

"MY BLOOD IN FINE CONDITION"

Every sufferer from Blood Poison should read what Mrs. J. C. Meade of Weldon, N. C., says of her experience: "I was a terrible sufferer from Blood Poison. My skin would be broken, the flesh would become inflamed, itch and burn, and develop into sores. Before the birth of one of my children, my whole body became fearfully swollen, and I was in a serious condition generally. I used Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and it cured me. My blood is in fine condition. I believe if it had not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, I would have died. Its value is priceless."

A very bad case of Blood Poison was said. "In the days of Moses it was and never were truer words spoken. This vital fluid is the essence of life and health, and when it becomes impure, impoverished or poisoned, the result is debility, weakness, loss of vitality, energy and life. Without good blood, good health is impossible."

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY

is a sure specific for all troubles due to impure, impoverished and poisoned blood, such as Eczema, Old Sores, Scrofula and the long train of attendant ailments, including Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Stomach Troubles, Nervousness, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Female Troubles, and general "down" conditions in both men and women. It feeds the blood, drives out every vestige of poison, tones up the nervous system, induces sound and refreshing sleep, and brings the entire body back to its natural healthy condition.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy is a scientifically prepared from purely vegetable ingredients. It positively contains no opiate or narcotic of any kind, no chloride of Potassium or other mineral—just a compound of helpful herbs, nature's own remedy for human ills.

As a Tonic, Alterative, Blood Purifier or Nervine, it has no equal. It quickly conquers Nervous Prostration and Insomnia. We don't care how many doctors have said you couldn't be cured. Write today and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will cure you if you will only give it a chance. CRUDE THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITORIAL PEN

It is a pity that the hurrying world cannot realize more that there is something ennobling to the frank and untailing expression of the tender sentiments which stir the mind and heart—that the kindly word and the obsequious of the hand is like a draught of water to a thirsty soul or the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. It would redouble our joys and minimize our sorrows and scatter flowers along the highway like the footfall of the spring.

You will never have a friend if you must have one without a fault.

A woman without religion is like a flower without perfume.

It is one of the paradoxes of life that the more a woman keeps her husband in hot water the colder he grows toward her.

A man will spend $25 to buy out flowers for his dead wife's coffin, when if he had spent twenty five cents for a bunch of flowers for her when she was alive, she would have fainted. You wait until she is dead and then get some preacher to tell how good she was.

So far as possible, let all women dress beautifully; so God dresses the meadows and mountains. Let them wear pearls and diamonds, if they can afford it. God hung around the neck of his world strings of diamonds and braided the black locks of the storm with the bright ribbons of the rainbow.

Don't repress the buoyant spirit of your children; halt an hour of merriment around the lamp and firelight of a home blots out many a care and annoyance during the day, and the best safe-guard they can take with them into the world is the unseen influence of a bright little domestic circle.

Speak kindly in the morning; it lightens the cares of the day, and makes the household and all its affairs move along smoothly. Speak kindly at night, for it may be before dawn some loved one may finish his or her space of life in this world, and it will be too late to ask forgiveness.

We are often very much impressed by the woman who is doing a great and grand work for humanity, but the one who retains our respect is the true wife and mother, who presides over her home and children with a heart and head, demonstrating kindness and ability, which puts the blush on the public life.

Let the parents the father as well as the mother, impress upon young daughters, whether they are in the country school house or college, that the true woman's sphere is in the home, and the great business and educational world that have thrown wide open the doors for woman does not detract one iota from the importance of her sphere.

Put home first and foremost; for there will come a time when the home circle will be broken, when you long for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still; and when your greatest pleasure will be in remembering that you did all in your power to put a son under every burden, to make each other happy.

A kind word costs but little, but it may bless all day the one to whom it is spoken. Nay, have not kind words been spoken to you which have lived in your heart through years, and borne fruit of joy and hope? Let us speak kindly to one another. We have burdens and worries, but let us not, therefore, rasp and irritate those near us, those we love, those whom Christ would have us save.

It is when the sun has gone down that the home influences become actual and potent. In opening the tender buds of young characters, the light from the hearthstone is far more efficient than the sunlight. The distinctive characteristics of the home life are manifested most strongly when the labors of the day are ended and the family gather round the fireside for the evening. One hour of evening homelife is worth a month of the ordinary daily experience.

Our country needs grand and good men, and to become a grand and good man, one must be a grand and good boy. It is a wrong idea that every boy must "sow his wild oats." When you sow a crop of wild oats, you must take time to harvest a crop; and the crop is never anything but chaff. "Wild oats" need never be sown. The time spent in sowing wild oats is worse than lost, for the time could be spent in sowing a crop that would yield a golden harvest. Be careful about the kind of seed you sow, for "whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap."

We ought to consider home and all the members of the household as entitled to the first consideration in all things. What are those we meet in society to us that we should take such pains to be agreeable to them and neglect those who have the strongest claim upon us? It all comes about because we have got into a wrong way of thinking. We have put the home into the background when it should occupy the foremost place in our thoughts. We should strive to make ourselves such pleasant members of the household band that our absence is like the loss of the sunshine from a summer day. We can do it and we will do it if we enter into the right spirit—the spirit of home.
