

A Scene From St. ELMO.

From Schloss

DEAR MR. EDITOR:

I notice in your last paper that you would like to hear from Youngsville and Schloss. Your regular correspondent here has become so irregular that I must try to respond with a few notes, even if I have to give you more of the "Schloss Slush" as he calls. The fact is we are too busy down here to read the papers as we should to say nothing of writing for them. Besides, what to write about is a most perplexing problem, as local items of interest are as scarce as loafers in the busy month of June.

I hear the whistle of the railroad engine near by. The Greenleaf Johnson Lumber Co., are grading a road near the Burt place for handling the lumber in that territory. They are also operating in the Shoccoe neighborhood.

Good roads may be of perennial interest to those who have and enjoy them, but there is little pleasure or interest in such as we have. We all want to get sometimes—and get back too, but when we go out from this "pint" we hardly know whether we will get back or not. The other fellow is always a little worse off than we are. While our roads are bad enough, those of our good neighbors to the north of us are ever worse, that is some of them. But this is not saying that there are no good roads in Warren. It has some very good ones. I think some of us would really be willing to take passage through the air if we had a sailing machine. The good roads movement may move this way sometime. It would save time and give pleasure to the traveler, and save thousands of dollars in prolonging the usefulness and service of vehicles and animals, besides showing mercy to the latter, if we had better highways.

Miss Jennie Alston, the popular teacher of the Schloss school, is doing excellent work in the performance of her duties for the younger generation, without the use of the black gum sprout or the hickory twig. I do not intimate that Miss Jennie would not wield them if necessary, but her scholars are all so fond of going to school to her that I think they must be too good to need "sprouting."

Mr. H. P. Speed, our carrier, found the roads rather rough for his business last week, but not too bad to make his trips. Not having an air ship or mud dredger at his command, he dispensed with his cab and distributed the mail astride a mule.

Mr. Al Alston, of Airlie, arrived Monday to spend a few days with his relatives and friends.

Colds, mild cases of grippe, chicken pox, etc., are more frequent than usual, it seems, down this way, but there are no serious cases of sickness that I have heard of. Our neighborhood will compare favorably with others as to healthfulness. Dr. J. B. Williams, our popular physician, is quite busy making professional calls. The doctor is well-known and well-liked by all.

Our little friends William Thorne Alston and Elizabeth Manning were kept at home last week on account of sickness—very much against their will, as they did not like the idea of having to miss school. I believe young children are more fond of going to school these days than they were when I was a "chap."

The school house has been handsomely painted and looks mighty pretty.

[The above items were intended for last week but were received to late—Editor.]

Rock Springs Items.

Our Sunday School Supt. Mr. H. A. Strickland visited Cypress last Sunday. He was greatly missed at Rock Spring.

Mrs. J. N. Harris spent a few days with Mrs. J. C. Matthews in Spring Hope the past week.

Ellis Strickland spent last Saturday and Sunday near Wakefield.

Fenner Spirey and sister Mrs. C. H. Wheeler gave a party at her home last Friday night. A large crowd attended. After many games were played, candy was served. All report a very nice time.

Misses Ina and Mollie Strickland visited Mrs. J. C. Matthews and Mrs. Spencer Weathersby in Spring Hope the past week.

One of the Bann boys filled his regular appointment at Rock Spring last Sunday.

Miss Velle Harris spent a few days with Misses Ina and Mollie Strickland last week.

We have changed our preaching from the first and third Sundays to the second and fourth.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. S. S. Strickland is on the sick list, but hope she will soon be out again. Best wishes to the TIMES.

TROUBLED HEART.

Mrs. John Drew Better.

McLeansboro, Ill.—"About five years ago," says Mrs. John L. Drew, of this place, "I was afflicted with pains and irregularity every month. I suffered continually was weak and despondent, and unable to do my housework. I took Cardui, and in one month, I felt like a new woman and worked hard all summer. I am now in perfect health, and recommend Cardui to all suffering women." Every day during the past 50 years, Cardui has been steadily forging ahead as a result of its proven value in female troubles. It relieves headache, backache, womanly misery and puts fresh strength into weary bodies. Try it.
