TAR DROPS.

—List your taxes today if you haven't already done so.

—Remember that tomorrow is your last day for listing your taxes.

—The man who wants to roll up a fortune must first learn to roll up his sleeves.

—Read the change of advertisement of Mrs. A. M. Hall in this issue. It will be to your interest.

—After tomorrow the tax lists will close their books, and in order to save yourself trouble you had better attend to this at once.

—We are requested to state that there will be children's day exercises at Piney Grove church on Sunday, June 18th. The public is cordially invited.

—The man who expects to get to heaven ought to pay his subscription for the local paper and not tempt the poor mortal of an editor to swear. Honesty counts with St. Peter.

—The many friends of Mrs. Jno. W. King will be glad to learn that a telegram has been received from Richmond stating that she underwent a successful operation and is doing well.

—Moving once or several times each year, as is the custom of some that we know, may give the household a good and needed airing, but it is a costly amusement. Don't move unless you have a mighty good reason for doing so.

—Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Saloon-Smasher, died at Leavenworth, Kan., June 9th. Mrs. Nation made herself conspicuous in many cities by entering saloons and resorts and delivering talks on the evils of drinking. She met death with a smile on her "mug."

—The Seaboard Air Line Railway will operate its first excursion of the season to Norfolk on Tuesday, June 20th, 1911. This will be a two days and two nights trip and will be enjoyed by a large number. The round trip fare from Louisburg and Youngsville is $3, Franklinton $2.75.

—The Rural Free Delivery carriers of Franklin County will hold a meeting in the court house at Louisburg on Saturday, June 17th, at 4 o'clock for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention at Winston-Salem on July 4th. All carriers and substitutes in the county are especially urged to attend.

—My young lady reader, if you are looking for your prince, just test his home conduct before you accept him. Don't be guided in your choice by what a young man is in your parlor; find out what he is in his mother's sitting room; Don't judge him by how he can dance, or turn a compliment, or tip his hat, or carry your small bundle; find out how agile he is to do a service for his old maid aunt, or how he speaks to the women-folks when his collars are not laundered to suit him.

A very delightful and enjoyed moon light picnic and fish fry was given last Tuesday night at Moore's pond in honor of Miss Lillian Winston and her visiting friends. J. T. Wilson, a stockholder, never fails to respond when called on for a "fry."

Herman, Janadus and Edwin Winston, left Tuesday for Oxford where they played with the Oxford ball team against Littleton Tuesday evening, from Oxford they went to Roanoke Rapids, where they will play the remainder of the week for Roanoke Rapids. This makes four of our players Roanoke has for the games this week and ought to win all of them for they knew where to come to get winners.

Lieut. S. E. Winston received from the Adjutant General of the State this week a pistol marksman medal that he won at Camp Glenn last summer on a high score with the revolver while at target practice with his regiment. This is the third medal he has won since joining the guard. He has also received orders to go to Morehead City, July 10th, where the regiment will be in camp until 17th for target practice.

This is a good time for our citizens to get busy and clean up their back lots as a stitch in time may save nine and maybe a doctor's bill and a long spell of typhoid fever to yourself or neighbor. Let's clean up, it will look better any way, and then we can meet the sanitary inspector with a smile and hear from him the welcome words "well done."

W. A. Tharp, of Oxford, spent a few days here this week with H. M. Winston.

Miss Mable Co-ke, of Franklinton, is visiting her grandfather, W. T. Blanks, this week.
