Lesson XIII.—Second Quarter,
For June 25, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, a Comprehensive Quarterly Review—Golden Text, Mic. vi, 8—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

LESSON I.—Naaman healed, II Kings v. 1-14. Golden Text, Isa. xiv. 22, "Look unto me and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth, for I am God, and there is none else." Leprosy, a peculiar type of sin and sinners. Great sinners may be great in their own sight and in the esteem of others, but in God's sight lost. All can be saved if willing to submit to God and His way. Money cannot buy it.

LESSON II.—Elisba's heavenly defenders, II Kings vi. 8-17. Golden Text, Ps. xci. 11. "For He shall give His angels charge over thee to keep thee in all thy ways." God knows all our ways and our going out and coming in, and also our thoughts (Ps. cxxxix and Ezek. xi. 5). If God be for us, who can be against us? God with us is more than all who can be against us. Opened eyes to see the unseen is our great need. He can do it.

LESSON III.—Jonah, the boy king, II Kings xi. 9-20. Golden Text, Ps. cxix. 2, "Blessed are they that keep His testimonies and that seek Him with the whole heart." Ten times in this chapter we find the house of the Lord, or the temple of the Lord, or the Lord's people. God will take care of His chosen king, whether it be David or Josiah or His Messiah.

LESSON IV.—The temple repaired, II Kings xii. 4-15. Golden Text, I Chron. xxix. 9, "Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly." A chest beside the altar to receive the willing offerings of the people was the method of obtaining money which the Lord blessed. At least twelve times in this chapter the expression "the house of the Lord" occurs. Devotion to the Lord because of His sacrifice will bring all needed funds.

LESSON V.—God's pity for the heathen, Jonah iii. 5 to iv. 11. Golden Text, Matt. xxvii. 19, "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations." Jesus Christ believed the story of Jonah and those who question it question the veracity of Jesus (Matt. xii. 39-41). Jonah was willing that the people of Nineveh should perish; the Lord is not willing that any should perish (II Pet. iii. 9). Note the things which God prepared and used—a wind, a fish, a worm, a gourd, and even rebellious Jonah.

LESSON VI.—Uzziah humbled, II Chron. xxvi. 8-21. Golden Text, Prov. xvi. 18, "Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall." Some people do right only as long as they have a strong visible human helper. The devil always tempts to pride and self sufficiency, but we can only be strong in the Lord, and that only as we know our own weakness, for His strength is made perfect in weakness.

LESSON VII.—Isaiah's call to service, Isa. vi. Golden Text, Isa. vi. 8, "I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me." A vision of a man on the throne, the God man, alive forevermore, is what we all need (Ezek. i. 26-28). This works conviction of sin and self abhorrence; then follows forgiveness of sins, and then a readiness for service, as He may will.

LESSON VIII.—Song of the vineyard, Isa. v. 1-12. Golden Text, Isa. v. 22, "Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink." Strong drink acts upon the body as pride does on the soul, the former causing a beastly drunkenness and the latter the drunkenness of Isa. xxix. 6-13. Only by the blood of Jesus Christ can we be saved from either, and only as filled with the spirit can we bear fruit.

LESSON IX.—Universal peace, Mic. iv. 1-8. Golden Text, Mic. iv. 3, "Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation; neither shall they learn war any more." This great saying is also found in Isa. ii. 4, and it shall be fulfilled when He who came as a babe to Bethlehem shall at His coming again in glory be Ruler in Israel (Mic. v. 2), not by peace conferences, nor by missions, nor by any present agencies, but only by Himself, at His second coming (Isa. xxxii. 1, 17).

LESSON X.—The promise of the Father, John xiv. 15-27. Golden Text, John xiv. 16, "I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another comforter, that He may abide with you forever." Only by the Holy Spirit can we know God in Christ or receive His word, and only when the Holy Spirit shall be poured upon Israel shall they have a true conviction of sin and welcome Jesus Christ as their Messiah.

LESSON XI.—Hezekiah's Passover, II Chron. xxx. 13-27. Golden Text, I Sam. xvi. 7, "Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart." The great need of today is the zeal of a Hezekiah to cleanse the professing church from its filthiness and to turn it whole heartedly to the Lord.

