Ingleside Items.

Miss Burla Sharrin returned Saturday from a visit to friends in Greensboro.

Miss Lena Duke, of near Franklinton, was a pleasant visitor at Mr.
R. D. Pinnells the past week. Rev and Mrs. Mitchiner and children of Statesville, were visitors at Mr. R.
D. Pinnells the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Pinnell entertained quite a number of young people at their beautiful home on last Saturday night. Those present report a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. Clay, of Clays, was a pleasant visitor at Mr. W. A. Reavis' last Sunday.

Mr. Luther Whitaker has "cut out" playing and talking baseball and has started out lecturing on the matrimonial proposition.

Messrs. J. Y. and W. L. Beasley went over to Durham on motorcycles last week.

We are needing rain badly through this section, especially for tobacco, cotton and corn are looking well.

Mr. Herbert Ayescue started out this spring, raising owls for pets but but found difficulty in securing cages for them, so he has given away his owls and turned his attention to flowers making Daisies a specialty.

The motorcycles is taking the day around here now, the young men who are lucky enough to own one are taking the girls over to Frank-linton nearly every week.

Mr. Worta Hays has not bought a motorcycle yet, therefore he does not burn any gasoline, but he can burn more lamp oil a short summer night than any man in our town.

Mr. E. S. Merritt is making preparations for building a new house.

Our little city is cooling, Mr. W. F.
Davis has built an ice house and has added a nice line of cold drinks for the benefit of the public in general, we wish him success in his new line as we can now have ice cream anytime, without hauling ice from town.

Our people seem to be taking a great deal of interest in baseball this season, we have a good game every Saturday.

Miss Ester Edwards is a visitor at Mr. Stainbacks this week.

Wishing you success and remaining a friend to the FRANKLIN TIMES, I am yours.
