

The Belles. O! the belles! Summer belles; What a plentitude of heartaches their giddiness compels; How they giggle, giggle, giggle, In the sea breeze-laden night, How their victims squirm and wriggle An ecstasy of fright. How they hurt When they flirt. When with ghoulish glee they gloat On the squirming of a fellow when they have him by the throat. O! the belles! Brazen belles; How they conjure, scheme and plan To entrap the summer man The ribbon-counter gentlemen who masquerade as swells. O! the belles! Greedy belles; How they wring, wring, wring. Soda water, everything, From the pockets of those "Cash!" exclaiming swells. O! the belles! Foxy belles; What a wealth of hints they fling To compel the pleasant ring. Diamond ring, Ah! the heart-engaging ring. Of the golden wedding bells; bells, bells, bells, bells. O! the belles!

TAR DROPS.

The graded schools will open on Tuesday, September 5th. Come out to the opening of the tobacco warehouses next Thursday. Don't think about selling your tobacco anywhere but at Louisburg this season. Louisburg tobacco market will open next Thursday. You are invited to come. Lets everybody pull together to make this the most successful year of the graded schools. Misses Julia and Ruby Winston, of Youngsville, visited at E. L. Harris, near town the past week. Louisburg, together with its tobacco warehousemen, offers a special welcome to all who will visit it this fall. Isn't it strange how much trouble some men take to "put their schemes through" when all that is necessary is to leave them alone and they will "fall through." The attention of our many readers, especially tobacco farmers, is directed to the change of advertisement of the Farmers Warehouse. Read what they have to say. J. D. Wintree, who returned from the hospital at Raleigh Saturday after having undergone two operations, left yesterday morning for Raleigh to undergo another. Do you know what sphere of life you can make a grand success of because you would have very little competition? Try minding your own business and see for yourself. The children of this district are making preparation for the opening of the schools which will be as follows: The graded Schools on the 5th of September and the College on the 12th. Superintendents B. White and Miss Arrington are calling a meeting of all public school teachers for Saturday September 9th, of which formal notice will be published in next weeks issue. Our dealers are "loading up" with a lot of pretty furniture and furnishings. There will be no excuse for any one to go there this fall to make their purchases. A man's character may be likened to a stamp—one black mark ruins it. A man's character may be likened to a greenback—no matter how many stains it still passes as good. The standard has been established by society all over the world.

T. L. Bartholomew, who has been holding position with his uncle, W. H. Bartholomew, at Stallings, for the past three years left Monday for Nashville to take a position in the Ward District. Mr. Bartholomew is an energetic and industrious young man, and has many friends in this county with much success for him in his new field.

The friends of the family will be glad to learn that Mr. Robert Bailey's condition seems to be some better.

Everybody is invited to attend the big picnic for the old Confederate Veterans to be held in Louisburg on next Thursday, August 31st.

There is nothing that makes a man feel more like making the air look blue than to go home feeling himself the most abused person on God's foot stool and ready to give his family a curtain lecture and find that there is company at home. Then he has to put on a pleasant face and pretend he is the happiest man in the world. B-r-r-r! It's a terrible feeling.

There is nothing that causes so much trouble among neighbors as chickens. Poor chickens! If they are blamed for all the enemies they have made in this world they have scores of black marks against them. It seems strange that people will let their chickens run. They certainly are no improvement to a pretty lawn. Now is the time when chickens can do the greatest damage to flower gardens and vegetable gardens. Now in hot weather, is the time when people lose their temper the easiest over trifles. Keep up your chickens and keep the good will of your neighbors.

A thin, sickly little man entered one of the stores in one of our small towns recently and quietly seated himself on a convenient chair. One of the clerks approached and asked if he wished to purchase anything. "Oh, no," said the man, "I just dropped in for a few minutes." After half an hour had passed, the manager of the store, becoming curious, approached him and asked what could be done for him. "Why nothing that I know of," said the man, "You see I have nervous prostration and the doctor told me to stay in a quiet place. Noticing that you do not advertise, I thought this would be about the quietest place I could find." Let me tell you it was anything but quiet there for five minutes. The poor little man found himself in the street wishing that he had landed on a feather bed. But the next week the store surprised itself with a big display "ad" in the home paper.

Changes Name.

The Louisburg Auto and Machine Company of this place made it known yesterday that they would change the name of their company to the Jackson Tri-State Motor Car Co. This change was occasioned by this company taking the agency for the celebrated Jackson Motor Car, manufactured at Jackson, Mich. Messrs. R. Y. McAden and H. D. Woolcott left the factory on last Sunday and arrived home on Tuesday night driving one of the Jackson cars and inform us of a most pleasant and successful trip—having no trouble during the whole run. This company is composed of clever and hustling young men and there is no doubt but that their already successful business will increase rapidly. We call your attention to their change of advertisement in another column. It will be noted however that the change of name has been fully decided and made since the advertisement was printed.

Stopped Those Pains.

Cooper Hill, Va.—Mrs. Ida Conner, of this place, says: "For years, I had a pain in my right side, and I was very sick with various troubles. I tried different doctors but could get no relief. I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I took Captin, and it relieved the pain in my side, and now I feel like a new person. I had wonderful medicine. It was completely gone. I had no more of that trouble. And you know, the doctor's bill was paid when I was cured. It will help you, why wait? Try it today. Ask your druggist about it."
