Lesson VI.—Second Quarter, For
May 12, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Luke vi, 27-38;
Rom. xiii, 8-10—Memory Verses, 27,
28—Golden Text, Rom. xiii, 9—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M.
Stearns.

The topic of this lesson is "Love," and the pattern is "the love of God." At first sight the teaching is most extraordinary and the practice seemingly impossible and beyond all reason. Great grace might enable us to love our enemies, do good to those who hate us, bless those who curse us and pray for such as despitefully use us, but when it comes to lending without hoping for a return, giving to every one that asks and letting the man that takes your cloak have your coat also it does look like a good time for tramps, impostors, thieves and robbers. We know that the righteous Lord loveth righteousness, and anything unrighteous He would not do nor ask us to do, so we must prayerfully wait upon Him for clearer light upon this teaching. According to verse 35 and Matt. v, 45, the object is that we may be manifestly "the children of the Highest," "the children of our Father which is in heaven." It is therefore not a matter of what is expedient or according to reason, but how can we as the children of God make people to know our Father, God. He was teaching His disciples (verse 20), those who had received Him as the Christ, the Son of God, and had left all to follow Him, those whom He was to leave in the world in His stead, that because of them the world might believe and know the only living and true God and Jesus Christ, whom He sent into the world to manifest Him (John xvii, 3, 11, 21, 23). It is truly a high, holy, heavenly calling to represent God and Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit and be so alive to their interests that we shall be wholly dead to our own.

The love of God and of Jesus Christ is the greatest thing we ever heard of, and there are no more wonderful statements concerning it than John iii, 16; I John iii, 16.

Put with these "God commendeth His love toward us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us." "In this was manifested the love of God toward us because that God sent His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through Him." "He spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all." "Christ loved the church and gave Himself for it." "The church of God which He hath purchased with His own blood." "The Son of God loved me and gave Himself for me" (Rom. v, 8; viii, 32; I John iv, 9, 10; Eph. v, 25; Acts xx, 28; Gal. ii, 20). In the light of such tremendous statements consider the treatment that He received when here in humiliation and even as He taught our lesson of today. He was in the world which He had made, but it knew Him not; He came unto His own special people Israel, but they received Him not. Their rulers had no kind words or thoughts for Him. They said that He had a devil and was mad and that He deceived the people, and in their hatred they finally killed Him, accusing Him falsely and giving Him no semblance of a fair trial (John i, 10, 11; vii, 12, 20; viii, 52; x, 20). Yet He bore it all patiently and did not talk back nor strike back, though He might have swept them off the earth with a look or a word, as He will do at His coming in glory to set up His kingdom and share it with His own redeemed ones (Isa. xl, 4; II Thess. ii, 8; Col. iii, 4; Rev. iii, 10).

Now, considering that by such love and by the sacrifice of Himself He has at such infinite cost and by such suffering, bearing our sins in His own body, made all who receive Him children of God and joint heirs with Himself, partakers of His kingdom and glory, does it not look a good bit easier to love, to bless, to help others for His sake, to give, to lend, to do good, hoping for nothing again, to serve those who cannot serve us in return? Do we not feel like saying as Mephibosheth said of Ziba, "Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my Lord the King is come again" (II Sam. xix, 30).

Our Lord never encouraged wrongdoing, and we may be sure that He would not have us do anything to encourage injustice and oppression, theft or robbery or idleness or anything of the spirit that would wrongfully take the property of another. But He would have us show in our daily life that we have such treasure in Himself and in His kingdom that we are ready to use all present things for the good of others if only we may win them to Him, bearing meekly any loss or cross for His sake. The love of Christ constrains us to live no longer unto ourselves, but unto Him who died for us and rose again (I Cor. v, 14, 15). Since Paul could take pleasure in infirmities, in the bearing of insults, in distress, in persecutions, in grievous difficulties, for Christ's sake (II Cor. xii, 10, Weymouth), the same grace is at our disposal, to enable us to reckon all loss as mere refuse because of the priceless privilege of knowing Christ Jesus as our Lord. Does it not seem as if we could lend or give or go or bear any loss because of such love and because of His kingdom? Let our one question be "Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?" and our motto "Just to please Jesus" and we shall not be apt either to transgress or come short.

Almost a Miracle.
One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. Kings New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results. It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Aycock Drug Co."

A Card.
To my Friends, the Voters of Franklin:
I have declared myself a candidate for Treasurer, subject to the approval of the party, and ask your support. I have never before asked for or held an office, but Mr. J. A. Thomas died soon after he was elected, and Mr. Griffin was elected by the commissioners, for his term, and he was elected again two years ago, and has filled two terms, and I think it is my time now. I know a calf hates to stop sucking, but even four years is a long time between calves and it is time for a new one. He says that I am too old, and to make the campaign might kill me. I have always been able to rise to every occasion, and do things while some others are thinking about it. I have no idea of dying, never did such a thing in my life, and it is the last thing I expect to do, my health is better than it has been in twenty years, and I am as young as any of the other boys. Elect me and I will make you a faithful officer, and can always be found. Go to the primaries and vote for me and I am sure you will never regret it.
Truly your friend,
F. N. EGERTON.

To The Voters
I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination to the House of Representatives from Franklin county subject to the action of the Democratic primaries and convention.
