John Cannaday, colored, of this township, gave a nice barbecue on Monday in honor of Mr. Mulligan and crew and the entire good roads committee. Every one enjoyed themselves immensely.

H. C. Hight killed 5 hogs last Monday which made him 1,088 pounds of meat. Henry says he won't pick any more cotton till the meat is all gone. He is too greasy, he says, his hand will not hold it.

A. H. Vann, A. O. Perry and Capt. Nicholson made the circuit on Mr. Vann's car to Raleigh to Durham and Oxford Sunday and came back in the afternoon and they say they didn't find ten miles of bad roads in the 106 miles which they made.

Mollie Winston, an old colored woman and faithful servant at Sheriff Kearney's, died Monday. She was only sick a short while, and it seemed to be old age, Aunt "Patience," as she was more familiarly known, had lived in the sheriff's family for twenty years or more, and was always faithful to her duties and worked up to three days of her death. She was 85 years old.

A large and intelligent crowd greeted the Parland Newhall Company at the Graded School auditorium on Tuesday night. The selections were of the highest character and received much applause. One special feature of note was the violin solo, and the bells were fine. In all it was a good show of first class performance in every feature as was attested by a continual encore.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

NO CAUSE TO DOUBT.

A Statement of Facts Backed by a Strong Guarantee.

We guarantee immediate and positive relief to all sufferers from constipation. In every case where our remedy fails to do this we will return the money paid us for it. That's a frank statement of facts, and we want you to substantiate them at our risk.

Remall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Remall Orderlies are unsurpassable and ideal for the use of children, old folks and delicate persons. We cannot too highly recommend them to all sufferers from any form of constipation and its attendant evils. That's why we back our faith in them with our promise of money back if they do not give entire satisfaction. Three sizes: 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents and 80 tablets 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain Remall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store, Seoggin Drug Co.

A Good Woman Gone.

Last Wednesday evening Dec. 6th the death angel came and took away the loving wife of J. C. Winston. She was a pure christian woman, her life was spent for those she loved, and her happiest moments were when administering to those who were unhappy. She was loved by all who knew her and ever ready to extend the helping hand to the unfortunate.

She leaves a husband and seven children, two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Husketh of Liranyville county, Miss Mamie Dent, of Raleigh, three brothers, Charlie Dent of Portsmouth, and Jimmie and Eugene Dent, of Henderson. Seven children, Miss Ora Winston Paul, Edward, Albert, Johnnie, Eleanor and Sam. She leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

She was a kind devoted wife and mother. She connected herself with the church when twelve years old, in the Methodist faith in Franklinton, and at her death was a member of the M. E. church at Youngsville. The burial services were held at her home, she was buried at the family burying ground near her home. Many were the floral offerings placed by loving hands as a last tribute to their loved one. She was 54 years old and had been married to Mr. Winston 24 years.

ACTUAL STARVATION.

Facts About Indigestion and Its Relief That Should Interest You.

Although indigestion and dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and cure. There is no reason why most people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking, good-smelling, and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

The best thing to do is to fit yourself to digest any good food.

We believe we can relieve dyspepsia. We are so confident of this fact that we guarantee and promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who will use it, who is not perfectly satisfied with the results which it produces. We exact no promises, and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely, nothing could be fairer. We are located right here and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Remall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. Then, if not satisfied, come to us and get your money back. They are very pleasant to take; they aid to soothe the irritable stomach, to strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, and to promote a healthy and natural bowel action, thus leading to perfect and healthy digestion and assimilation.

