor of the "blonde boss" regardless of evidence is seen by his significant remarks in the Senate when he said:

"I not only agree in the lofty sentiment that excludes from our consideration the opinion of the people and the comments of the press, but I broaden it, so that it will include all the influences which have been aroused in this unfortunate controversy, for there are other voices than those of the general public and from the newspapers which are quite as insistent, and sometimes infinitely more powerful, and which at times are heard about the Capitol."

Bill Nye Memorial.

We are publishing below a letter from Supt J. Y. Joyner to the County Superintendents, Professors and school teachers urging them to take a part in this work. It is a most noble and glorious work and everybody should be more than glad to take a part. The letter follows:

TO THE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS:

February 1, 1911.

The public press of North Carolina has always responded generously and unselfishly to every call of the public schools for service, and no agency has been more potent in promoting the development of these schools and the progress of education in the State. The county superintendents and the public school teachers now have an opportunity to express their appreciation of this service, and to render at the same time a valuable service to a most worthy cause by co-operating heartily with the "Bill Nye Memorial Committee" in their commendable effort to raise funds for the erection of a central or main building at the "Stonewall Jackson Manual Training School," to be known as the "Bill Nye Memorial Building."

The committee has prepared an interesting program for the celebration of Bill Nye Day in the public schools. An hour devoted to honoring the memory of such a man, who loved all children and all men, who devoted his splendid talents to making them happier and better through his writings, will be properly and profitably spent.

I earnestly request and urge the county superintendent of each county to distribute these programs to the public school teachers of the county, accompanied by a letter to each teacher, directing the setting apart of an hour in the school for this celebration, and urging the hearty co-operation of the teacher for the success of the celebration.

The noble work of the Stonewall Jackson Training School and giving wayward boys of the State a chance to have a chance to be trained into good citizens should appeal strongly to the hearts of the children of the public schools, who but for the mercy of God might be like these wayward boys. It is a privilege, therefore, for these children to have an opportunity to make a contribution to such a work. It will do them good. I earnestly urge, therefore, that county superintendents and teachers lend their hearty co-operation in securing at least a penny contribution from every child in the public schools for the erection of the Bill Nye Memorial Building for increasing the facilities at the State's school for training wayward boys.

I designate Wednesday, the 22nd day of February, for this celebration. I suggest that the teacher devote an hour on this day to reading to the pupils this booklet and to arousing an enthusiastic interest in Bill Nye and his work and in the work of the Stonewall Jackson Training School, concluding the exercises with an earnest appeal for a contribution of at least one penny from every child, to be brought next morning.

All contributions should be forwarded by the teacher or the principal of the school to Mr. R. W. Vincent, secretary of the Bill Nye Memorial Committee, Charlotte, N. C., and they will be acknowledged in the columns of the Charlotte Observer.

Very truly yours,
J. Y. JOYNER,
Supt. Public Instruction.

Old Lady's Sage Advice.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Mrs. Mamie Towe, of 102 W. Main Street, this city, says: "If you had seen me, before I began to take Cardui, you would not think I was the same person. Six doctors failed to do me good, and my friends thought I would die. I could hardly get out of bed or walk a step. At last an old lady advised me to take Cardui, and now I can go 'most anywhere." All ailing women need Cardui, as a gentle, refreshing tonic, especially adapted to their peculiar ailments. It is a reliable, vegetable remedy, successfully used for over 50 years. You ought to try it.
