The House of Years. Life's room, in childhood, seems a boundless place, Full of strange corners and adventurous space; Youth finds it wider yet, a home of dreams With shining casements lit by rain-bow gleams; While ripper years bring firelight on the hearth, Content and welcome, love and work and mirth. Until the walls draw nearer and more near, And the age beholds them, suddenly and clear, How small the rooms! Alas, how each recalls Some memory that breathes within the walls— Here joy stood smiling, garlanded with flowers, The mirror's depths glimpses with a shadow host That waiver, melt, and in the dark are lost; The fire burns low and quivers on the floor— Yet, as an unseen hand sets wide the door, Lo! Thro' its arch as to the child, appears The beckoning vision of immortal years. —Liverpool Mercury.

Funny Paragraphs. Nell—"Mrs. Dashaway is really a well-preserved woman." Belle—"Yes, she believes that self-preservation is the first law of nature."

EVERYTHING IN STOCK. "I want some lawb." "Yes'm. For a dress or for a front yard?"—Louisville Courier Journal.

Hoax—"It's a good plan to begin at the bottom and work to the top." Joax—"Yes, unless you are digging a well."

TAKEN AT HIS WORD. Creditor—Suppose I'll have to wait till the day of judgment for what you owe.—Debtor—Yes, call late in the day, though—Fliegende Blatter.

CARRYING NO FAVOR. "Lend a hand, Hiram, and help ketch the alderman's pig." "Let the aldermen ketch his own pig. I'm out of politics fer good."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PART OF THE ROLE. "Shall we pose as millionaires or as foreign dukes at the hotel?" "As the latter, my boy. As millionaires we might be expected to display some evidences of wealth, but as dukes nobody can possibly take it amiss if we skip."—Kansas City Journal.

REVISING IT DOWNWARD. "Then I'm to tell the firm," the bill collector said, making a memorandum in his notebook, "that you'll probably settle this account next week?" "Well, I'd hardly put it that way," hesitatingly answered the other. "Probably" is a pretty strong word; better make it "possibly."—Chicago Tribune.

JAMES JAMES JAMES, NOT TRIPLETS. "What's your name?" asked Clerk Lord in the municipal court today. "James." "What's your first name?" "James." "Now, listen to me and give me your name," said the clerk. "My name is James James." "Have you a middle name?" "Yes." "What is it?" asked the clerk. "James," said the defendant. "I was christened James James James, being named after my father, James J. James" He was sent to the State farm for loitering.—Boston Dispatch to the New York World.

ONE-MAN POWER. In a Fourth of July oration in Denver, N. C., Godwin once remarked on the small means wherewith Washington had achieved such great ends. "When I think," said Godwin,

"of Washington's terrible handicap, my mind goes back to the town of Nola Chucky. "An actor-manager was to appear for one night in Nola Chucky, and accordingly he wired the proprietor of the Nola Chucky house. "Will hold rehearsal tomorrow noon. Have stage manager, stage carpenter, property man and assistant chief electrician and all the stage hands at theater prompt to hour." "He received this telegram in reply: "He will be there."—Washington Star.

HE JUST BUTTED IN. Bathhouse partitions are not sound-proof, and consequently a sweet female voice full of dismay was plainly heard at Atlantic City on Saturday afternoon. "Oh, Laura!" cried the voice, evidently addressing her girl chum in the adjoining house. "I have forgotten my shoe horn. Have you one that you can loan me?" "What's the matter?" queried a deep bass voice a few yards away before Laura could reply. "Can't you get your hobble skirt on?"—Philadelphia Telegraph.

WHAT HE KNEW. The lawyer had a somewhat difficult witness, and finally asked if he was acquainted with any of the men on the jury. "Yes, sir," replied the witness, "more than half of them." "Are you willing to swear that you know more than half of them?" demanded the lawyer. "Why, if it comes to that, I'm willing to swear that I know more than all of them put together."—Milwaukee Journal.

A DREADFUL SIGHT to H. J. Bamum, of Freeville, N. Y., was the fever-sore that plagued his life for years in spite of many remedies he tried. At last he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and wrote: "It has entirely healed with scarcely a scar left." Heals Burns, Bolls, Eczema, Cuts, Bruises, Swellings, Corns, and Piles like magic. Only 25c at Aycock Drug Co.

Reflections of a Bachelor. Good intentions are terribly slow beginners. A man might just as well be in love with a girl as try to convince her he isn't. You can tell a man with a family of children by how nervous he gets when he drops a coin on the floor even in his office.

One thing a woman can never forgive in her husband is to forget the color of her hat the day they started on their honeymoon. Just what you really think of a man who imagines you admire him wouldn't surprise him any more than what he really thinks of you would surprise you.—New York Press.

Digestion and Assimilation. It is not the quantity of food taken but the amount digested and assimilated that gives strength and vitality to the system. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and enable them to perform their functions naturally. For sale by all dealers.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM It Is An Internal Disease And Requires An Internal Remedy. The cause of rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. RUBBING WITH Oils and Liniments WILL NOT CURE, affords only temporary relief at best, causes you to delay the proper treatment, and allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will do more cure Rheumatism than paint will change the fiber of rotten wood. Science has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called Rheumacide. Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide gets at the joints from the inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you well all over. Rheumacide strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause. This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c. and $1 a bottle. In Tablet form at 25c. and 50c. a package. Write to Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md. Booklet free. Tablets sent by mail.

Sale of Valuable Timber. Under the authority contained in an order of the Superior Court of Franklin County in the special proceeding, entitled, Martha A. Moses, Victoria Moses, et als, I will on Monday, the 4th day of September 1911, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash all the timber growing on the stump when cut 12 inches from the ground on that certain tract of land situate in Franklin County, State of North Carolina, and in Cypress Creek Township, bounded on the North by the lands of Willie Bowden, The Greenleaf-Johnson Lumber Co., and Willis Bowden, on the East by the lands of Mrs. Laura Coppedge; on the South by the lands of Mrs. Laura Coppedge and Mrs. Spivey; on the West by the lands of Geo. Wood and Mrs. Sallie Hollingsworth, the entire tract containing about two hundred and sixty-five (265) acres, and being known as The Luther Moses Home Place. The oak trees on the lot around the home are not included in the timber to be sold. Three (3) years will be given in which to cut and remove the timber from the land. Parties desiring further information will apply to the undersigned commissioner. This the 3rd day of August, 1911. R. B. WHITE, Commissioner. The above sale was continued until Monday, October 2nd 1911, at the hour of noon.
