

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

Pleasant Evening Reveries.—A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide

RUDE THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITORIAL PEN

Hard hands, strong arms, and sun-burned faces are honor ble. Take "Excelsior" for your motto, and if you are patient, in a few years you can surely write under it that other good word, "Eureka."

Youth and age have two little sympathy with other. If the young would remember—that they may be old—and the old remember that they have been young, the world would be happier.

Did you ever realize that nothing on earth can smile but a human being. Gems may flash reflected light that cannot smile like a bud that cannot blossom, and dies upon the stalk.

How sad is he who can never go back to his childhood without a shudder. Who can never recall a period when his life was filled with sweet and simple satisfaction. When a kind and loving mother read aloud to the family of the Home Circle department from the columns of this paper.

How few, comparatively, of the young people of the present day, appreciate as they should the inestimable privileges they enjoy. Surrounded as are the young in all cities and most towns, with all the opportunities necessary for the cultivation of a literary taste, not one in a thousand appear to improve these golden chances. Occasionally it is true we meet with a young man or woman who firmly grasps the idea that "knowledge is power," but these unfortunately, are the exceptions, not the rule.

We doubt if one instance in a thousand can be found of a young man's making stipwreck of hopes and character who was accustomed to spend his evenings at home reading good books; and we say to any parent that a well stocked library and an abundant supply of news papers and magazines, with the habit of reading on the part of your boy, is worth more to keep him out of mischief, and to make a man of him, than any other single influence at your command.

Don't say the world owes you a living until you have earned one. Idleness in boys and girls is the blackest curse of any land. There is just as great a work and just as noble for the young woman as for the young man. When the girls, in earnestness, cast aside the loose cloak of vain fickleness and donning the beautiful garments of laboring purity, come forth from the sickly chamber of the "accomplished" asking "What shall we do?" and bearing the motto, "Woman's ability shall see light," then the boys will become more earnest, most temperate, more like men. Dear young people be not afraid, or ashamed of labor.

There are hundreds of young men in every great city in the very lowest depths of degradation, whom the home influence carefully and prayerfully extended through tender, affectionate, womanly letters, might have saved. There are hundreds of others, just taking their first lesson, in vice, who may be brought back to parity by loving words from mothers, sisters or sweethearts. Can a man become thoroughly vicious, the thought of a pure woman's love will do much to restrain him from iniquity. If that love grows careless of him, he grows careless of himself. Think of this, you have sons, brothers or lovers away among strangers. Remember that you owe them a sacred duty; and give them frequent missives from home, freighted with love and accompanied by earnest prayer.

"Teach your children to love the beautiful. Give them a corner in the garden for flowers; encourage them to put it in the shape of hanging baskets; show them where they can best view the sunset—rouse them in the morning, not with the stern "time to go to work," but with the enthusiastic "see the beautiful sunrise." Buy for them pretty pictures and encourage them to decorate their rooms in his or her childish way. Give them an inch and they will go a mile. Allow them the privilege and they will make your home beautiful.

There is food for thought in the story that is told of a young lad, who for the first time accompanied his father to a public dinner. The waiter asked him, "What will you take to drink?" Hestitating for a moment, he replied, "I'll take what father takes." The answer reached his father's ear, and instantly the full responsibility of his position flashed upon him. In a moment his decision was made; and in tones tremulous with emotion, and to the astonishment of those who knew him he said: "Waiter, I'll take water."

Place a young girl under the care of kind-hearted women, and she, unconsciously to herself, grows into a grateful lady. Place a boy in the establishment of a through-going, straight-forward business man, and the boy becomes a self-reliant, practical business man. Children are susceptible creatures, and circumstances, scenes and actions always impress.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial trouble," writes Mrs. L. B. Arnold, of Denver, Colo. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief." For sale by all dealers.

An ounce of sense today is far better than a pound of regret tomorrow.

"MY BLOOD IN FINE CONDITION"

Every sufferer from Blood Poison should read what Mrs. G. P. Wilson, of Wilson, N. C., says of her experience: "I was a terrible sufferer from Blood Poison. If the skin would be broken, the flesh would become inflamed, itch and burn, and develop into sores. Before the birth of one of my children, my whole body became fearfully swollen, and I was in a serious condition generally. I used Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and it cured me. My blood is in fine condition. I believe if it had not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy I would have died. Its value is priceless."

Away back in the days of Moses it was said, "In the blood thereof is the life," and never were truer words spoken. This vital fluid is the essence of life and health, and when it becomes impure, impoverished or poisoned the result is debility, weakness, loss of vitality, energy and life itself. Without good blood, good health is impossible.

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY

is a sure specific for all troubles due to impure, impoverished and poisoned blood, such as Eczema, Old Sores, Scrofula, and the long train of attendants, including Indigestion, Dropsy, Stomach Troubles, Nervousness, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Female Troubles, and general "run-down" conditions in both men and women. It feeds the blood, drives out every vestige of poison, tones up the nervous system, induces sound and refreshing sleep, and brings the entire body back to its natural healthy condition.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy is scientifically prepared from purely vegetable ingredients. It positively contains no opiate or narcotic of any kind, no iodine of Potassium or other mineral—just a compound of helpful herbs, nature's own remedy for human ills. As a Tonic, Alterative, Blood purifier or Nerve Tonic it has no equal. It quickly cures Nervous Prostration and Insomnia. We don't care how many doctors have said you couldn't be cured—Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will cure you, if you will only give it a chance. Write us for testimonials from people who expected long ago to be dead, but are living today and glad to tell how this Remedy cured them. In cases of external trouble, inflammation, ulceration or itching humor, our Wash should be used with the Remedy. For sale by druggists or supplied direct on receipt of price, $1.00 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5.00; 1 dozen by express prepaid for $10.00, by
