Life is What we Make it.

While life is dark and dreary,
And the sweetest days have passed,
Then we always must remember,
That life's nothing but a task.

While we watch the moments pass us,
That are never to return,
Why not try to live them sweetly,
And let our troubles ne'er return.

Life seems hard to everyone,
While we strive to reach the top,
But our chances are even,
When nothing but tots.

Life is what we make it,
And its up to everyone,
To make life what we want it,
And then our task is done.

Never watch the other fellow,
And say he's going to the bad,
But overlook his shortcomings,
And think how sad, how sad.

If we only stop to consider
How everybody stands,
How this world is full of mysteries,
And without a helping hand.

Now let our road be easy,
And accept what life extends,
For we never will regret it,
As life comes to the end.

There seems to be an ice famine going on just now.

It now seems as if they are going after the Express companies.

RALEIGH gets the meeting of the State Dental Association next year.

CORPORATION COMMISSIONER H. C. Brown died in Raleigh Monday.

It begins to look as if the Commissioners are divided on establishing a market house.

HON. F. D. WINSTON was elected President of the State Bar Association at Lake Toxaway Friday.

There should be some law whereby a man who can pay his tax and won't could be made to work it out on the streets.

WOODROW WILSON says "I am a one-job man." There seems to be a great difference between him and the average man in his position.

The number of deaths from hot weather is alarming. On Wednesday 37 deaths were reported from Chicago and 29 in Philadelphia, besides many from other places.

MAYOR Holden informs us that he is going to enforce the vagrancy law. This is a wise decision and we are sure it will meet with the approval of all the citizens of Louisburg.

We acknowledge the receipt of the 1911-12 catalogue of the Louisburg Female College. This year it is gotten up in especially attractive form and is a pretty piece of printing.

There is absolutely no use of the counties going to the expense of trying and convicting a man for anything of he is to be given his pardon by some high official who has the power.

The light and water committees are receiving some very severe criticisms since it has been learned that no one was present at the power house on last Thursday night, except the colored fireman.

The market house is a question that should receive the attention of the people of Louisburg. If flies have anything to do with spreading disease, the health of this section seems as a miracle.

As a rule a man knows the law and when he willfully violates it he should be made to suffer the consequences. This pardoning is doing more to render the country lawless than any other one thing in it.

A CATALOGUE of the A. & M.

College of Raleigh for 1911 has been received by us. It is a document of worth and contains information that should make every North Carolinian feel proud of this institution.

From what we can learn minors are not only allowed to take a part in the games in the pool room, but it is actually sub-leased to minors. This is a terrible state of affairs for a town and the parents of Louisburg should rise up in force against it.

We have the utmost confidence in Mr. Persons ability as an engineer, but either he, the committee in charge, or some one connected therewith are not showing the proper interest in the town's power plant when they leave it in charge of a negro fireman for any length of time more especially all night.

Tim Holderfield convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to ten years in the State prison at Wake Superior Court in April 1909, was given a conditional pardon on June 28th by Gov. W. W. Kitchin. This will be remembered as the rock quarry case. It is a mysterious puzzle to us to see how the Governor or anybody else expects the State laws to be respected under a continual stream of pardons.

Of course you cannot expect a set of men to take action contrary to public sentiment especially when they are elected by popular vote, but if the parents of Louisburg would take the interest in the moral side of the business of Louisburg, and the health conditions as they should, we would soon have a market house, and have the pool rooms under control, as well as make the necessary corrections in other business.

It is ridiculous that six and seven hundred dollars of town taxes should be reported insolvent or uncollected in Louisburg with a population of less than three thousand. If the officers are not going to collect them all then they should not attempt to collect any as it is not just to make one man pay and leave the other alone. We have seen the books and know there are some or them who can be made to pay and they should be forced to do so.

We have heard it rumored that the pool room would be moved to an up stairs room in a few days. This is contrary to all rules of morality and should be a strict violation of our town laws. The pool room, as well as other places of its kind, should be forced to be kept on the ground floor and to keep its windows clean so that any one passing can see what is going on inside. There is absolutely no use having any laws regulating it if you do not have it in shape that it can be under the constant watch of the city police.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS LOUISBURG AND RAEFORD CROSSES BATS

Series of Three Games Played on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Games Enjoyed by Many Louisburg People.

The first of the baseball season for Louisburg was opened with a series of three games with Raeford, commencing on Monday and lasting through Wednesday. Quite a number of our local fans enjoyed the sport and some of the games proved very interesting.

Monday's game although won by the visitors in rather a one sided score was a hard fought one. Raeford scored four runs in the first inning after which the only record she could hand the scorer was a cipher, while Louisburg lost out in the first three innings, scoring one in the fourth and marking up a cipher in the remainder. In this game Raeford got ten hits and made four errors, while Louisburg got five hits and made no errors. McKeithan for the visitors, struck out twelve men, while Underwood, for the home team struck out six. McKeithan gave four bases on balls against two by Underwood. The battery for this game was for Raeford, M. McKeithan and Poole; Louisburg, Underwood and Turner. The following is a score by innings:

Raeford	400	000	000	—4
Louisburg	000	100	000	—1

Tuesday's game proved to be more interesting and decidedly more pleasing to the many lovers of the sport in Louisburg, as the game was won by the home team in a score of 3 and 2. This was a very pretty game and was full of life. Only ten hits were made, Louisburg getting seven of them and both teams evening up on errors in the small number 2. This came near being a shut out, but the visitors rallied in the ninth and scored their number in this inning. Batteries in this game were for Raeford, D. McKeithan and Poole; Louisburg, Smith and Turner. The score by innings was as follows:

Raeford	000	000	002	—2
Louisburg	201	000	00x	—3

Wednesday's game proved to be a very interesting game. The two first innings played resulted in no score for either side. In the second Raeford scored two and Louisburg followed by marking up three on a long drive by Stovall. No other scoring was done until the fourth when Raeford tied the score after which it was a shut out until the eighth when the visitors took the lead with another score. This was a pretty and interesting game, good playing on both sides being much in evidence. In this game Raeford got nine hits and made three errors and Louisburg got six hits and made three errors. McKeithan for Raeford struck out four men and Underwood for the home team struck out nine. The batteries were for Raeford, D. McKeithan and Poole; Louisburg, Underwood and Turner. The score by innings was as follows:

Raeford	020	100	010	—4
Louisburg	080	000	000	—3

The Raeford team is composed of a fine lot of young men and who know how to play good ball. We have enjoyed their stay with us and hope to have them again.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Graded School Trustees, a resolution was adopted, requiring all pupils to be vaccinated successfully before being allowed to attend the Graded School.