LESSON XII.—The downfall of Samaria, II Kings xvii. 1-14. Golden Text, Prov. xxix. 1, "He that being often reproved hardeneth his neck shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy." As truly as judgment came on Israel so surely shall there be a fulfillment of II Thess. i. 7-10, and all similar predictions.

WOLVES OF FRANCE.

A Picture of Their Ferocity in the Eighteenth Century.
"The ferocious wolf," said a nature student, "is the most perfect expression of carnivorous bloodthirst that walks. His jaws is the most terrible of weapons. Its slashing bite can break the leg of a buffalo, and the noise of it when at work in a sheepfold resembles nothing so much as the incessant crackling of a heavy whip."
He took down a book.
"Here is what the wolves of France were like," he said. "This is a letter from the famous Duchess of Orleans, dated at Marly, Feb. 9, 1709:
"Packs of wolves commit fearful ravages. They have devoured the postman of Alencon and his horse. Two of the beasts attacked a tradesman near Mons, one springing at his throat. In response to his shrieks two dragoons who were walking by came to his help. One drew his sword and ran a wolf through the body, on which it turned and seized its new assailant by the throat. His comrade came up and beat the brute off, but not before it had killed the man. Meanwhile the other wolf had seized the second dragoon from behind and dragged him down. Finally when effective help arrived both the soldiers and one wolf were found dead. The other had got away. As for the tradesman, his leg was so pitilessly torn that it had to be amputated above the knee."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A CLEVER RUSE.

Remember This When You Next Purchase Costly Jewels.
How Mr. Pierpont Morgan made his millions would take volumes to relate, but an amusing little artifice by means of which he succeeded in saving $1,000 can be told within the brief space of a couple of paragraphs.
Some years ago a jewelry firm in New York sent the financier a fine pearl, offering it to him for $5,000. This Mr. Morgan decided to purchase, and two checks were made out—one for $5,000 and the other for $4,000. He then removed the pearl from its box and, having substituted for it the $5,000 check, revealed the package.
Mr. Morgan's clerk was next dispatched to the jeweler's with the sealed box and a note containing the check for $4,000, stating that Mr. Morgan would be pleased to purchase the pearl if they would be satisfied with the check. The unsuspecting jeweler—in ignorance, of course, of what the sealed package now contained—closed with the astute financier's offer. And the box in which the $5,000 check serenely reposed was returned to Mr. Morgan unopened!—Pearson's.

The Queen Bumblebee.

The length of life of a queen bumblebee is probably little more than a year at most. Here is one reason for this belief: She hatches among the late broods of summer and soon after leaves the nest, leading a vagabond existence, night and day, among the autumn flowers. The winter she passes in an earth burrow dug by herself and unaided establishes a colony in the spring. There combined periods of fall and spring require the daily use of her frail wings in the field at least four months. Now, we know that the wings of the worker honeybee wear out in less than half that time; also that the old queens who take to the field after the nest breaks up in August frequently have tattered wings and soon disappear. Nature does not supply insects with new wing cells as it supplies birds with new wing feathers. So the loss of the power of flight at this season of the year to the queen bumblebee means the loss of life.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Bank Deposits.

"It's odd the different sources of bank deposits," remarked a bank official. "For example," he said, "we receive thousands of dollars every year from Cleveland men in the army and navy. The amounts range from $5 a month from privates to $30 or more from some of the officers."
"Most of this is sent to us direct by the paymaster of the army or navy, as the case may be. Just now we are getting a lot of money from men in the navy on this cruise to the Pacific. The paymaster makes out a list of the various deposits and sends along a check to cover the total amount. Thus the men draw their pay and deposit it without ever seeing it. Their pass books in a good many cases are left right here."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Despair.

"What do you want of the editor?" asked the office boy, blocking up the doorway.
"I have a manuscript poem," said the long haired caller, "which I wish to submit for his inspection."
The office boy closed the door, but reappeared a moment later.
"Nothin' doin'." We ain't printin' no poetry now," he said, slamming the door in the caller's face.
"Bard out!" exclaimed the poet, tearing his hair.
"Chester!" yelled the boy over the partition. "I've heard that 'un before."—Chicago Tribune.

In Washington.

"I made a glaring error today," sighed the cabinet lady.
"How's that?" inquired the departed mental lady.
"I glared at a woman I should have ignored completely."—Louisville Courier Journal.

An Inspiration.

Mrs. Knicker—Henry, why did you leave your shoes on the stairs last night?