A 2½c. package of Remall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases, this is sufficient to produce a cure. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases, we have two larger sizes which sell for 50c. and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Remall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, The Seoggin Drug Co.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XIII.—Fourth Quarter, For Dec. 24, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. ii, 1-12. Memory Verses, 11, 12—Golden Text, Luke ii, 11—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

We choose the Christmas lesson for today and will take up the study in Malachi next week instead of the quarterly review. Malachi tells of the great King whose name is to be great among all nations from the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, even of Him who is King of kings and Lord of lords (Mal. i, 11-14; Rev. xvii, 14; xix, 16). The New Testament opens with His record as Son of David, Son of Abraham, and closes with His title as the root and offspring of David (Matt. i, 1; Rev. xxii, 16). Among all the kings mentioned in Matt. i, 1-11, David is the only one who is called king, because the covenant was made with him and because of his relation to the Messiah (11 Sam. vii; 1 Chron. xvii; Isa. lv, 3; ix, 7; Luke i, 32, 33; Acts xiii, 32-34). We come to this lesson and to the lessons of next year with implicit confidence in the record and all its statements—the supernatural birth, according to i, 18-20; the fulfillment of Isaiah vii, 14, according to verses 22, 23, and all else, believing also that not only as Jesus does He deliver us from the wrath to come (1 Thess. i, 10), but that He is able to save His people from their sins (i, 21). He was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, and when the fullness of the time was come God sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law (1 Pet. i, 20; Gal. iv, 4, 5).

The appearance of Gabriel to Mary with the wonderful announcement, the worldwide decree which brought Joseph and Mary to Bethlehem from Nazareth at the appointed time, the message of the angel to the shepherds with the accompanying incidents and the actual birth at Bethlehem are all fully told by Luke in his gospel. Our lesson today touches only the visit of the wise men from the east while the Babe and His Mother were still at Bethlehem. The title "wise men" takes us back to Ex. vii, 11; Dan. ii, 18; v, 8. The word "Bethlehem" takes us back to the birth of Benjamin and the death of his mother, the story of Naomi and Ruth, the shepherd days of David.

The question, "Where is He that is born King of the Jews?" takes us back to the prediction of Mic. v, 2, as quoted in lesson verses 5, 6, and specially to the saying, "Out of thee shall come a governor that shall rule my people Israel." All the children are taught that He was born at Bethlehem, but who ever hears anything about His ruling Israel or sitting on the throne of David? Yet that is what He came to do, but He has never yet done it. As truly as He was born at Bethlehem He will yet reign over Israel, according to Jer. xxiii, 5, 6; Ezek. xxxvii, 21; Gabriel's message in Luke i, 32, 33; His own word to His disciples in Luke xxii, 30, and the prophets everywhere. The Scripture must be fulfilled, and no other meaning can be honestly given to these plain words. The visit of these wise men from the east to worship the King of the Jews and to bring Him their gifts reminds us of the visit of the queen of Sheba and all the kings of the earth to Solomon and their great gifts to him (11 Chron. ix, 1-9; xxiii, 24) and points us onward to the time of the kingdom when all nations shall bring their wealth and their gifts to Israel (Isa. lx, 1-7). The words of Gabriel to Mary, "The Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of his father, David, and He shall reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end (Luke i, 32, 33), must be literally fulfilled. Then "all the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord, and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee, for the kingdom is the Lord's, and He is the governor among the nations" (Ps. xxii, 27, 28).

The star that guided these wise men must have been a supernatural light, as no ordinary star would guide to a house and remain over the house (verse 9). We can only wonder why with such guidance they should turn aside to Herod and thus be unwittingly the cause of the death of so many little children (verses 16-18), but there was a fulfillment of prophecy in it. Having found the child, they opened their treasures and offered unto Him their gifts—gold and frankincense and myrrh. People are today giving largely to so called good works, buildings, libraries and many schemes for the betterment of the world, not believing God concerning this world that it lieth in the wicked one and is awaiting judgment and must pass through the fire of God's wrath before there can be any real betterment. What is needed is that His own people should open to Him their treasures of time and talent and money, to make known everywhere the glad tidings of His great salvation. I have often been helped by noting that before Joseph and Mary were sent to Egypt with the Child (verse 13) the money was on hand to go with, and I have long believed that we have no right to begin any work for the Lord or take any journey for Him until He provides for it or makes it very plain, for when He putteth forth His sheep He goeth before them. We need to remember also that the money they journeyed on was the Child's money.
